former students of A&M. Colonel Moore, also attended Baylor and Tarleton State College. He received degrees, in both agriculture and chemical engineering. He is a native of Commanche and was formerly registrar and dean of students at Tarleton State College. During the war, Colonel Moore served as an officer in the personnel section, Allied Force Headquarters in Italy.

Major Carpenter attended A&M three years before going to the United States Military Academy where he graduated in 1942. A native of Farmersville, he took care of things in the East while his home-town buddy, Audie Murphy was mopping up in Europe during the late war. A holder of a BS degree, Major Carpenter is teach
