

Steinke Named Backfield Coach

Gilbert Steinke, defensive backfield coach at Texas A&M last season, has been promoted to backfield coach succeeding Dick Todd, who resigned to take a similar job with the pro Washington Redskins.

A&M's coaching staff is now complete except for a freshman coach. Head coach Harry Stiteler said a successor to Coach Perron Shoemaker, who has gone to the University of Georgia as end coach, may be on hand when the Aggies begin Spring training Feb. 12.

Steinke, a little All-American halfback at Texas A&I, played pro football with the Philadelphia Eagles. He was backfield coach at Trinity University one year before coaching the Oklahoma A&M freshmen in 1949. Steinke divided his time last year between the varsity and freshman teams and scouting for the Aggies.

Speaking of Todd's resignation, Stiteler said, "We surely hate to see Dick drop out of collegiate football, but we've known for some time he has considered quitting coaching entirely so he can devote all his time to ranching and farming. With his job with the Redskins, he will now be free in the Spring for his ranch work."

Louis to Fight Tonight; Champ Not Disturbed

Miami, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Joe Louis meets Omelio Agrmonite of Cuba tonight at Miami stadium in a ten-round fight that Louis hopes will be the next-to-last before the return battle with Ezzard Charles for the heavyweight title.

Trainer Marnie Seamon was enthusiastic about Joe's condition. The Brown Bomber weighed 207 pounds when he finished his heavy training yesterday.

"Joe's in great shape," Seamon said. "He's punching just as good with his right hand as he is with his left. And what I like best of all, he's vicious."

"When Joe Louis gets ready, I will be ready," said world's heavyweight boxing champion Ezzard Charles here last night during an interview.

Ags 'Frozen' Out of Cage Lead; TCU Gets Bitter Revenge, 30-27

By FRED B. WALKER
Associate Sports Editor

Coach Buster Brannon's Horned Frogs experienced sweet revenge last night as they froze an eager Cadet five into submission and out of the SWC cage lead, 30 to 27, before 4500 howling fans in Will Rogers Coliseum.

Somewhere between boos and misguided cries of "We'll beat you at your own game," TCU grabbed a late three-point lead and managed to hold it until the end of the game, but the excitement and rivalry of that second half all but turned the Coliseum into a mad house.

The first period was a "still" compared to the last 20 minutes. A&M snagged the initial tip-off and tallied four points—two liberties by Raymond Walker and a field goal by John DeWitt—while the Frogs were missing eight tries. But field goals by forward Ted Reynolds tied things up in short order.

Free throws and field goals were traded by both quintets and the game slowed down beyond the appreciation of the Frogs' rooters. But only for the moment as TCU pushed the speed of play and left the court at half-time with a five-point lead after Fromme and center George McLeod tallied three points apiece on field goals and free tosses. Jewell McDowell and Buddy Davis were the only Aggies able to score in the closing minutes as they dropped in a free throw each.

Within a minute and twenty-one seconds after the start of the second period, the Aggies had overcome their five-point deficit and gone into the lead by a lone tally. McLeod fouled Davis as the latter went up for a crisp shot, and the 6'8" pivot man quickly added two. The determined Frogs brought the ball down only to lose it to an alert McDowell. The ball was pushed into Davis and A&M trailed by only one.

Pace Tightens

History repeated itself seconds later as DeWitt sneaked the ball from under Fromme's nose, out-raced all TCU defenders and put A&M ahead for the first time since 14 minutes of the first half. The score: 18-19.

Four tallies by Davis and one by Bobby Farmer gave A&M their largest lead of the night a few minutes later, but John Swain made a foul count and James Knox countered with a field goal and a good toss from the foul line to cut the lead to 24-22. TCU forward Bryan Kilpatrick tied the score a few seconds later.

The fans had now all but reached a crescendo of frenzy as the Frogs forced A&M to play the TCU way. It was race, race, race for three full minutes with the home team guarding the Aggies the length of the court. During the mad melee Farmer scored for A&M but Kilpatrick quickly sank two to make it 26-26. This was the last of the Frogs as seen by the Maroon and White.

With only a little more than six minutes remaining a unique scene took place on the court. After Mc-
