

Rev. Kusman to Conduct Discussions in Dorms

The Rev. S. J. Kusman

The Rev. Stanley J. Kusman, professor of Philosophy at Saint Mary's University of San Antonio, will conduct forums and discussions in dormitory during Religious Emphasis Week, Feb. 12-16, according to Gordon Gray, associate secretary of the YMCA.

Father Kusman will be one of 13 leaders to be brought on the campus by the YMCA and the College to conduct forums from 4 to 5:30 each afternoon and discussion groups each night at 9 in the dormitories. Dr. William M. Elliott, pastor of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church of Dallas, will conduct the usual morning services in Guion Hall.

At the nightly discussion groups, which he will assist in directing, the choice of subjects will be left to the discretion of each individual group.

Father Kusman will live in dorm 9 and will conduct the forums and discussions held in the lounge of that dorm. He will also be available to the students of dorm 11.

He received his student work in Europe, and also served as a chaplain for six years, four years overseas. He has taught school in St. Louis, Chicago and Canada, and has been conducting retreats since 1934.

No opposition was voiced after Fuller took the floor. He and Allan Eubank, executive vice-president of the TISA, explained that the vote should be taken now in time for the association's executive committee meeting Saturday, Feb. 10.

Curtis Edwards, Senate chaplain, quickly moved the previous question and received a second from Don "Red" Young, day-student senator. The unanimous vote followed.

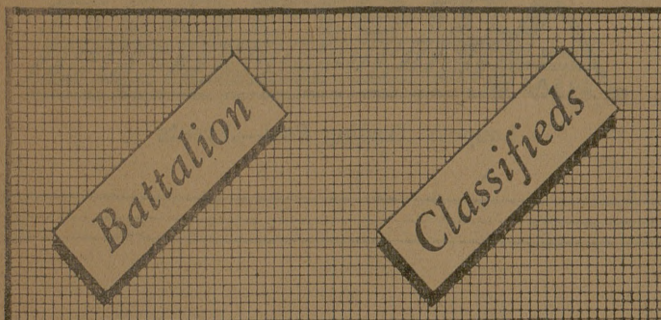

Fuller and other Senate officers and members appeared overjoyed at the outcome of the vote. Fuller apparently expressed the opinion of many senators when he said, "By God, I'm proud of this Senate!"

The Negro school admission question is expected to come before the TISA in the convention here. Last year, when the group met in Waco, a motion by the Texas Christian University delegation was tabled.

Spring Social Events Slated

Spring has in store a heavy social calendar for Aggies and their dates. The dances begin Friday night with the annual ASABAB. Featuring a "Heaven and Hell" theme, the dance will get underway at 8 p. m. in Sbis Hall. Playing for dancing will be the North Texas Combo.

Saturday night the freshmen will stage their annual ball. The Aggield Orchestra will play for dancing from 8 until 12 in the MSC. A queen, to be selected from a list of nominees which have been submitted, will reign over the dance.

The fourth annual Pipe Smoking Contest is scheduled for the MSC Assembly room on Feb. 28. Students and faculty members are eligible to enter in the various divisions of the contest.

March 3 has been designated as "Operation High School" day. On that day outstanding high school students from all over the state will be guests of the hometown clubs here. This annual affair is staged to acquaint high schoolers with A&M.

The School of Engineering has scheduled its annual ball for March 9. The Military Ball will be held on March 10.

The Saddle and the Straloin Club will stage its Cattlement's Ball on April 28.

The Cotton Pageant, with its King and Queen of Cotton, will be the big event of early May. It will be held on the fourth. The following evening an all-school dance is scheduled.

Seniors will say good-bye to their college social days in May and June. On May 19 the annual Senior Ring Dance will be held.

June 1 is Commencement Day. With degrees in hand, seniors with their ladies and student friends, will dance at the final ball. The following morning, June 2, the final review will be held.

Church to Lay Cornerstone In Early March

The A & M Methodist Church has postponed its cornerstone-laying ceremonies until early March.

Originally scheduled for yesterday, the event was changed to a later date because of the extremely bad weather which prevented many people from over the state to attend, said the Rev. James F. Jackson.

Principal speaker for the ceremony was to have been Bishop A. Frank Smith of Houston.

When completed, the three unit building will cost approximately half a million dollars. The education building has been completed at a cost of $35,000, and the sanctuary, nearly complete, will cost $165,000. The tower and fellowship hall will be last unit of construction to be finished. At present it is in the planning stage only, Rev. Jackson said.

How long will it stand?

This little builder is being very careful. But her block house is a rather shaky structure. One swipe of the puppy's paw and down it will tumble.

Even if the puppy keeps a respectful distance, the house is quite likely to fall before it is finished. But it will have served its purpose. It will have given this child entertainment and manual dexterity.

What matters a great deal more is another structure this child is building—the invisible edifice of character. Will its foundation be deep and solid? Will the structure be strong and beautiful? Will it stand the strain of years of living? Will it stand firm if the fierce winds of misfortune blow and the rains descend upon it?

Fortunate is this child if in these early, formative years she is surrounded with the influences that help build strong character. Chief among such character-building influences has always been the Church. Within its walls the child learns reverence, truthfulness, honesty, fair play, unselfishness

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Sunday . . . . . Psalms 118:19-24
Monday . . . . . Matthew 7:13-28
Tuesday . . . . . I Corinthians 3:10-16
Wednesday . . . . . Ephesians 2:19-22
Thursday . . . . . Jude 1:17-25
Friday . . . . . I Peter 2:1-7
