Dead Week—A Joke

Aggies Begin Usual Study For Coming Finals--None

Battalion Staff Writer

Have you bought your supply of No-Doz pills yet? Are you cramming night and day for those finals? Well, if you haven't given it much thought yet, don't feel bad. Most of the rest of us haven't "This is the first time since"

Several students, when asked to elaborate on their feelings concerning final exams, dead week, and that last bit of cramming, all agreed that as far as they are concerned, finals are a waste of time and effort.

"What's the use in making a student take a final, after he's covered the course all semester?," Stan Perkins, a junior, asked.

Most of the sudents argued that they haven't had time to study for finals yet because they are scheduled to have major quizzes during dead week,"

"Ill probably look over the notes for a couple of days and then hit the sack the night before the final, "Eddie Sick, a junior commented.

"Why should there be finals anyway?," Montgomery asked.

Communists Lose 36 Times More Men Than UN Forces

Washington, May 22—(AP)—The Defense Department says the Reds in Korea probably lost 36 times as many men—killed or wounded—as United Nations forces in the fiveday Communist offensive through May 20.

U. N. losses, according to a Defense Department announcement yesterday, were 1,618 dead and wounded. This excluded missing in action, for which accurate figures were not yet available. A Defense Department spokesman estimated the toll in dead and wounded of Chinese and Korea Reds at 58,000.

The spokesman said casualties among United States troops were 134 killed in action and 826 wounded. He based his figures for U. S. and U. N. losses on a check of preliminary reports from the Eighth Army.

The report put South Korean dead at 48 and wounded at

Policy Debate

Tokyo, May 22—(P)—Maj. Gen. Clark L. Ruffner said today his U.S. Second Division has broken the back of the Communist offensive on the East-Central front.

However, powerful Red forces were reported massing for a new assault on this unyielding hump in the United Nations line.

They continued probing Tuesday but shifted their heaviest efforts to a penertation southeast of the Second Division. Communists also resisted stubbornly immediately to the southwest of the division.

Both were deep penetrations. Elsewhere the Pack and Hongchon River.

But the Reds appeared to be shifting their weight eastward rather than making a general withdrawal.
