Jenkins and Nutt Say Wedding Vows

Just before they left on their wedding trip Saturday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Waymond C. Nutt came by the Senior Ring Dance where she turned his Aggie ring on the same finger where she had just placed a new wedding band. Waymond gave his bride the traditional senior kiss as the announcer gave the news "Waymond C. Nutt and Miss Charlene Jenkins announce their marriage at 5 o'clock this afternoon."

The couple, both of whom are well known on the campus, repeated their wedding vows in a double ring ceremony performed by Dr. Harry V. Rankin at the First Methodist Church, Bryan.

Mrs. Nutt, a graduate of Stephen F. Austin High School, Bryan, and a former student at Southwest Texas State College, San Marcos, has been employed at the Extension Service on the campus.

The bridegroom, who will receive his degree next Friday in Agricultural Education, has the rank of the A&M Cadet Corps.

Mrs. Ruby C. Jenkins is the bride's mother. Waymond's parents are Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Nutt of Bertram.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Aggie Frank L. Sheffield, husband of her twin sister, Mrs. Sheffield was matron of honor.

Waymond was attended by John Oglesby.

After the wedding a reception was held in the home of Mrs. A. D. Graham.

The bride's wedding dress was made of white imported organdy. It had a strapless bodice covered by a white organdy jacket featuring a scalloped effect. With it she wore a finger-tip length veil of illusion falling from a fitted cap of white seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and wore white linen slippers.

When the couple left for their wedding trip, Charlene wore a costume ensemble of green and white. Her white orchid formed the corsage.

The couple will return to Aggie-land for Waymond's graduation next weekend.

Baseball Star, Miss Shafer Wed Saturday

Texas Aggie baseball star Joe Erette joined the married ranks Saturday evening when he wed Miss Wanda Jean Shafer in the Baptist Temple in San Antonio.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin E. Shafer and Joe's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Erette.

Nuptial music was provided by Miss Billie Gene Hubbard and Miss Marjorie Weatherly.

Gowned in a wedding dress of delicate shadow lace and china white tulle made with a fitted bodice, and portrait neckline, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Her veil of imported illusion was attached to a coronet of seed pearls and tulle. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and carnations.

Miss Jo Ann High was maid of honor and Miss Jo Ann Hunter was bridesmaid. Miss Jessica Darling of Houston was junior maid.

Joe C. Erette served his son as best man. Les Hoffman was groomsmen and Dwight Shafer, the bride's brother was junior groomsmen. The ushers were Delm Wurzbach and Aggie Gary Anderson, Wayne Toepferwein and Norman Robertson.

Popular Aggies Plan Weddings

Another host of young beauties have pledged to be loyal Aggies for the rest of their lives.

They are the girls who, during the summer, will marry A&M men.

Haines-Hull

A Texas Aggie Cadet Colonel and his blue-eyed brunette sweetheart will be married on June 23 in the First Baptist Church at Spur.

The principals are David Haines and Ann Hull.

David, a graduating business student at A&M, is from College Station. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Haines.

Ann is the daughter of A. C. Hull of Spur and the late Mrs. Hull.

David has this year been Artillery Regimental Commander. He was listed in Who's Who this year, is president of the Singing Cadets and has throughout his college career been an announcer on Radio Station WTAW.

Miss Hull is a junior English major at Texas University where she is a member of Chi Omega Sorority. She has visited on the campus a number of times at various social events. She was present for the Senior Ring dance Saturday night.

Immediately after the wedding a reception will be held in Spur at the bride-elect's home.

Among the couple's attendants will be Keith Haines, '47, David's brother, as best man, and A. D. Martin and Wilman Barnes.

Mrs. Harry Jung, the bride-elect's roommate at Texas, will be her matron of honor. Among other attendants will be Misses Creola Rector and Jenny Leon.

After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Haines will be at home at Woodrow Lake in Burleson County at his family's summer home until he is called into service with a regular commission in August.

Smith-Laofrge

Texas Aggie Bob Smith will be the hero in a new role on July 14 when he steps to the altar to await his bride, Miss Betty Lu La Forge. The couple's intentions to wed were announced Saturday night at the Senior Ring dance.

Bob, a star football player for A&M, will wed his sweetheart in Houston's First Presbyterian Church.

Betty Lu, a student at SMU, is a member of Chi Omega sorority

Miss Ann Wilson

and is a resident of Snider Hall on the SMU campus.

Both young people are from Houston. Dr. and Mrs. G. A. La Forge are Betty's parents. Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Smith.

