College View Units To Get Tile Floors

Laying of asphalt tile on floors of College View apartments will be started soon, the Student Apartments Office has announced.

The laying has been completed in Student Manager Byn Weddell's apartment so the college could get an estimate of the overall cost.

Work on the remaining 465 College View apartments will begin as soon as materials arrive.

Living and dining room area, kitchen, and baths are to be covered with brown asphalt tile. The floors will be rough-sanded and the tile laid on a felt base.

Present plans call for completion from one to two apartments daily. Workers will begin with the front, D Row, apartment houses and work backward to A Row.

Tenants will be advised one or two days prior to the time that their apartment will be tiled.

Senate Asks Uniform Return

Students Senators voted almost unanimously to send a letter to the Dean of Men at Texas University asking that articles of clothing stolen from cadets during the recent Corps Trip to Austin be returned.

At their regular meeting Thursday night, the Senators agreed the Texas University student body should be given a chance to return the stolen articles before any prosecution is attempted.

The letter, which was prepared and read by Bill Moss, contained a price list of some of the articles, such as blouses, boots, trousers, short coats, and caps.

The letter also reminded the University students that much of the loss suffered by Aggies was government issued uniform, thus making many of the thefts a federal offense.

Any Aggie from whom articles were stolen is requested to make a report of his loss to Bennie Zinn, assistant to the Dean of Men, immediately.

Any student knowing the location of any stolen equipment or any information concerning guilty parties should also submit his information to Zinn as soon as possible.

Perris Brown, Student Senate representative to the MSC Council, reported that a $6,000 contract had been signed with Westinghouse Electric Corporation for the lighting of the area surrounding the Memorial Student Center.

Chairman of the Senate Traffic Committee, Jimmy Onstott, read a letter from President Harrington and the College Traffic Committee telling of proposed parking and traffic changes. With approval of the Board of Directors, Trail

Street is to be widened to permit diagonal parking on both sides. It is to remain a one-way street, however, with traffic moving south. The placing of floodlights on the top of dorms, illuminating parking areas in an effort to stop pilfering was discussed, but no definite decision was reached.

A motion by Joe Fuller to go ahead with plans to bring a foreign student to A&M for one year with financial help from the Campus Chest was passed by the Senate. "Spider" Eubank made a report of his studies concerning a foreign student at A&M, and stated that the Senate could specify the nationality of the student they were to sponsor, and the Institute of International Education would furnish a deserving student from that country.

The Exchange Store Committee reported on the appropriation of last year's profits from the Exchange Store, which amounted to $50,000. The largest appropriation was $27,500 to the MSC for operating expenses. Other appropriations went to the Aggie Band and the Student Life Committee for student welfare and recreation.

Acting on a motion by Lloyd Manjeot, the Senate decided to pay Baylor for two megaphones that were stolen from Baylor cheerleaders the weekend of the Baylor-A&M game. The money is to be taken from the Campus Chest Contingency Fund.

had orders to move to Pusan. This was a march that I will never forget. The road was rough, narrow, dusty, and mountainous. At the same time the 1st Cav., 24th and part of the 25th Divisions were going north. They had priority. They moved in daylight and we moved mostly at night.

After several columns had moved south, the "Reds" started their tricks of ambushes and roadblocks. Information which we obtained from captured North Koreans revealed that they thought the Americans were retreating south. There had been several thousand bypassed between Taegu and Seoul. They tried to reorganize but without results.

The Aggies seem to be pouring it on this year. I don't suppose you have time for the games since you lost Capt. Moran . . .

Cadets in High Spirits --

ed, "Maybe our offense can finally pick up and light out if the defense isn't too much. I'm not worried about our defensive line's ability to take care of itself."

But the Cadets are not downhearted. Although they have lost four games, two of these have been to the No. 1 and No. 2 teams in the nation—Oklahoma and Texas. In the final 34 seconds, the Sooners won over the Cadets who had led up until the final moments. Texas battered and held the Cadets to win with a 17 point margin and were the only team to hold the Farmers scoreless.

Smith, who leads the conference in two departments—rushing with 1302 yards in 190 carries for a 6.5 average, also the best in the conference, and scoring with 14 touchdowns for 84 points—will pace the starting offensive quartet of the Aggies.

Dick Gardemal to start in the man-under slot with Bill Tidwell and Glenn Lippman filling the halfback slots.

Both Tidwell and Lippman are ranked among the top rushers in the conference, and among the top defensive stalwarts of the Maroon. Starting in Hillhouse's place will be Jerry Crossman while either Walter Hill or Charley Hodge will represent the Aggies on the other wing post. Hill, a sophomore, was cited for his defensive and offensive work in the annual Turkey Day fray.

Dwayne Tucker and Sam Moses will be the offensive tackles with All-Conference Guards Max Greiner and Carl Molberg flanking All-Conference Center Hugh Meyer.

Double-Duty Men Defensively, W. Hill, C. D. Gwin or Dorbandt Barton will start at end; Russell Hudeck and Jack Little at tackle and both All-Conference Guards Molberg and Greiner will play also on defense.

Linebackers will be All-Conference center Bob Bates and W. Hill if Gwin starts at end or perhaps Darrow Hooper, who owns the Southwest Conference's most educated toe, having successfully booted 34 PATs, will team with Bates in backing up the line.

Defensive halfbacks will be Charley McDonald and Billy Tidwell with Yale Lary in the safety position.

the Texas group to sit in a block of seats on the fifty yard line.

Official authorization for the cadets to make the flight was telegraphed to the AFOTC headquarters from Washington. It limited the men going to 20 Air Force DMS' who made application for regular commissions.

The cadets making the flight left from Bryan Field this morning at 7:30 a. m. The first plane was piloted by Colonel Napier and Captain Burris.

Sakamoto ---

Sako next went to work digging ditches, repairing roads and fixing trucks. The Russians continued to guard him closely. Then, in April of this year, the Russians suddenly gave him his freedom. They gave no explanation.

His release had been none too soon. The boat on which he returned to Japan was the last to make the repatriation voyage. Russia announced that all prisoners had been returned to Japan. Over 350,000 Japanese, however, are still unaccounted for.

Thus it was that, after five long years, Sako got his chance to tell the story of life in Siberia. The American Central Intelligence Agency in Japan was among the first to hear his past experiences.

A free man once more, Sako went to work for the North American Newspaper Alliance. His job there was cut short when he decided to return to this country. He arrived in San Antonio Sept. 24.

Sakamoto's recent visit to A&M was to see his two half-brothers, Ken and Saw Kanhiro, both graduate students here. Ken is studying rural sociology while Saw is a floriculture major.

Sako has no definite plans for the future. Perhaps he's too busy enjoying his well-earned freedom. He is seriously considering work as a linguist with the American Intelligence Agency. His experiences behind the infamous Iron Curtain may well help to destroy that barrier to freedom and peace.
