

Senior Class Plays Set for Thursday

Two one-act plays, "Ghost Farm" and "Prom Date" will be presented tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of Consolidated High School. The occasion is the annual play presentation of the Senior Class.

Setting of the mystery is the living room of Ghost Farm located in a river valley somewhere near the Ozarks. The time is 9 p. m. on a stormy March night.

Ozias Grubb, an elderly farmer, is portrayed by Roland Jones. Marie Cobb acts the part of Elsie Grubb, the "half-draft" wife, and the Irish hired girl Nance O'Malley is played by Ann South-

The part of Leslie McAndrews, a young lawyer, is portrayed by Codie Wells. The owner of Ghost Farm, Belle Winthrop, will be played by Helene Boatner. Reba McDermott acts the part of Violet Ashe, Miss Winthrop's secretary. The part of Beaumont Winthrop, Miss Winthrop's nephew, is played by Royce Rodgers, and her maid, Lovetta Wattles who is afraid of ghosts, is enacted by Dorothy Spriggs.

Principal L. E. Boze is the director of "Ghost Farm."

Nelson Will Speak On Color Styling

The Architectural Wives Society will hear Howard Nelson in a demonstration lecture tonight at 7:30 in the South Solarium of the YMCA. Nelson will speak on "Color Styling in the Modern Home."

CS, Bryan Win Milk Award For Purity, Hygien

Dr. David E. Brown, director of the Brazos County Health Unit, reported that for the second year in succession, College Station and Bryan have been named to the United States Public Health Services' milk honor roll.

"The Service has not released the actual score of the two cities," Brown said, "but I'm confident the rating will closely parallel the rating achieved last year." In 1949, the two cities compiled a score of 99. A score of 90 is the minimum required to obtain an honor rating.

Across the nation 160 cities were able to comply with the rules set up by the Health Service. Of this number, 28 were Texas towns. Other cities attaining the honor roll rating were Houston, Fort Worth, San Antonio, Bay City, Brenham, Brownsville, Corsicana, Edinburg, Galveston, Gladewater, Harlingen, Jacksonville, Kilgore, Laredo, Longview, Lubbock, Mission, Palestine, Paris, Pharr, San Juan, Sweetwater, Texarkana, Texas City, Tyler, and Weslaco.

Taken into consideration in the judging of the milk, the Service notes the bacterial count of the milk pasteurized, the local water supply, plant construction, and methods for cleaning milk-handling equipment, Dr. Brown said.

These surveys are carried out by the State Public Health Department with aid coming from the county units. After the county reports are turned in to the state office, they are then forwarded to the Public Health Service which compiles the honor roll.

New Board Members

Two new members of the A&M System Board of Directors attended their first meeting here Saturday. Being welcomed by Board President G. R. White, right, they are Bob Allen of Raymondville, left, and H. L. Winfield of Fort Stockton.

Talent Group To Audition New Talents

"We need talent: impersonators, singers, instrumentalists, dancers, and piano players, both boogie and classical," said Miss Betty Bolander, assistant social director of the MSC.

The Red Cross has asked that A&M entertainers give a show for veterans at the hospital in Temple. This is one of the many activities planned by the new Talent Bureau which is sponsored by the MSC dance, publicity, and music committees.

Miss Bolander stated that we have some very fine performers, but not enough. Impersonators, tap dancers, and piano players. The Talent Bureau provides student entertainers for the numerous meetings and conventions held at the Student Center and for other shows such as the proposed trip to Temple.

The Bureau offers students a chance to serve the school and to gain experience and contacts.

Students who are interested in auditioning should see Miss Bolander in the front office of the MSC. Regular auditions are held from 5 until 6 p. m. on Wednesdays. If desired, special arrangements can be made for other hours and an accompanist will be provided. Auditions will be held throughout the month of March.

Roberts Heads CC Membership In Local Area

A total of 25 solicitors will be selected to conduct the individual phase of the Chamber of Commerce membership drive announced J. E. "Jocko" Roberts, head of individual memberships.

The workers will be selected on past performances and their ability and willingness to cooperate, he said, conducting a building-to-building canvass.

"We are going to make a concerted effort to finish the drive, which begins Thursday, by the first ten days of March," Roberts said. He added that if there was anyone who had not been able to obtain his or her membership, or who had not been contacted by one of the workers by the tenth of March to get touch with him.

Other members of the drive who can take care of persons wanting memberships are Joe Sorrells and Ray Oden.

Insurance Group Ends MSC Meet

The American General Life Insurance Company of Texas closed its annual meeting in the Memorial Student Center Tuesday evening with a banquet. Al Pretka of Houston was awarded a cup as outstanding agent for the year.

The meeting, at which over a hundred agents were present, was hosted by Sid Lovelless of College Station and members of his Central Texas agency.

The insurance company annually stages a "March of Progress" contest which it holds in March. This contest was named by Hershel Burgess of College Station.

This year's meeting, held on the A&M campus, was the company's first in Brazos County.

Brazos County Has Influx of Chickenpox

A seasonal change has caused the number of cases of chickenpox to rise, Dr. David E. Brown, director of the Brazos County Health Unit, said today.

In the week ending Feb. 24, there were 84 cases of chickenpox in Brazos County, with 57 in Bryan and 27 in College Station.

This was an increase of 30 cases over the week ending Feb. 17, during which there were 54 cases reported.

Dr. Brown said, however, that this rise is now at its peak, and that the number will drop during the next week.

As he explained, this rise in the number of cases occurs each time a generation which has not previously had contact with the disease is exposed to the carriers of chickenpox.

There is nothing to be alarmed over since this rise is just what we have expected, Dr. Brown added.

Influenza Increases An increase in the number of influenza cases has also been reported. The week ending Feb. 17 had 114 cases while the week ending Feb. 24 had 141 cases.

However the number of pneumonia cases has fallen in the past week. There were 20 cases reported in the week ending Feb. 17. This time of year always has the highest number of pneumonia cases, so this rather large number is nothing irregular, said Dr. Brown.

In a report released by the Texas State Department of Health, George W. Cox, State Health Officer, asks the following cautions be taken to prevent the spreading of influenza and pneumonia:

Keep up bodily resistance by eating well balanced meals and getting regular and adequate sleep; practice cleanliness, avoid using cups, glasses, dishes, or towels that have been used by anyone else, including family members.
