

He Wasn't Too Sick

Walter "Buddy" Davis, still wracked by flu, practically got up from his sick bed to score 19 points against SMU last night. His 15 points scored in the second half paved the Aggies way to a 49-43 A&M victory.

Bribed Long Island Abandons Sports

New York, Feb. 21—College sport's greatest scandal led Long Island University—with four star basketball players accused of taking $18,500 to fix seven big-time games—to abandon inter-college athletics last night.

It was the aftermath of a district attorney's crackdown on players of three major New York cage teams alleged to have taken gamblers' money to insure desired results in a number of games. Three top players of the City College of New York—last year's national kingpin in the college basketball world—and one from New York University had been taken into custody earlier.

Authorities said the eight basketball players admitted obtaining a total of $25,000.

Long Island University President T. W. Metcalfe sent a telegram to Ned Irish, Madison Square Garden basketball promoter, informing him LIU is cancelling its remaining games of the season there, Feb. 22 and March 1. Two other non-Garden tilts also are being cancelled.

The university's trustees decided to return all LIU sports "to the status of intra-mural competition." The trustees said it concluded that "an undue emphasis has been placed upon basketball and perhaps on other intercollegiate sports."

Davis Leads Way in Ags' Final Home Game

for the Aggies. McDowell then racked up four tallies with only Murphy's goal breaking the magic.

There were only seven minutes and 54 seconds remaining in the first half when Davis copped a charity—last lead point the Aggies garnered in that frame.

Holm, Murphy and guard Charlie Lutz mixed free throws and field goals to set the Ponies out in front 22-16 in three fast minutes.

Before too many fans could collect their wits, SMU upped their lead to 10 points as Lutz and Murphy worked together for seven counters, while only DeWitt could score for A&M—a free throw.

Always good for the last second spurt, the Ags cut three points off the 10-point margin with only 41 seconds left. Davis tapped a free throw and with four seconds to go, the 6' 8" pivot man meshed a one-hander.

The score at half-time was 29-22, SMU. Murphy was the split-frame leader with 10 points while McDowell had six for A&M.

Second Half Different Story

From an Aggie stand-point, the second half was incomparable. For Frank Davis, Buddy's father, it was a combination of life's greatest contributions.

Buddy had registered a temperature of 104 degrees on Friday, and through the last 20 minutes he acted as if something was burning him to a cinder. He wasn't satisfied with a mere 10 or 12 points, it had to be 15 or nothing—and that's just how many he grabbed in the last 16 minutes.

Ags Nip—Ponies Tuck

It was nip and tuck but with more nip on the Aggies' side, as the fans saw DeWitt, Davis, McDowell, Davis, Davis, McDowell, Davis, Davis, McDowell and McDowell furiously pouring the roundball through the net.

When the smoke had cleared, Davis had scored 19 points; McDowell, seven; DeWitt, two; and the score was tied 41-41 with the clock showing 9:22 left in the game.

A&M Payoff

The payoff came almost four minutes later when the battling Davis tipped one in. The Aggies were now leading (time left: 7:15) for the first time since six minutes deep in the first half.

After another field goal, Davis committed his fifth foul and left the game accompanied by a tremendous ovation.

That was the game. From there on the Aggies put on one of the most beautiful displays of ball handling that DeWare Field House

Riggs, Gussie In Tennis Show Today

Tennis fans of this area will have an opportunity to see Bobby Riggs' Professional Tennis Troupe tonight at Rice Field House in Houston.

Interested persons were able to obtain transportation and tickets at the Office of Student Activities. Riggs' troupe this year includes Jack Cramer, Pancho Segura, Gussie Moran, and Pauline Betz.

fans have ever witnessed.

With McDowell leading the way, the Ags showed the speedy Mustangs something new in the way of speed. Although known for their fast break, the Ponies were completely stymied.

Martin scored the last field goal for A&M with two minutes remaining, and Young collected SMU's last points a few seconds later on a double foul. McDowell made good on his half of the double and added another with but 14 seconds in the game.

As the final gun sounded, Mitchell unsuccessfully tried a crisp shot, but compensated for the attempt by severely chastizing the referee for some wrong turn.

There was a great deal of talking in the dressing rooms after the game, but not too much came from Floyd. There was not many words but the thought was ample. "The boys deserve all of the credit. They played a whale of a game," he stated.

Doc Hayes sounded off in a broader sense:

"I said the other day that if A&M beats us tonight, they would win the conference. They're in now! The Aggies are one of the best teams that I have seen this year."

In summary it will be said that the game last night was rough, tough and fast. In fact, it was the fastest game held at College Station this year.

It takes a unit to produce the right effects, but Davis was truly the "lift" of the game.

Yates, Buchner Score Quick Pins in 'Murals

By PAT LeBLANC

Ten of the 13 wrestling matches reeled off Tuesday in the Intramural Wrestling Tourney were determined by the "pin-your-adversary-to-the-mat" method.

Employing their wrestling skill with extreme agility and rapidity, John Yates of L AF, and Don Buchner of B AF, won their bouts in the first one-half minute of combat.

Yates came charging out of his corner and pinned the bewildered Anderson of White Band in 29 seconds.

Buchner evidently had no affinity for long matches, downing Buddy Barnes of F AF in 30 seconds, in a 157 lb. contest.

147 Pound Division

In 1:38 minutes, Jones of C FA had D FA Bull's shoulders against the matting; Wayne Bradford of A CAC did the same with A Eng Roberts' in 2:13 of their battle.

Dick Ramming of C AF had to go into overtime to beat the Maureen Band's Hall. Ramming, in his advantage period, pinned Hall in 53 seconds, while the loser met no success in trying to down the rock-like Ramming within 53 seconds in his advantage period.

Stucky White of A Ord outlasted and then pinned A TC Berry in 3:18 of their contest. Bob Chapman of A Sig was subdued by another stocky performer. This wrestler was Leon Shepley of B QMC.

Jackson Wins Decision

Joe Jackson of D Vet won a decision over K AF Cogburn by a margin of 4-1. Another matman winning by decision was Benton of F AF, who outlasted Waggoner of A TC, 4-2.

In a freshman bout, 1:29 was all the time Williamson of Co. 7 needed to get Co. 8's Henson held securely on the canvas.

157 Pound Class

Charlie Braggas of L AF pinned his opponent, Moore of C Inf, in little less than three minutes. Jimmy Ledlow came up from the canvas on a quick reversal against Zieber of K AF. The field artillery man won the bout in 2:34 minutes.

McReynolds Wins Keglers Contest Again

Runnerup a week ago and then winner last Saturday—that's what happened to Warren McReynolds in the Saturday bowling contest held at the Memorial Student Center bowling lanes.

A sophomore business student from Houston, McReynolds toppled the pins for a 235 game, slightly better than his runnerup score of 219 for the contest of the week before.

In second place in the MSC's weekly contest was Ronnie Grost, senior geology student from Dallas, who rolled 218 line for his prize.
