

D. B. Coffey
College Archivist
Student Memorial Center
F. E.
3 Copies

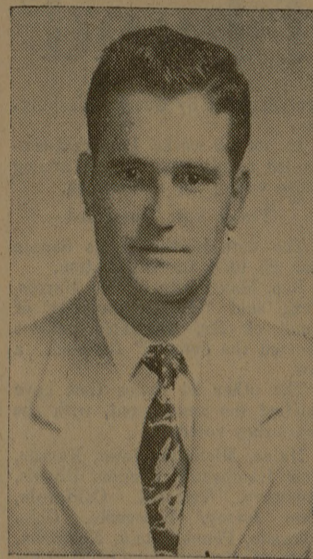

Who's Who at Texas A&M

David G. Haines

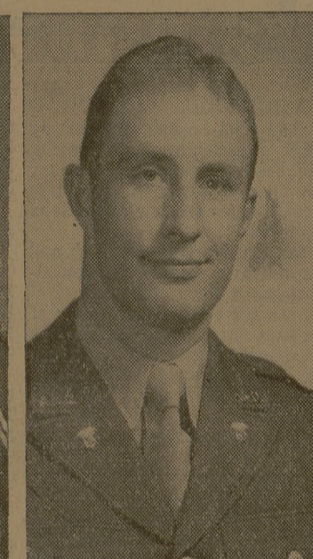

Julian C. Herring

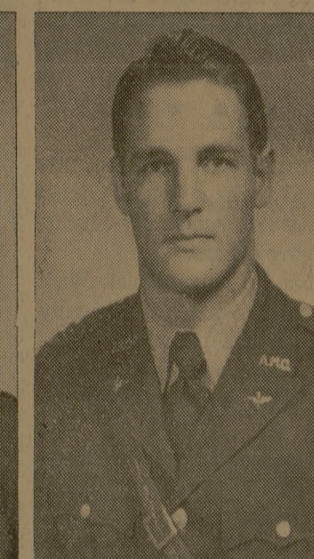

Pat Hubert

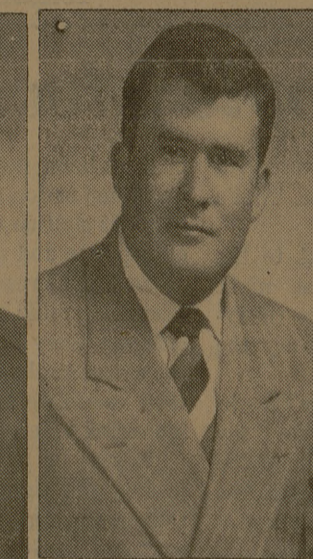

H. G. "Skip" Mills

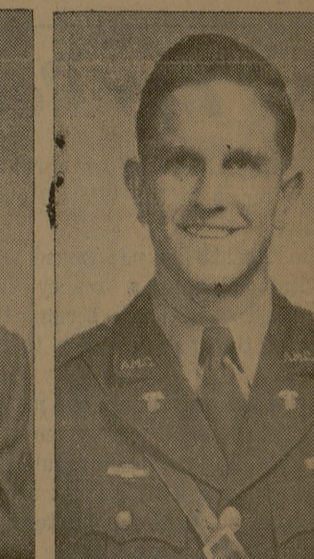

Lloyd Manjeot

Carl Molberg

I. E. "Monty" Montgomery

W. R. "Bill" Moss

The Battalion

Circulated to
More Than 90% of College Station's Residents

Twenty-Second Amendment
Added to Constitution
See Page 2

PUBLISHED IN THE INTEREST OF A GREATER A&M COLLEGE

Number 101: Volume 51

COLLEGE STATION (Aggieland), TEXAS, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1951

Price Five Cents

Military Ball Bids Go On Sale; Guest List Growing Daily

Tickets for the Military Ball went on sale at noon today as orchestra negotiations for the March 10 affair still continued. Tickets are now available from first sergeants in each outfit for $2.50 per couple.

Tickets sales will be limited. That was the warning from W. D. "Pusher" Barnes, ticket committee chairman, who made the announcement this morning.

