

Aggie Linksmen Win Third In SWC; Guerrero Fifth

By ED HOLDER
Battalion Sports Staff

The A&M golf team wound up its season's activities Friday in the SWC Individual Championship Tournament after finishing third in the SWC team competition.

Tony Guerrero made the best showing for the team at the tournament by finishing fifth. He has maintained a high average throughout the year, winning 5 matches and losing only two.

In the last SWC meet, against SMU on the A&M College Golf Course, Guerrero dumped his opponent, Frank Wear, 2-to-1.

At the same meet, Bob Dahoney, who played the No. 1 spot for the Ags this year, edged the previously undefeated Mustang Don Addington, 1-up. Before this meet, Addington had been one of the two remaining undefeated men in the SWC individual competition.

This tie with SMU killed the Mustangs only chance to emerge champs of the conference, and it also assured the Aggies of finishing in third place in the SWC.

Conference Opener

The conference opener was held against Rice on the Bryan Country Club Course, and resulted in a tie, 3-3. Weaver, conference champion, led the field for Rice once again with a low score of 69. His 1-under-par score brought him a win over Guerrero who registered a 1-over-par, 71.

Playing under cloudy skies which occasionally sprinkled the course and ran off most of the spectators, Dave Snelling of the Owls edged out Billy Baker of the Ags, 2-to-1.

Johnny Barret of the Cadets then came back with his win over Silver, 4-3. Bob Dahoney followed through with another Aggie victory when he overcame Elwynn Stabaugh of the Owls.

Tie With Baylor

In their second match of the year, the Cadet linksmen met the Baylor Bears on the Ridgewood Course in Baylor. Playing on a windy but smooth course, Bruin golfer George Wagner won over Ag Barrett when he shot a 1-off par, 70.

Guerrero was low man for the visiting Aggies with a 72 and teammate Dahoney followed with a register of 74 over the par 69 course. These slightly above-par scores for the Ags turned in netted them another tie, 3-to-3.

First Loss

Guerrero gave his opponent a tough time but this time only in vain. He lost his match as did the entire Aggie aggregation when the Aggie linksmen suffered their first loss of the season to TU.

Wesley Ellis of the Longhorns turned in the low mark of the day with a two-under-par 69, and Guerrero turned in the best Aggie record of the day with a par-71.

The Aggie golfers held the Trinity University team to a 5-2 score in their next tilt. This proved to be quite an honor as Trinity went on to play North Texas, who has held the NCAA title for the past three years, and defeat them by a safe margin of 5-1.

Third Place

A firmer hold on third place was gained when the Aggies next met TCU in Fort Worth and downed them 4-to-2. Guerrero suffered his second loss of the season when he turned in a performance far below his usual game. He then entered the doubles with Fletcher as a partner and lost this too.

The following match with SMU was the golfers final tilt as they finished the year with a record of only one conference defeat.

'Stool Pigeons' Legalized in SWC

By Associated Press

So you're a star athlete and rumor has it that you got a new convertible to go to college.

In the Southwest Conference, as of now, this will bring a most exhaustive investigation. Not only will the officials look into it but they'll have helpers.

Being a "stool pigeon" was legalized by the faculty committee of the conference in its annual spring meeting here over the weekend. Each of the seven member schools was admonished to report even the slightest rumor that any athlete is getting more than the conference laws allow.

Howard Grubbs, conference executive secretary and chief policeman, says it's monotonous, these rumors.

"Always, it's a convertible," he comments. "It couldn't be any other kind of automobile. But I have yet to see one on a college campus. However, we want to investigate all such reports."

Not only will the conference officials make an investigation but if they find nothing to substantiate the rumor, the school in question will be asked to do what it can to track it down.

A baseballer's dream finally came true—he got even with the umpire.

It all happened in Madisonville, Texas, when Bryan Beard, pitcher for the A&M softball team, came to bat. The pitcher tossed the first one over the plate—Beard connected with a long, high, out-of-the-park foul.

After a several second float down, a tinkle of glass was heard. The ball went through the windshield of the umpire's car.

Beard ran into more bad luck when he was faced in the seventh by a man on first as a result of an error. The runner took second on a wild throw and went on to third the same way. He then came all the way home when the recovery from the bad throw failed.

This gave the Madisonville softballers their only score of the game, but it was enough for them to win 1-0. Winning pitcher was B. J. Lloyd.

