

Mother's Club Honors Nurses at Reception

A&M hospital staff members were named honorees at a tea given by the Brazos County A&M Mothers Club in the YMCA Friday. The tea was given in connection with the January meeting of the club.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Ide P. Trotter, Mr. L. E. Elwood, Mrs. J. D. Martin, Jr., and Mrs. Calvin Pigg.

The table was laid with a linen cloth and centered with a design of cydonia and japonica. Hot fruit punch, date nut squares, open-faced sandwiches and olives were served. Honorees were Mrs. Irene Caghorn, Miss Erlene Vaughn, Mrs. Pat Murphy, Mrs. A. J. Oakes, Mrs. Paul Parmalee, Mrs. Clifford Brunson, Mrs. Jerry Trevino, Mrs. Glover D. Pickering, Mrs. Clayton Smith, Mrs. Raymond O. Rutledge, Mrs. Robert Pringle and Mrs. Margaret Medberry.

At a business session prior to the tea, Mrs. L. L. Stuart, president, was in charge.

Members of the hospital committee, Mrs. Ide P. Trotter and Mrs. P. W. Burns read letters of thanks from Aggies and their mothers for special assistance and flowers sent to students during their hospitalization.

Mrs. Carl Birdwell, chairman of the Benefit Game Party scheduled for Feb. 8 in the MSC, gave a report of progress in plans for the party. She requested that members invite friends to the party, to be given for the Scholarship fund. Mrs. D. W. Williams reported that several state classes have contributed to a fund toward a movie, "Passing Review," to be made of the College. Purpose of the movie will be to make Texas A&M and college life better known to the public.

The group named Miss Jean Murphy as its representative duchess to the annual Cotton Ball scheduled for May 4 in the MSC.

Miss Murphy is the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Murphy of Bryan. She is a freshman at Southwestern University at Georgetown where she is majoring in physical education. She is a graduate of Stephen F. Austin High School. While a student there she was a member of the Future Homemakers Club, the Tennis Club, the annual staff and the Corral staff. She was also a member of the band during her four years of high school.

The next meeting of the Mother's Club is scheduled for the last Thursday in April. At that time, past presidents of the organization will be special guests.

Newlyweds Make Homes At College

Betty and Dick Hull are at home at 206 Sims, following their marriage Friday in the First Baptist Church, Van. Mrs. Hull is the former Miss Petty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Petty of Van. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Hull, also of Van.

Dick is a third year vet medicine student here. His bride is a graduate of Van High School and attended Baylor University.

Among the wedding attendants was Aggie Martin Pigott of Austin, who served as best man.

Leveen-Backer
A fourth year mechanical engineering major, Morris Backer was married on Sunday in Dallas to Miss Inez Leveen. The bride's mother is Mrs. Sarah Leveen of Dallas and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. K. Backer of Houston.

Mrs. Leveen wore a wedding gown of magnolia-white satin with round scalloped neckline edged in a bertha embroidered with seed pearls and crystal sequins. The skirt was full and extended into a formal-length train. Her veil was of silk illusion caught to a satin headpiece. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid, carnations and stephanotis.

Mr. and Mrs. Backer are at home here following their wedding trip.

The elements hold sway as leading news in this section of the country. Club meetings, teas, socials of all kinds have been cancelled in respect to Old Man Winter and his crew of snow, sleet and ice. But classes go on and occasionally from out second-floor window we view a few ice skaters and skiers.

Among the fair members who are visiting on campus this week are Harriet Hilliard and Jo Ann Whittle. Both girls are co-eds at SMU and are Aggieanders while their school lets out for a vacation between terms. The girls came down on the train Monday night, are staying at the MSC and are the guests of Don Rogers and LeVon Massengale. The fair ladies both have been finalists in class sweetheart balls here. The two couples plan to drive back to Dallas this weekend.

Among our popular newly weds are the Tex McDaniels who were married on Saturday in Houston. Tex is editor of The Engineer... still holding hands like other married students are Harry and Sue Ann Shannon, who were wed recently. Sue Ann is the former Miss Patterson of Dallas, and according to her friends, is quite the most bubbly personality about.

Visiting on campus from Abilene are Aggie-exes Darla and Curlee Harlin, who graduated last January. They drove down to visit with friends between terms, now find themselves weathered in...

Among those who have come to cooperate with us in our job of covering the news is Janice Hildebrand, a Consolidated high schooler... Proudly showing off pictures of his pretty girl friend, Eva Glendening Tuesday was Ralph Gorman.
