Clinic Here May 7

The sixth annual Kiwanis Crippled Children's Clinic will be held at the college hospital Monday, May 7.

In cooperation with the Kiwanis Club, civic, service, and religious organizations of Brazos County have combined their efforts to make the clinic possible.

The clinic is not a charity organization, but a free diagnostic clinic where treatment will be recommended for children who suffer physical deformity. Parents, who are financially able, will be expected to pay for the treatment.

Kiwanians to Try
Efforts will be made by Kiwanis members to secure free treatment for the crippled children whose parents are unable to afford extensive treatment.

The child's deformity does not have to be of a major type to profit from the clinic. Children, who have a deformity in the bone, muscle, tendon, or skin, which is not usually treated by a family physician, are urged to attend.

See Family Doctor
Children suffering common ailments are requested to see their family physician rather than attend the clinic.

The group of specialists who will conduct the free clinic are Dr. G. W. N. Eggers, Dr. Stephen R. Lewis, Dr. T. G. Blocker, Dr. William H. Ainsworth, Dr. P. W. Bailey Jr., all of Galveston; Dr. Herbert E. Hipps of Waco.

Children should be registered as early as possible on Monday morning, May 7. The cooperation of interested citizens in locating and sending children to the clinic is earnestly solicited by the Kiwanis of College Station and all organizations supporting the clinic.

BE PREPARED

THE SCOUT OATH
On my honor I will do my best—
To do my duty to GOD and MY COUNTRY and to obey THE SCOUT LAW,
To help other people at all times;
To keep my self physically strong, mentally sane and morally straight.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

In the great fight that is being waged against juvenile delinquency in this country, the Boy Scouts of America are playing a leading role. They are the vanguard of a great army of citizens enlisted in this cause. There are many influences in modern life that tend to weaken the moral and spiritual fibre of American youth. The increase in juvenile crime and delinquency has stirred thoughtful people as they have seldom been stirred before.

The Boy Scout Oath and the Scout Law embody the highest ideals of American boyhood, and the fidelity with which these principles are being instilled in the minds of boys is one of the brightest spots in the picture.

The Scouts are non-sectarian and non-political. They deserve the co-operation of churches and schools and the support of all good people in their efforts to teach boys to live clean lives, to honor God, and to do all the good they can.