Ticket sales in the Freshman Regiment will be handled by Bob Langford, first sergeant, Co. 11. The duets will also be available in the Student Activities, second floor, Goodwin Hall.

Other plans for the week-end with the military accent are also rounding quickly into shape. A rapidly growing guest list is already studied with impressive names.

Big events for the Saturday affair less than two weeks away will be the afternoon corps review at 3:30 p. m. and the Military Ball itself at 9 that night in Sbis Hall.

Military Attaches

Adding the prestige of foreign dignitaries to the events will be the Danish and Swedish military attaches from Washington, D. C. Invitations have also been extended to three other military or air attaches.

Leading the list of top-brass from our own military services are Maj. Gen. K. L. Berry, Adjutant General of Texas; Maj. Gen. Albert S. Johnson, commander, 49th Armored Division; Maj. Gen. H. Miller Ainsworth, commander, 36th Infantry Division; Maj. Gen. William B. Palmer, commander, 2nd Armored Division; and Maj. Gen. C. E. Thomas, Jr., commander, 14th Air Force. Most of the guests will be accompanied by their wives.

More names are being added to the list as confirmations arrive. Included among special guests for the week-end will be foreign cadets training at Connally, Randolph and Ellington Air Force Bases. Some patients from McCloskey General Hospital in Temple have also been invited.

Other Cadets

ROTC cadets from Tarleton State College and from Arlington State College will also be here as will Junior ROTC cadets from high schools in the bigger schools of the state.

Air cadets and ROTC cadets will be housed in dormitories so that they may become better acquainted with A&M life during their stay.

Invitations have been sent to Olin E. "Tiger" Teague, '52, representative from this district, and Capt. Audie Murphy, World War II hero, former movie star and presently serving with the 36th Division. They have yet no reply to the invitations.

Attend Classes

On Saturday morning preceding the review and the ball the visiting military attaches will be guests in Modern Languages classes.

Cadets have been requested to make reservations early if they are expecting to have a girl as a guest on the campus that week-end. P. G. Hall and a portion of Walton Hall will be open for female guests and rooms will cost $1.25 per night. Full details on all plans for the week-end should be completed within the next few days.

Who's Who Selectees Must Set Pic Date

Who's Who selections are requested to contact Howard Berry of the Photographic and Visual Aids Laboratory in the Administration Building this week and set a date on which pictures for the Who's Who section of the Aggieband can be made.

Fuller Elected Student Head Of Union Group

Joe Fuller, president of the Memorial Student Center Council and Directorate, was elected student head of two regions of the Association of College Unions at the week-end meeting of Regions 13 and 14 on the campus.

Sixty student and staff delegates attended the two-day convention held Friday and Saturday. Schools represented included the University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma A&M, Central University (Okla.), LSU, University of Arkansas, Texas Tech, TU, ETSC, Sam Houston State Teachers College, University of Houston, SMU and Texas Lutheran College.

Fuller, who was student chairman of the convention, will be charged with preparing a program for next year's convention and with coordinating group activities between meetings. His successor as President of the MSC will take over this new job along with other duties.

J. Wayne Stark, director of the MSC, and Frank Malone, director of the SMU Union, were staff directors for the convention. The men are advisors for their respective districts which encompass a five-state area including Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas.

Pipe Smoking Contest

Nicotine Slaves Get Reward At Batt Contest Tomorrow

By ROGER COSLETT

Entry deadline in the Annual Battalion Pipe Smoking Contest, which is to be held Wednesday at 7 p. m. in the MSC Assembly room, has been extended to contest time.

A representative display of the $250 worth of prizes going to the winners of the various divisions of the contest has been set up in the lobby of the Memorial Student Center.

Persons entering pipe collections in the contest will be required to have their collections in the Assembly room by 4 p. m. Wednesday. This is to give them time to arrange their displays and not interfere with general preparations.

The MSC, co-sponsor of the contest with The Battalion, is providing corn cob pipes for contestants in the corn cob smoking section and cigarette rolling tobacco.

Contestants will be allowed to enter as many divisions or sections of a contest as he wishes unless otherwise prohibited by a rule of that contest.