Business Nine Wins Softball In Murals

By JOE BLANCHETTE

Six runs in the first inning were all the Business Society needed to defeat the Agronomy Society and become the Intramural Club softball champions yesterday afternoon. The businessmen were the victors 9-0.

Lou Wood, the Business Society hurler, was invincible. The tall right-hander yielded one hit and walked two in the contest.

In the top of the first Wood allowed the only hit the agronomists were able to muster. Leo Mikeska, shortstop for the losers, connected for the lone single. He reached second on an error and that was the only Agronomy base-runner who advanced in the game.

In the lower half of the frame the businessmen went wild. Froggie Morris received a walk. Jack Tanner walked and Carl Hagen followed with a bunt to load the sacks. Bob Mitchum lined out a single to load the bases. The final four runs of the afternoon came on a walk by Bob Hall and two consecutive hits by Howard Winters and John Schmidt.

The next two and one-half innings were scoreless but the Business Society racked up their final three runs in the bottom of the fourth. Morris opened with a double and was followed by Tanner's safety. Carl Hagen walked and Winters drove home the runs with his second hit of the afternoon.

The preliminaries for the Intramural Track Meet will be held Wednesday and Thursday afternoons.

At 4 p. m. Wednesday the preliminaries for the 440 yard dash, 880 relay, 880 run, 440 relay, and the broad jump will be run off. At 5 p. m. Thursday afternoon the preliminaries for the 100 yard dash, 120 low hurdles, and shot put will be held. The finals in the track events and the high jump and pole vault will be held Friday.

The officials for the meet will be Coach Frank Anderson, referee; Bob Hall, starter; C. K. Esten, head finish judge; Taylor Wilkins, head timer; Buddy Davis, judge of the high jump; Darrow Hooper, judge of the shot put; Jack Wood, clerk of the course; Jack Simpson, judge of the pole vault; Bill Henry, judge of the broad jump; and Bob Blum, recorder.

recruiting rules of the conference was among a number of edicts handed down by the conference fathers.

A ceiling on not only what a boy can get but the number of boys who can be brought in is necessary, says Dutch Meyer, coach of Texas Christian. He declares it costs $1,000 a year to put an athlete through college and some of the conference schools have as many as 180 boys on athletic scholarships. He says TCU has 108. "Some of the schools aren't meeting expenses," he adds.

By GUS MISTROT

South Texas fencers completely dominated the State meet in Dallas, Saturday and Sunday with the Aggie fencing team.

The Aggie Foil Team defeated Tarleton to hang up its third consecutive State Collegiate Title, but was beaten in the final round by the Galveston Buccaneers.

In individual competition, Gulf Coast entries took 29 out of a possible 45 places, with the Cadets walking off with 16 of the 29.

In addition, the Southern entries garnered 12 out of a possible 15 first places, with A&M men accounting for eight themselves.

In team competition A&M's epee squad swept past Texas Tech and Dallas YMCA to win the State Championship. The Crack Farmer epee team has now become the first fencing squad in Texas since in the individuals included Willie Matthijetz, Claude Holmes, Chuck Massey, Ted Fields, and John Gottlob.

The team competition saw A&M pitted against Tarleton in the College bracket, and the Galveston Buccaneers against Dallas YMCA in the club bracket. The cadets slipped past Tarleton 5-4. Mayes and Gottlob won two bouts each and Jones took one.

Galveston beat Dallas to make the Fall finals strictly a Gulf Coast show.

The Buccaneers started off right, as Bill Brown beat Jones. Gottlob beat Owen Holzheimer, but Jack Baird put Galveston in front again by taking Mayes.

Gottlob Wins

Gottlob outpowered Brown to once again tie up the match. Mayes gave A&M a short lived lead by stopping Holzheimer but Baird took Jones to tie the score at 3-3.

Galveston finished up in high style as Brown beat Mayes and Holzheimer downed Jones.

Epee Competition

Epee was a different story, however, as A&M went through Texas Tech 5-3. In this match, Wilson and Gottlob won two each for the cadets and Mayes won one. Dallas pulled an upset by beating Galveston 5-1, but the Northern squad saw its afternoon's success end there.

Wilson got the Aggies off to a good beginning in the final round by whipping Don Chaney and Gottlob followed up by taking Charlie Coleman. Vernon Lyden slipped past Mayes but the Aggies bounced back fast as Gottlob beat Chaney, Mayes stopped Coleman and Wilson took Lyden.