Miss La Forge's attendants will be Barbara Alexander, maid of honor and Sara Lou Moore, Sally Sutton, Madeline Milner, Louise Neely, Betty Willetts and Margaret O'Keefe, bridesmaids. Bob has not named his attendants.

Waldie-Wilson

Another college romance will culminate in marriage a week from Saturday when Miss Ann Wilson and Alan Duane Waldie say their vows in Bryan's First Methodist Church.

Ann, a former student at the University of Texas where she was majoring in Business Administration, met Waldie when she came to work as secretary to Radio Station WTAW on the campus last July. Alan has been active in numerous campus activities, particularly in radio during his student days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bogard of Bryan are Ann's parents. Alan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Waldie of Houston.

During his past year Waldie has served as adviser to the Freshman Aggie Band. He has been a member of the Aggie Band during his college career. He will receive his bachelor of science degree in EE next Friday.

After a double-ring ceremony, the couple will leave on a wedding trip that will take them to Fort Monmouth, N. J., where, on June 6, Alan will report for service as a second lieutenant in the Signal Corps.

The couple will be attended by Elden Golden, BA '50 from Amarillo, as best man, Ronald Waldie, Alan's brother, Stanley Thompson, senior CE major and Pat Ware, from Dallas, as ushers.

Ann's attendant will be Miss Mary Ann Hamer, from Austin, as maid of honor.

Johnson-Hassler

A late summer wedding in Memphis, Tenn. will unite a popular Aggie senior and his TSCW sweetheart.

Miss Nan Hassler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hassler of Memphis and Joe Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Johnson of Rockport will be wed during the latter part of August.

Nan, a sophomore at TSCW, was Artillery Regimental sweetheart in '51. She is a graduate of Central High School, Memphis, Tennessee and served as Vice President of her freshman class at TSCW. This year she was one of the nominees for sweetheart of Tessie-land.

Joe is a fourth year Petroleum and Mechanical Engineering major. He was secretary-treasurer of his Fish class and was this year named to Who's Who.

The couple will make their home next year in College Station where Nan plans to work while her husband completes the requirement for a double engineering degree.

Finch-Graham

A Denton wedding on August 4 will unite Charles H. Finch of Tulla and Miss Nancy Joyce Graham. Their engagement has been revealed this week by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Graham of West Plains, Missouri.

Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Finch of Tulla.

The wedding will be conducted in the First Presbyterian Church, USA, Denton with the Rev. Joseph J. Copeland officiating.

Nancy Joyce is a sophomore secretarial service major at North Texas. She is a member of Sigma Tau Delta, the Panhandle Club and the Professional Business Women's Club.

Charles will be graduated next Friday night from A&M with a BS in Animal Husbandry.

After the marriage, the couple will live in Pataaskala, Ohio, where Charles will be employed as agricultural secretary of Runner Farms and R-Bar Ranches.

Following the review a short business session was conducted by Mrs. J. H. Bass, in whose home the meeting was held.

Jane Adkins Proud Of Valedictorian

Beaming parents, wives and sweethearts will be among the audience next Friday night when degrees are conferred on the 920 graduating seniors of Texas A&M College.

Somewhere in that audience will be a pair of blonde ladies with special pride in their blue eyes. They will be the wife and daughter of the valedictorian of the Class of '51, Jane and Pamela Adkins.

Jane, a dimutive energetic and very pretty girl, entered A&M with her husband in September 1948. She was enthusiastic about his coming back to school and through three years of living in Aggie-land is still enthusiastic.

For one year the Adkins and little Pam "endured the hardships of the Annex—without complaining too much." Then they moved to 25-A Vet Village where they still make their home.

High scholastic honors run in the family. Jane was valedictorian of her high school graduating class in Abilene.

The Adkins were married in 1945 while Jane was a senior in high school and Bill was stationed at Love Field in the Army. From November until May when Jane graduated the marriage was kept a secret.

Their daughter, four years old, thinks "Daddy is just the most wonderful person in the world," and it doesn't take questions to see that "Daddy" feels the same way about his daughter.

Other than being a full-time housewife and mother, Jane has been an enthusiastic worker in the First Baptist Church in Bryan. It pleased her when Bill came back to college and she is pleased that they are staying around for a while longer for Bill to work on his masters.

Foods Group Has Lunch At Lowell Inn

The Food's Group of the A&M Women's Social Club closed its year's activities last week with a luncheon featuring food served at Lowell Inn, Stillwater, Minnesota. Fifty-four members and six guests enjoyed the luncheon.

A leaflet of mimeographed recipes was handed to each guest as she arrived by Mrs. Harry Stiteler, who was hostess for the afternoon. The leaflets contained favorite recipes contributed by the members of the group.