The contests and a tentative list of prizes that will be offered are as follows:

Division I—Pipe Collections
First prize—Seven matched Certified Purex Pipes donated by The L&H Stern Company; Second prize—a set of matched Marxman pipes in a leather case; Third Prize—a hickory pipe, corn cob pipe and one-half pound humidifier of Briggs tobacco.

Division II—Pipe Smoking
Large Bowl: First prize—a Certified Purex "Giant" pipe, one pound of Sugar Barrel tobacco and one-half pound of Walnut tobacco; Second prize—a Roger's Air-tite tobacco pouch, a hickory pipe and one pound of Christian Pepper tobacco; Third prize—a John Middleton Variety Kit and one-half pound of Sugar Barrel tobacco.

Medium Bowl: first prize—a

Miss Ann Ashcroft, escorted by Joe Williamson of the Freshman Band was named Queen of the Freshman Class at the Ball Saturday night in Sbis Hall. She and her date hail from Sulphur Springs where she is a Sophomore in the Sulphur Springs High School. Her other attributes, besides being beautiful include, a nice singing voice.

GI's Inch Slowly Ahead On Windy Central Area

Tokyo, Feb. 27.—(AP)—American troops smashed five savage counterattacks today on the windswept central Korean warfront. The allied battleline moved ahead steadily but cautiously.

The Red attacks were hurled back by the U. S. Second Division in pre-dawn darkness 15 miles southeast of Hoengsong. The fighting lasted more than three hours. A howling wind added to the din of battle.

Field dispatches reported it was one of the sharpest actions in the week-old renewal of the United Nations drive to kill, maim or capture Chinese and Korean Reds south of Parallel 38.

The drive—spearheaded by the U. S. First Marine Division—apparently has thwarted or delayed a Chinese counter-offensive by four to six armies.

A U. S. Army spokesman said 100,000 Chinese had been shifted into defense positions. He added that it would require several weeks for the Reds to regroup for any drive against the allies.

A. P. correspondent Nate Polowetzky reported "all evidence along the central front continued to point to a planned withdrawal" behind stubborn rearward actions.

At that time the Marines wrote another vivid chapter in the Corps' history with a fighting withdrawal from the Changjin Reservoir to the northeast coast port of Hungnam. They inflicted tremendous losses on the Chinese before boarding ships of an allied evacuation fleet.

There was no news about the Marines after they landed in southern Korea, but it was disclosed they have been mopping up bypassed Reds since early in January.

Mary E. Vaden, College Station, is cast as Antigone, a maiden whose two brothers have killed each other in a feud and now finds herself at the mercy of the king, Creon, played by Bill Guthrie.

Supporting roles include Haemon, son of Creon, played by Jack Cokrum; Ismene, Antigone's sister, played by Barbara Hodges; Chorus, who acts as the narrator, Harry Gooding; and the Nurse by Florence Farr.

Alice Burk, who played the feminine lead in "Kind Lady" presented last fall, will direct "Antigone."

The Aggie Players, sponsored jointly by the English Department and the Office of Student Activities, will be aided in this production by the American Association of University Women, who will help with tickets sales and publicity, Esten said.

Tickets for "Antigone" will go on sale in about two weeks for 50 cents. The play is scheduled for April 2 and 3.

The disclosure that the First Marine Division is pacing the drive in the mid-section of the central front was the first report of the hardened leathernecks in action since December.

At that time the Marines wrote another vivid chapter in the Corps' history with a fighting withdrawal from the Changjin Reservoir to the northeast coast port of Hungnam. They inflicted tremendous losses on the Chinese before boarding ships of an allied evacuation fleet.

There was no news about the Marines after they landed in southern Korea, but it was disclosed they have been mopping up bypassed Reds since early in January.

Mary E. Vaden, College Station, is cast as Antigone, a maiden whose two brothers have killed each other in a feud and now finds herself at the mercy of the king, Creon, played by Bill Guthrie.

Supporting roles include Haemon, son of Creon, played by Jack Cokrum; Ismene, Antigone's sister, played by Barbara Hodges; Chorus, who acts as the narrator, Harry Gooding; and the Nurse by Florence Farr.

Alice Burk, who played the feminine lead in "Kind Lady" presented last fall, will direct "Antigone."

