

Sportsmen Honorees At Barbecue Tonight

At 6:30 this evening in the Brazos County A & M club house located at the West end of Munnerlyn Village...

Special attention will be directed to the presentation of the Lipscomb-Colson awards, made annually to the captains of the baseball, track and basketball teams...

Buddy Davis and Jewell McDowell were awarded the valuable player and team captain awards at the sports banquet but W. N. "Flop" Colson said they would be honored as a part of the program.

Guy Wallace will receive the captain award for the baseball team and Jack Simpson will receive the award for track.

Colson said that in the absence of the baseball team, those awards would be made and presented at some future date, pending the return to the campus of the team from its trip to Arizona.

Over 150 athletes who have participated in tennis, golf, fencing, swimming, the rifle and pistol teams as well as the other sports will be honored.

The following lettermen will be honored at the feast.

Varsity Track

Robert H. Allen, James E. Baker, William E. Bless, Thomas K. Burk, Jr., (Mgr.), James H. Dimmitt, Walter F. Davis, James C. Gabriel, John H. Garmany, Don R. Graves, William S. Henry, Julian C. Herring, C. Darrow Hooper, Charles M. Hudgens, Marshall M. Lazarine...

Freshman Track

Varsity Golf

William D. Baker, Jr., Johnny Barrett, Robert G. Dahoney, J. C. Fletcher, Oten Guerrero, III.

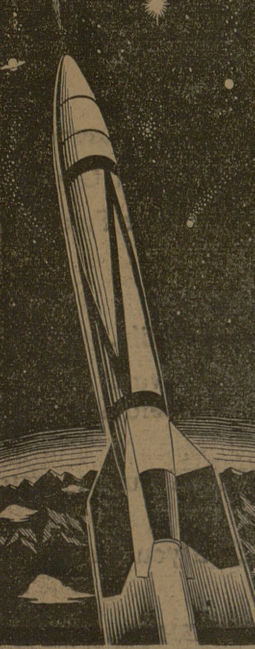

Opportunity Unlimited...

For men of high caliber and university training, Douglas offers limitless opportunity. Today, as for the past thirty years, our future depends on men who can continue to help pioneer in the field of aeronautics.

University and college graduates have made important contributions to our progress, and have found Douglas a good place to work.

As we push forward the development of aircraft, guided missiles, and special classified projects for the Government, we shall always be interested in men trained as aeronautical, mechanical, electrical and civil engineers... physicists... and mathematicians.

Aggie Sports Bear Sweet Fruit In '51; 75th Is Gold Year

By FRED WALKER Battalion Sports Editor

"It is a melancholy object to those who walk through this great town or travel in the country, when they see the streets, the roads, and cabin doors, crowded with beggars of the female sex, followed by three, four, or six (coaches), all in rags and importuning every passer by for an alms.

These mothers, instead of being able to work for their honest livelihood, are forced to employ all their time in strolling to beg sustenance for their helpless infants: who as they grow up either turn thieves for want of work, or leave their dear native country to fight for the pretender in (Austin), or sell themselves to the (dollar).

My apologies to Johnathan Swift (God rest his soul!) for this harmless bit of playful plagiarism, but I couldn't but notice how strikingly similar was his "Modest Proposal" to coaching situations of years past.

The main difference was, however, that there weren't many of them begging on the streets, for all they had to do was turn out poor teams with good material and sit back and wait for the rich alumni to buy up their contracts.

We have no such proposal as did Mr. Swift. In the first place, the wheels in Aggie sports circles are turning quite well without emitting any horrible squeaks. In the second place, I can't conceive a tough old campaigner like Col. Andy, a lean strong John Floyd, a big rugged Beau Bell or a Rocky Mountain range like Ray George with an apple in his mouth.

What does all this gibberish mean? It darn well means that the lean times are definitely over (At least for a while) for Aggie land sports.

Davis, Hooper Take Places In Modesto Relays

A&M's two wandering track stars, Walter "Buddy" Davis and Darrow Hooper have returned from their California trip with a share of the top honors wrested from some of the outstanding stars in the country.

