Children's clinic, the Brazos Valley Shriners were among the civic organizations working on the clinic.

If a child under 14 came into the clinic and was unable to pay for necessary medical attention, the Shriners investigated the case and sent them to their hospital in Austin. This was done with no regard to race, color or creed.

So the game yesterday was more than just a sports event. It was a link in the chain that enables many of the children of Texas to walk again.

Special Services Honor Girl Scouts, Scouters

Girl Scouts and scouters of the Bryan-College Station Girl Scout Council will be honored in a special civic service of non-denominational nature Sunday afternoon by the Rev. Vern Swartsfager, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Bryan.

"Thanksgiving" will be Reverend Swartsfager's theme as he pays tribute to this organization of good influence in this community.

Girls from almost every troop in the area are expected, with members of the Council and other leaders attending. Last year more than 250 Girl Scouts and scouters attended a similar service.

The service begins at 5 p. m. with the Thanksgiving hymn, "We gather Together," after which the 150th Psalm will be repeated responsively. Following a Bible reading, "Holy, Holy, Holy" will be sung.

MacArthur --

MacArthur drove about 40 miles in a bouncing jeep through the icy winter to visit the U. S. First and Ninth Corps.

He paid a special visit to the U. S. 24th Division. There he told Maj. Gen. John E. Church that he had discussed with President Truman a presidential citation to the division for its delaying action in the bitter early days of the Korean war.

Inspects Front

His inspection lasted four hours and coincided with the kick-off of the offensive. Divisional attacks began at varying periods from 8 a. m. to 10 a. m. (6 p. m. and 8 p. m., Thursday, EST).

Timing of the big push, Washington dispatches said, was decided on military rather than diplomatic considerations.

The offensive came on the heels of a flood of peace rumors. Diplomatic authorities in Washington said the assault might help chances for a peaceful settlement.

It was rumored that a negotiated settlement of the war might be discussed by a Red China diplomatic delegation, arriving in New York Friday to attend U. N. sessions.

MacArthur flew over Red-held Korean territory enroute back to Tokyo. His plane circled several times over flaming Sinajin while the general studied damage done by U. S. bombers to the bridges across which Chinese Reds had poured into Korea.

Firemen Called To Two Grass Fires

College firemen were called to extinguish two grass fires last night. The first one occurred at 6 p. m. when a fire on a vacant lot behind the City Hall on Old Highway 6 became out of control.

The blaze was put out in a few minutes after the firemen arrived, although a small portion of the area was allowed to burn all the way to the highway under the supervision of the firemen.

The College Fire Department was also called at 10:30 p. m. to stop a fire which had spread from the incinerator out near Easterwood airport, to grass areas around the nearby sewage disposal plant. Only a small section of the grass was burned.
