

Mulhollen-Williams Glove Final Bound

By JOE BLANCHETTE

Quinton Mulhollen and Harold Williams, two-hard hitting, fast-moving Aggies will compete in the Texas Golden Glove finals in Fort Worth after winning their respective division bouts at the Allen Academy Gym Friday and Saturday nights.

Harold Williams will represent the cream of the Bryan area light heavy-weights as he decisively defeated Roy Akridge of Allen Academy Friday night.

The lithe Aggie pounded Akridge unmercifully with looping hooks and as far as the Allen Academy fighter was concerned he was leading only with his chin.

Mulhollen will fight in the Fort Worth tourney as a featherweight after winning in the Bryan tournament by default.

CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES

Any student who normally expects to complete all the requirements for a degree by the end of the current semester should call by the Registrar's Office NOW and make formal application for a degree.

MARCH 1st is the deadline for filing an application for a degree to be conferred at the end of the current semester. This deadline applies to both graduate and undergraduate students. Those students who have not already done so should make formal application in the Registrar's Office immediately.

A senior may be allowed one special examination in a subject which he failed during the preceding semester and which he is not currently repeating, provided that on his mid-semester report he is passing all work of his current schedule to the end of the semester, will meet fully, both in hours and grade points, all the requirements for graduation except for a passing grade in the subject in which the examination is requested. Requests for such special examinations should be made to the Registrar soon after mid-semester.

Shall We Dance?

Jewell McDowell is definitely not encouraging a game of patty-cake with Baylor guards Bill Harris (5) and Bill Fleetwood (7). When McDowell took the bounce, Harris was so surprised he forgot the ball; John DeWitt—like so many times during the 48-36 Bear route—came up with the valuable sphere.

Fish Suffer Double Loss; Varsity Plays Hogs Tonight

While Lon Morris Junior College was sowing the seeds of victory over the Aggie Fish, the A&M varsity quintet was riding the rails northward to meet the Arkansas Razorbacks in Fayetteville tonight.

In the preliminary to the A&M vs. Baylor tilt Friday night in DeWare Field House, the Fish fought doggedly against the Cubs in an effort to break the losing streak which has been hanging over them since the Cubs defeated them earlier in the season.

Played Catch-Up

The fish tailed all the way up until half way through the second half when big Roy Martin, 6' 7" fish center, tipped in James Addison's free throw to shove the fish one point ahead. This rapidly grew into a five point lead as hopes of victory soared.

In the closing seconds of the second overtime, the Cubs staged two fast breaks and a free throw which shot them into the lead by five points and spelled defeat to the fish to the tune of 45-40.

The following night the fish invaded the domain of the Lon Morris JC Bearcats at Jacksonville, Texas, where paced by Juan Roig, Aurelio Ramirez, and "Bo" Cusley, the Bearcats shot into an early lead and left the fish eating their dust throughout the entirety of the game.

The fish never regained their equilibrium as the Bearcats ripped through their weak defense to roll up a total of 69 points against the freshmen's 47.

John Floyd, Texas A&M basketball mentor, usually gets a better workout than do his charges. He believes in "showing" rather than "telling" his charges how to play a position.

Razorback coach Presley Askew's cagers will be seeking consolation for the 34-33 defeat handed them by the Aggies two weeks ago in a sizzling game in DeWare Field House. Those who saw that game will remember for some time the narrow thread by which Aggie conference hopes held as the Razorbacks led up to the final three seconds of the game.

It was big Walter Davis, towering Aggie center, who leaped into the air and tipped in Jewell McDowell's long shot to pull the Farmers out of the hole and into the one point lead which deemed A&M the victor.

Arkansas holds a position very near the bottom in conference standings, but this in no way affects the threat they present to A&M's championship chances with the Aggies in their present position of six wins and two losses.

Ags Skin Br'er Bruin; Fur Market Collapses

Playing a faster-than-usual game and shooting with deadly accuracy, the Aggies ripped through the visiting Baylor Bears last Friday night by a fat 12-point margin, 48-36.

The over-flowing throng was surprised to see the Aggies take long shots from all angles; they were delighted when the home-townners connected .416 of the time.

As long as forward Ralph Johnson, who scored 22 of Baylor's 36 points, was connecting with re-

Ags Break Two Records While Sinking NLSC

The A&M swimming team sank Northwestern Louisiana by a score of 42-33 last Friday night as two pool records were smashed.

Don Blundell of the Aggies set a pool record of 2:33.6 in the 200-meter backstroke and Dan Lockey of NLSC collapsed a pool and college record by breezing in with a 2:39.8 in the 200-yl. breast-stroke.

The Aggies would have won by a higher score if Tommy Butler and Ralph Ellis had not been disqualified for failing to touch the pool ends when turning since inter-collegiate swimming rules state that at least one hand and one foot must touch the bank in a turn.

Sixteen points were collected by the Aggies in the 220-free-style and 200-yard backstroke alone with Van Adamson turning in a 2:22 in the freestyle event while the above-mentioned 2:33.6 was made by Blundell in the 200-meter backstroke.

SMU will be the next opponent of the Aggie mermen when they journey to Dallas on the 17th of February.

So far this season, the Aggie record is two wins and a 2nd place in the SWC Relays at Houston January 13th.

markable consistency the contest was in doubt, but throughout the second half the Aggies allowed him but six markers and then rolled through the last ten minutes untroubled.

First blood was drawn by Baylor when guard Howard Hovde stashed one of two free throws, but Buddy Davis retaliated with one of his own to start a torrid pace in which the lead changed hands frequently.

Fast Finish

With 7:36 still on the clock A&M had leaped ahead by four points, 22-18, but as soon as Bear forward Derrell Davis closed the gap with a tallied three, Jewell McDowell and John DeWitt squelched the effort with a combined five.

Johnson, guard John Starkey, Marvin Martin and Davis all got into the act then and ran the score up to 30-28—in favor of A&M—DeWitt and McDowell hurried in two field goals and the half ended with the Aggies out in front, 34-28.

The fans almost went crazy the second period for the Bruins never tasted a point for nine minutes and 43 seconds; then Johnson made a liberty. The outcome was inevitable as A&M dropped in two points for everyone of Baylor's.

McDowell Shines

It was a great night for McDowell in particular, who scored 14 points to be A&M's point leader. In the last three games McDowell had been unable to find his range and had shown little of his old form, but he erased all doubts of his ability when, in the second period, he put on a beautiful show of dribbling and shooting that was almost perfect. He rolled up nine points in that second frame and romped through the Bears at will.

It was not a one-man game by any means for all the Aggies shone brilliantly. DeWitt played alertly throughout and purloined the ball again and again. Davis and Martin, who both fouled out late in the second half, received a well deserved hand from the fans for their stalwart aggressiveness, while little Woody Walker, whose four points were more than half of his previous scoring total, showed that a small man can play offensive and defensive basketball as well as any six-footer.

This was the sixth conference win for A&M and the seventh loss for Baylor. Texas, who defeated Rice, 77-51 the same night, still leads the SWC with a 6-1 record, while A&M is second with 6 wins and two losses, TCU is third with 5-2 record.
