

35 Kite Flyers Ride Up-Drafts

College Station and Bryan kite flyers got a chance to exhibit their talents Saturday morning at the College Station Recreation Council's Annual Kite Contest held on the Infantry drill field behind Duncan Mess Hall.

The lads and lassies turned out 23 strong for the St. Patrick's Day event to enter 35 specimens of their kite handicraft. The most unique feature of the contest was the judging of high flying kites from an airplane flown overhead. Barney Welch, director of A&M Intramural Athletics, judged the kites from the plane piloted by Henry Schmidt.

Among the prizes awarded winners in the various divisions were theater passes, a swimming suit, a soft ball, a pocket knife, a model airplane, a billfold, "T" shirts and candy.

The prizes were contributed by Campus Theatre, Leon B. Weiss, Student Co-op, Lipscomb's Pharmacy, Taylor's Campus Variety, Aggeland Pharmacy, A&M Wal-drop & Co., Madeley Pharmacy, Charlie's Food Market, Campus Confectionary, W. S. D. Clothiers, Black's Pharmacy, and College Food Market.

Contest Winners

Winners in the contest included the following: Smallest kite: first, Wayne Thompson; second John Hamner; third, Bob White.

Highest flying kite: first, Tim Hubacek; second, Jack Chaney, third, Bill Jones.

Most unique kite: first, Bob Barlow; second, Tim Hubacek; third, Cherrill Wilcox.

Largest kite: first, Tommy Wilcox; second, Kenneth Bailey; third, Bill Jones.

Most unique: first, Susan Dowell; second, Bill Jones, third, Kenneth Bailey.

Judged Twice

No kites were flown until they were judged on the ground in each of the events, and all kites had to be flown before judgment was passed.

A&M Methodist Church

Cornerstone Laying Slated

Bishop A. Frank Smith will be principal speaker at the cornerstone laying of the A&M Methodist Church, Thursday, March 29, at 11 a. m. The sanctuary, nearing completion, is the second unit to be finished in a three unit physical plant planned for the College Station area.

At noon, immediately following the talk by Bishop Smith, a dinner will be served to all those attending the ceremonies.

The first unit to be completed was the Educational Building at a cost of $150,000. The sanctuary, now nearing completion, will cost about $200,000. The third unit is to be a student center and tower to cost approximately $150,000.

The Rev. James F. Jackson is pastor of the A&M Methodist Church. He and Dr. Glenn Flinn, secretary of the Methodist Student Movement, have been largely responsible for the building of the new sanctuary, local Methodist officials report. The Rev. Robert Sneed is director of the Student Wesley Foundation at the church.

Relay Conference Set March 26 - 28

The fourth annual Conference for Protective Relay Engineers will be held in the Memorial Student Center, March 26-28.

"The purpose of this conference," L. M. Haupt of the Electrical Engineering Department says, "is to provide an opportunity for discussing joint problems by persons interested in the design, application and operation of protective relay equipment as applied to electrical transmission lines and electrical machinery."

The conference, sponsored by the Electrical Engineering Department, will meet in the Assembly Room and the Ball Room following registration in the lobby of the MSC.

Kiwanis Governor To Speak Tuesday C of C Directors To Hold Meet

Luman W. Holman, governor of the Texas-Oklahoma District of Kiwanis International, will speak to the College Station Kiwanis Club at its noon meeting Tuesday.

Holman holds a seven year perfect attendance record in the Jacksonville Kiwanis Club. He operates the Cobb-Holman Lumber Company at Jacksonville.

The speaker is a graduate of Lon Morris College. He also attended Baylor University. His main Kiwanis interest, he reports, is doing something for the youth of his community.

He has held practically every office in the Kiwanis Club of Jacksonville and was lieutenant governor of Division 13 in 1950.

Holman is 31 years of age and the father of seven children. He has been identified with every civic movement started in Jacksonville since he has lived there.
