Ambition . . . Attained

Senior Ring Pictures Are Ready Next Week, June 1-2

The fact that pictures at the not the result of mere chance. It went off without a hitch and that Ben Whitehouse, a senior from the photographers were finished Fort Worth, had the contract to almost an hour ahead of schedule is take the pictures. Although he had

"dabbled around" with photography for several years, he has only been doing serious work for the past few months, and he had never handled a job so big as that Saturday night.

780 Couples

It was his responsibility to photograph 780 couples in a matter of a few hours—and to photograph them in such a way that, as nearly as possible, they would be happy with their pictures.

The fact that nearly every Senior Ring dance previously has had a terrific mix-up in pictures didn't make Whitehouse throw up his hands and quit.

Instead he lined up five good men—Dick Graves, Richard Hale, Martin Howard, Charlie Wheeler and George Miller—and several sergeants to assist him in his chore.

Time Studies

Then he put his major subject to work for him. Ben is a management engineering major and one thing he has learned in the course is that, with proper management of time, most any assignment can be done well.

Ben and his helpers figured out how many people could go through the ring in a given time. They ran time studies on all their preparations. They brought extra equipment to use in case they had trouble with some of the cameras set up. They figured that they could take a picture every half minute.

At 8:45—a few minutes later than the scheduled starting time (late because the Senior Ring Banquet held up participants) Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Martin, Jr., the Cadet Colonel of the Corps, and Dare Keelan, Senior Class President, and his date, Wanda Lee Jones, stepped before the camera as Number 1 in Rings A and B.

Three hours and 780 pictures later the last couple crossed the green carpeted stands of the Sen-

New Faces Appear In Offices Here

By VIVIAN CASTLEBERRY
Battalion Women's Editor

NEW faces will be seen in most of the offices on the camp as well as in classrooms this summer as a great many student-wives "graduate" with their husbands and quit to become the women of their dreams, just plain housewives.

In Photo and Visual Aids, where for three years the same woman has answered the telephone and the same person has assisted in photo orders, a new name and a new voice will be doing the job. She is Ellen Younger who is replacing Jerry Rutledge. Ellen is from Waco and just entering A&M with her husband, Jerry, who "retires" this weekend, was honored with a surprise picnic-party Sunday afternoon members of the Photographic and Visual Aids Laboratory. She and Bill were presented with a set of Aggie glasses and an Aggie picture tray.

Student Activities office will have a new receptionist come July Mrs. Theiliss Rush, who has so creditably done the job for the past few months, has just received word that she is the wife of a Mari Corps officer. Her husband, who is a career Marine, has just received his commission and Mrs. Rush and her daughter, Patricia, will go to West Coast where they'll establish residence for the return of the husband and father.

Another pretty blonde will be handling the paper work for that "25 bucks you need in a hurry." She is Dorothy W. Gray, who is replacing Peggy Davis in the Student Loan Office. Dorothy is the wife of sophomore Wildlife Major Charles E. Gray and they call Gainesville home.

Come July the Museum and Tracy Herbarium will be replacing secretary of many months Lucille Ethridge, a transplanted Ohio Lucille, who plans to complete requirements for her own degree "if I get to any place that offers college work" will leave Aggie land with her graduating husband, James. In the MSC a new switchboard operator will be answering the calls formerly taken by Ella Harr Ella is going with her Petroleum Engineering husband back to Odessa where he was employed before they came to Aggie land a year ago. In the front office of the MSC you'll be greeted by Ruby Nell Peal who replaced Marie Moncrief at the desk just inside the door. Ruby Nell, whose husband is a junior M.E. major, is from Beaumont.

Gloria Martin, and Flora Shaw co-hosted a shower for Dixie Wotan of the Project Houses at Mrs. Martin's home, A-14 College View recently. Guests were given individual baby bibs before refreshments were served to Jane Ingram, Merle Buchanan, Marguerite Doak, Bill Dobbs, Annabelle Miller, Ellen Scott, Nancy Blank and Connie Nite. All guests were employees of the Agronomy Department.

Nancy Little was honored for a shower given by Jeannine Hooper and Marilyn Gower last week in the MSC. About 25 guests attended the surprise party for Nancy and a lovely assortment of gifts was showered upon her.

ROMANCE AFOOT. The Cotton Ball played a big—very big part in the romance of Joe Johnson and Nan Hassler that will be consummated in marriage in August. Joe and Nan met at the Cotton Ball 1950. Choosing the same setting and the same festival, Joe got around to the big question at the Cotton Ball—this time 1951. They'll be married in Tennessee.

Alan Waldie had been hanging around Radio Station WTAW for a couple of years. But the Station office suddenly took on new glamour last July. It was that month that Ann Wilson, a pretty little brunette Bryan girl came to work as secretary in the offices. It wasn't long until the two were seeing quite a bit of each other, after office hours as well as during them. On June second, the day after Alan receives his ED degree, the couple will be married in Bryan's First Methodist Church.

Something of a family affair is responsible for the romance David Haines and Ann Hull, which will culminate in marriage, June 23. David went out to Spur, Texas to visit his brother and, while there, called a girl he knew—she was the roommate of his girl friend at TSCW (complicated, isn't it). This girl friend of his girl friend introduced him to her girl friend—who turned out to be Ann. Six months later David says, there's been no girl friends but Ann.