The buffet luncheon table was laid with yellow cloths. Arrangements of driftwood and day lilies placed on light brown fish net formed the centerpiece. The dining tables, set for four, were decorated with driftwood and colorful Spring flowers.

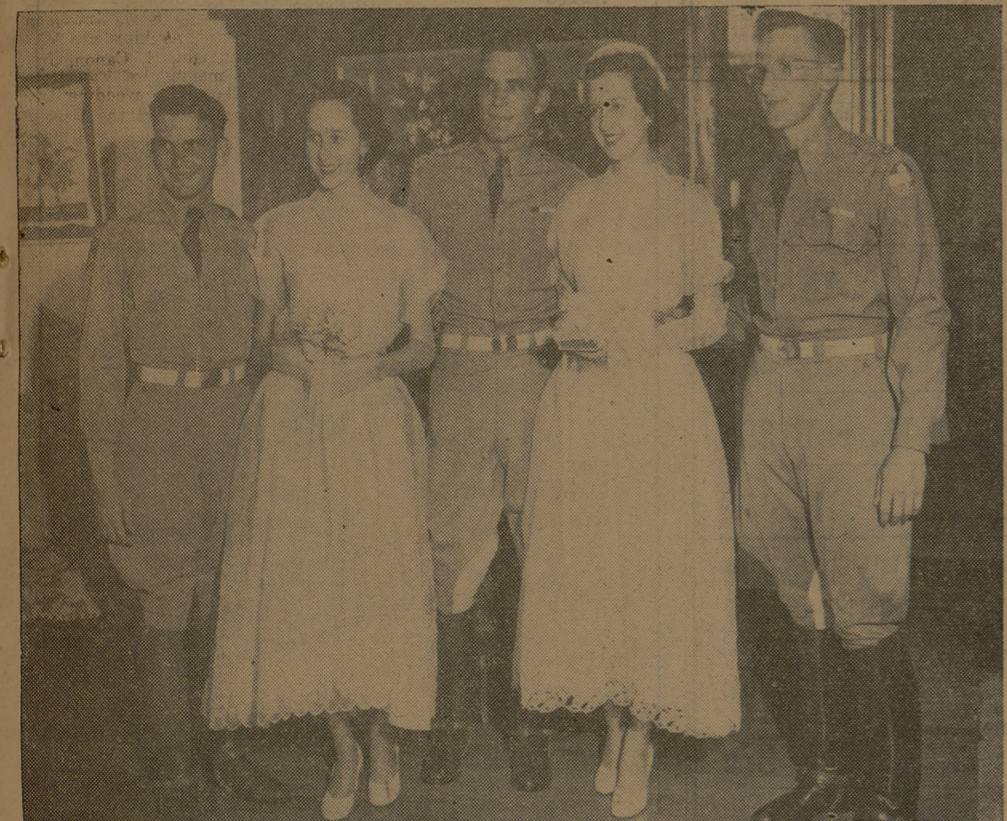

The menu consisted of Chicken Italian, tossed green salad, rich crescent rolls, coffee and strawberry shortcake.

Following the luncheon, a brief talk was given by Mrs. L. F. Walker on the location and history of Lowell Inn.

Mrs. Walter Matson and Mrs. Walker were co-chairmen of the luncheon. They were assisted by Mrs. Armstrong Price, Mrs. J. G. Mackin and Mrs. L. S. O'Bannon.

Mrs. Jane Adkins

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Sheffield, Mr. and Mrs. Waymond Nutt and John Oglesby are snapped just after the Nutt-Jenkins wedding Saturday. Sheffield gave the bride away. His wife, the bride's twin sister, was matron of honor. Oglesby was best man. The bride is the former Miss Charlene Jenkins. Her husband receives his degree here next Friday night.

TSCW Ex-Students To Name Officers

Officers for the coming year will be named tonight when the TSCW Ex-Students Association meets in the home of Mrs. C. F. Richardson, 1013 Foster Avenue, College Hills. The organization, whose purpose is to keep members in touch with the activities of the college, has been active in this area for some time.

The meeting, scheduled for 8 p. m., will also be utilized to formulate plans for next year. Betty Cox, publicity director for the organization, said that all Tessie-ettes are extended a cordial invitation to be present.

A&M Christians Hear Book Review

Mrs. L. R. Thompson of Cameron reviewed "Cry the Beloved Country," a book by Alan Paton at a meeting of the Women's Fellowship of the A&M Christian Church Monday.

Following the review a short business session was conducted by Mrs. J. H. Bass, in whose home the meeting was held.