The Aggie Players, sponsored jointly by the English Department and the Office of Student Activities, will be aided in this production by the American Association of University Women, who will help with tickets sales and publicity, Esten said.

Tickets for "Antigone" will go on sale in about two weeks for 50 cents. The play is scheduled for April 2 and 3.

In Tuesday's action, the leathernecks seized commanding hills south and southeast of rubbled Hoengsong. The town has become a no-man's land with Communists dug in on hills to the north, on the approaches to the Red stronghold of Hongchon. Hongchon is 16 miles northwest of Hoengsong.

The Marines are one of seven U. S. divisions in the allied line stretching irregularly from the Yellow Sea west coast to the east-central front town of Pangnim, an airline distance of 100 miles. Pangnim is 40 air miles inland from the east coast.

A. P. correspondent Leif Erickson, at Eighth Army Headquarters, said all seven American divisions are being used on a single front under a single field commander for the first time in the Korean war.

On the east of the line are the U. S. Seventh and Second Divisions. The Seventh Division captured the small village of Malta, three miles west of Pangnim, while the Second was smashing the Red counter-thrusts on the left flank Tuesday.

Marines on Left Flank

The Marines are on the left flank of the Second Division. West of the Marines are the 24th Infantry and First Cavalry, between Hoengsong and Yangpung 27 miles east of Seoul; and the 25th and Third Infantry, in the western sector between Seoul and Yangpyong.

Arrayed with these American outfits are four Republic of Korea (ROK) Divisions, and elements of British, Canadians, Greeks, Turks, Australians, French and Dutch.

The west-central and western sectors were relatively quiet early Tuesday.

Singing Cadets Give Concert For Tyler Club

The Singing Cadets made their first trip to Tyler this semester last Friday to Tyler where they sang in the Tyler Civic Auditorium. Forty members made the trip by bus.

The concert was sponsored by the A&M Mother's club of Tyler and the cadets performed for an audience of approximately 900 people.

After the concert the members of the Singing Cadets attended a dance which was a part of the entertainment provided by the Tyler mothers.

For their program the Cadets sang "Gloria in Excelsis" by Mozart; Bach's "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee"; "Adoramus Te Christe" by Palestrina; and the traditional hymn "This is my Father's World."

In the second group were "Where in the World But in America" by Waring; "To Thee, O Lord, Do I Lift Up My Soul" by Rachmaninoff; "Onward Christian Soldiers" and the folk song "The Foggy Dew."

The third group consisted of "You'll Never Walk Alone" by Rogers-Hammerstein; "I Only Have Eyes For You" by Warren; "I Dream of You" by Goetschius and the Spiritual "Set Down Servant."

The fourth group included; "Joshua Fit the Battle of Jericho"; "I'd Rather Be a Texas Aggie"; "Vandering"; "There's Nothing Like a Dame"; "Swelfth Man," the Ringwald arrangement of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," the spiritual "Dry Bones" and "The Spirit of Aggie Land."

Soloists were: Howard Hughes of Abilene, Bill Lawshae of Houston, A. J. Harrook of Waco, Don Forney of San Antonio, Tommy Savage of Port Arthur and David Haines of College Station.

Journalists to Hear Houston Scribe

Clyde La Motte, former sports editor of the Houston Post and presently staff writer for the Houston Press, will discuss sports and sports writing in a talk tonight at 7 in Room 2C of the MSC.

La Motte, appearing under the sponsorship of the Journalism Club, will also discuss other phases of writing and newspaper work.

The Houston Journalist has had experience in practically every phase of newspaper writing. He has been at one time or another a police reporter, rewrite man, special assignment man, night city editor, feature writer, and sports editor.

La Motte became sports editor of the Houston Post in 1949 and remained in that position until January of this year. Since that time he has been with the news department of the Houston Press.

Aside from sports, La Motte's biggest stories probably came from covering the Texas City disaster and a Gulf hurricane that ripped at the heart of Houston.

Senate Executive Group Meets at 5

The Student Senate Executive Committee will meet this afternoon at 5 in the MSC front lobby, Bill Moss, vice-president, said this morning.

He asked that Senators be present who wish to place an item on the agenda for the Senate's Thursday meeting.