Davis won first place in the Los Angeles Coliseum Relays high jump event Friday night with a leap of 6-6 and then Sunday at Modesto, Calif., tied for third with two others by leaping a mediocre 6-4 in the 10th Annual California Relays.

Weight-star Hooper placed fourth in the shot at the Friday night meet with a heave of 54-6 and won third Sunday with a toss of 53-4 1/2.

A new intercollegiate record was established in the javelin event when Bill Miller of Arizona State whipped the spear 237-10 to surpass the 234-3 1/2 set by Bob Peoples of Southern California in 1941.

Even with this fine toss, he failed to win the event as Cy Young, representing the Los Angeles Athletic Club chucked the javelin a mighty 241-11. This mark has been exceeded only by a toss of 248-10, held by Dr. Steve Seymour.

Dick Attlesley of the Los Angeles Athletic Club set a new mark in the 120 yard high hurdles with a fleet 13.6. He had just established a new mark of 13.8 in the preliminaries.

Hooper failed to place in the discus throw which was won by Dick Doyle, representing the Montana AC, Missoula, Mont., with a toss of 165-10 1/2.

Barbecue to Fete Mural Managers

There will be an Intramural Managers' Barbecue tonight at 6 in the Grove. All managers are requested to attend.

Athletic officers who have not turned in all Intramural athletic equipment are urged to do so immediately in the Office of Student Activities.

Who's Floyd?

Back in September an unknown name, John Floyd, very quietly made his way across A&M's campus for the first time. "Who in the devil is John Floyd?" the wolves howled. (Wolves here does not mean A&M alumni as Jinx Tucker would have you believe. This word is used to include all skeptics and infidels.)

Six months later (March 13th) the same Floyd could have asked for and gotten the MSC, Fort Knox, America's supply of atom bombs or a letter from Harry Truman. In five short months, Floyd had changed the entire system of Aggie basketball style and whipped out 45 years (Twenty-eight on the title and 17 in Austin) of field goal misery with an Aggie game in Austin.

And like any man with a grain of sense, he said the credit belonged to his "boys". Make it 50-50 J.F. and we'll call it even.

A Bell for A&M

And then there was an Aggie-Ex that strolled across a not-unfamiliar campus last January. R. C. "Beau" Bell pleased the grumblers. He was an Aggie and an ex-pro from the St. Louis Browns and two or three other American League clubs.

Now, at this very moment, Bell and his charges are facing (Or it might be over) a potent Arizona Wildcat nine in Tucson in the National Collegiate Athletic Association playoffs.

And what manner of man is this? He seems to be a lot of man. It started in 1931 when Beau slammed a homer against jolly old Texas to give A&M a Southwest Conference baseball title.

Six years later he hit .340 for the Browns and led the league in doubles. His team here this year started with a cross on the button from Baylor and dropped a couple more while a seemingly unbeatable Longhorn crew was still flexing its muscles.

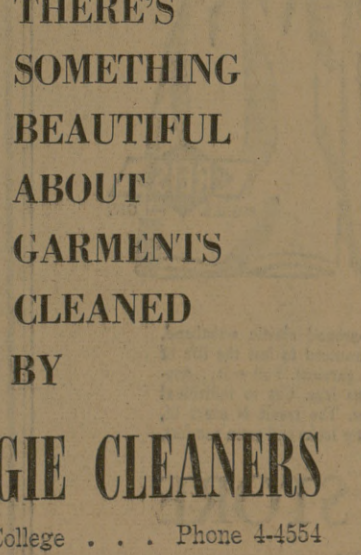

"Beat Baylor twice? You're nuts?" It was nothing, really; 9-to-0 and 12-to-6. "Well, we should take Rice." And that was that. "Be for the title? BEAT TEXAS TWO GAMES IN A ROW?" Well, no matter what anyone else thought, Bell and a group of Aggie baseball players had another idea. Texas spent most of Thursday and Friday embarrassedly clutching their orange pants which were being gleefully taken from them. Can Beau and the boys do the same to Arizona? You'll have to wait for that one.

