

Tankersley, Hubert Throw Shutouts Against Mustangs

By FRED WALKER
Battalion Sports Editor

The Aggie baseball team won their first and second conference games last weekend by shutting out the SMU Mustangs 3-0 and 4-0 behind the four-hit and three-hit pitching of Bob Tankersley and Pat Hubert respectively.

Tankersley came off the mound grinning four-hitter Friday and was embraced happily by his teammates.

"They just couldn't get to my curve," said the jubilant right-hander.

Hubert was met with the same pats on the back and handshaking after his three-hit stint.

Although the little righthander had trouble breaking his curve due to high winds Saturday, his fast one down the middle had enough smoke and jump to amke the Ponies sweat, swing and swish.

The big man at the plate for A&M was left fielder John DeWitt. In the first game DeWitt, who was making his second appearance of the year, rapped out a single and a double. (The only extra-base hit of the game.) and scored one run in four trips.

He made three trips to the plate Saturday and slapped two singles, scored a run and batted one in.

Runs batted in in the first contest were by Yale Lary, Hank Candelari and Hollis Baker. Candelari and DeWitt each had two hits in that game.

A Triple
Joe Erette, Baker, Lary and DeWitt knocked in a run apiece in the second game. "Little Joe's" booming triple was the only extra-base hit during the battle.

Ponies Take 4-2 Win From A&M Tennis Team

By ED HOLDER
Battalion Sports Staff

The A&M tennis team was slapped down Friday by the powerful SMU netters, 4-2, in a match which marked the opening of both team's conference play.

Kenneth Crawford of the Mustangs defeated Ray DuBerry of the Aggies in the No. 1 singles match, 6-3 and 6-1.

In the No. 2 singles, Eugene Letsoe overran Dan Stansbury of the Ponies, 6-3 and 6-0.

The Mustangs' Herbert Karren coped the No. 3 singles match from Aggie Royce Tate, by a margin of 6-0 and 6-4.

Don Burkett defeated Dick Hardin in the No. 4 singles in a close 8-6 and 6-3 match to keep SMU on its winning spasm.

Another tight match won by Kenneth Crawford and Herbert Karren over Roy Tate and Ray DuBerry, marked the No. 1 doubles as an SMU victory with a score of 8-6 and 6-3.

But in the No. 2 doubles, Aggies Eugene Letsoe and Dick Hardin won over Don Burkett and Dan Stansbury of the Mustangs in a 6-3 and 8-6 match.

"Despite this initial defeat," said Ray DuBerry of the Aggies, "we still have a chance to place first."

"And I believe that we have second place honors practically cinched," he added.

The Mustangs also defeated Rice Saturday by a score of 4-2.

The Aggies will play TCU here Saturday in their second conference match.

Linksmen Tie Rice In SWC Opener

By JIM ASHLOCK
Battalion Sports Staff

In their first conference match of the year A&M's golf quartet tied 3-3 with the Rice Owls at the Bryan Country Club Friday.

Buddy Weaver turned in low score of the day with a 69, closely followed by Aggies Bob Dahoney and Tony Guerrero with a 71 each.

The Houstonians started out in top form by cropping the first two singles matches from the Aggies. Weaver took the first match from Guerrero 2-1, followed by teammate Dave Snelling's 2-1 victory over Bill Baker.

Dahoney, Barrett Win

Bob Dahoney and Johnnie Barrett came to the aid of the Farmers by outstriking Ricces Elwyn Stovough 3-1 while Barrett downed Silver 4-3.

Moving into the doubles division of the match, Weaves and Snelling pooled their talents to gain top slot in a 2-1 defeat of Guerrero and Baker and once again take the lead on points.

Again Dahoney and Barrett came through as they teamed up to beat Stovough and Silver 4-3 and end the contest in a deadlock.

Play Hampered

Cloudy skies and occasional rain flurries hampered playing on both teams and permitted only a limited gallery to follow the contest. The

Floyd Greeted By 7 Lettermen In Spring Drills

Seven varsity lettermen, two of whom are unanimous All-Southwest Conference choices, will provide the 1951-52 nucleus for Head Basketball Coach John Floyd when he opens Spring basketball training today.

Seven lettermen of the 11-man squad which won a tri-championship with the exceptions of Forwards Marvin Martin and John DeWitt and center Glenn Williams who will graduate, will be back.

Coach Floyd plans two full dress games May 10 and 11 as a climax for the training.

"We are going to do a lot of running," Floyd said, "in order to develop our speed and leg muscles."

Floyd said he planned to spend 30 to 45 minutes on fundamentals each day, 20 minutes on defensive work, 20 minutes on offensive organization and 45 minutes in team scrimmages.

More Defense

Although the Aggies led the nation on team defense last year, Floyd said his squad would still devote much of its time to this unheralded part of basketball.

"An offense can be developed in scrimmage," he said. "But it takes good, hard work to develop a good defensive team."

At the beginning of the third week of training, the squad will have a full scrimmage game daily. These games will be open to the public.

Lettermen

The following are the lettermen who will be out: Forwards LeRoy Misch of Waelder and Bobby Farmer of Amarillo; center unanimous All-SWC center Walter Davis of Nederland; and unanimous All-SWC choice Jewell McDowell of Amarillo, Raymond Walker of Woodhouse, Don Heft of Corpus match was held on the Country Club course due to repair work being done on the college course turf.

The next conference match for the Aggies will be held next Friday when they journey to Waco to engage the Baylor linksmen.

Baylor's fairway squad, which went down before TCU 4-2 Friday at Colonial, boasts a host of experienced golfers who are particularly sharp on their home course.

Rugged Duo

Stiff resistance can be expected from the Bear's number one men Frank Barksdale and George Wagner, the only two golfers who were able to hold out against the Frogs Friday. Both Barksdale and Wagner tied their singles events and later gaining Baylor's only victory of the day as they teamed up to win their match in the doubles events.

Two other Bruin linksmen, Hank McPaddin and Jack Westerfield are also worthy opponents despite their defeat by the Frogs.

New Record

Buddy Davis

... broke the Texas Relay's high jump record of 6' 8 1/4". The tall lanky basketball star amazed the near-9000 spectators with his unorthodox, if not startling form. Davis went 6' 9" by going over the bar in a feet-first, perpendicular fashion.

Aggies Take Relays

OU's fine time in the 440 relay might have been matched by the Farmers who had been undefeated up to Saturday's meet. However, due to bad passes and unfortunate arrangements in the heats, the Aggies failed to reach the finals. A&M had qualified for the finals in the relay, but since they were not at least third in their heat, they were not admitted.

In the 880 relay, Oklahoma's Bill Cox just nipped Aggie anchor man Bill Stalter for the fourth Sooner win. A&M's second-place team consisted of James Baker, Bill Bless, Bobby Ragsdale and Stalter.

Charles Hudgins took third in the 3000 meter for A&M. SWC high hurdle champion Paul Leming looked like a second for the Farmers until the last 20 yards, but wound up fourth.

Don't Stop Now

Darrow Hooper

... broke the Texas Relays' shot put record last Saturday with a heave of 53.1". The old record was held by Elmer Hackney of Kansas State and has been standing for 12 years. This also is the fifth time that soph ace has broken the SWC shot put of 50' 2 1/4" formerly held by Aggie-Ex Boyce Irwin since 1934.