And then there was another... shall we say a mountain with a child's smile? He weighs 263 and smiles like the Mona Lisa. That's a man named Ray George who hasn't ever won a ball game at A&M but has every austere and dignified Aggie—ready to lead yell practice. Tell anyone he's talked to that A&M won't be a champion this Fall and you'll probably get a slap in the kisser. Jolson couldn't have laid them in the aisles any faster at A&M. But don't forget a newly converted business man in Houston. Harry Sticker? That's right. For (See AGGIE SPORTS, Page 4)

Baseballers Journey to Tucson; Prep Today for Opening Game

By ANDY ANDERSON Battalion Campus Editor

A&M's baseball co-champs arrived in Tucson, Ariz. at noon today where they will meet the University of Arizona to determine who will represent District 6 at the NCAA playoffs in Omaha, Neb., next month.

The team left the campus yesterday evening aboard the Sunbeam, remained in Dallas overnight and boarded an airliner for Tucson earlier today.

Plans called for a workout this afternoon prior to tomorrow afternoon's first game at 3. The second game is slated for Thursday night at 8 and if a third is necessary, it will be played Friday at 8 p. m.

Probably Face Righthander

Probably facing the Aggies in the first of the best-two-out-of-three series will be the Wildcats ace, Robin Richer, a right hander. He has a 7-0 record for the season with an ERA of 1.62. Richer, who has led the Wildcats to a 27-2 record for the season has issued 22 bases on balls and whiffed 57 men.

Pacing the Border Conference champions at the plate will be a sophomore left fielder, Mark Delaney, with a batting mark of .377 for the season.

Aggie leaders in the hitting department will be Guy Wallace with a .386 average; Yale Lary, .348 and maskman Al Ogletree, .349. These four men were instrumental in most of the Aggie victories over the regular season which began when A&M played host to the pro-laden Brooke Army Medical Center Comets of San Antonio.

Ogletree started off the victorious season by rapping out a last half of the ninth inning home run to break a 7-7 tie and give the Aggies an 8-7 victory. The series was evened the next days as the Comets won 2-1.

Next opposition for the SWC co-champs was the University of Houston. In a close game, the Aggies emerged victorious with a 3-1 victory as Pat Hubert and Ernie Johnson scattered 5 hits very effectively.

Again, the U of H furnished competition for the forces of "Beau" Bell. This time, playing in Houston, the Cougars tripped the Aggies 7-3.

In a wild-scoring affair led by team captain and again first choice for SWC shortstop honors Guy Wallace and Jimmy Russell, the Aggies mopped the Sam Houston Bearkats of Huntsville 16-8. Wallace contributed two four-masters and Russell one as the twosome teamed up to drive in nine of the Aggie runs.

The Aggies next went to San Antonio to pay a return visit to the Comets and split a pair. They entered the series with the Golden Gophers of Minnesota with a 4 won-3 lost record.

Hubert's No-Hitter

Hubert realized a pitcher's dream-come-true as he was in perfect form for the first game of a double-header with the Gophers. He set the boys from the North down without a hit as the Aggies won 2-0 only to drop the second game 1-0.

The Aggies record rose to 6-4 following their win from the El Dorado Oilers of the Cotton States League, 7-4.

Baylor's Bears tripped the Farmers in the first conference game 3-2 to give Hubert his only loss for the season, but he, as well as (See BASEBALLERS, Page 4)

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 20...THE BALTIMORE ORIOLE

Clean-up man on the baseball nine, this slugger doesn't like to reach for 'em...wants it right over the plate.

And that's the way he likes his proof of cigarette mildness! No razzle-dazzle "quick-puff" tests for him. No one-whiff, one-puff experiments.

There's one test, he's discovered, that's right down the alley! It's the test that proves what cigarette mildness really means.

THE SENSIBLE TEST... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as a steady smoke—on a pack-after-pack, day-after-day basis.

After you've enjoyed Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), we believe you'll know why...

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!
