Baseball happenings over the week-end were beginning to look like they were settling down to a mid-season tempo with the struggle for supremacy being waged between the New York Yankees and the Chicago White Sox in the American League. The picture in the National is somewhat differ-

> It looks like at this stage of the game that the Brooklyn Dodgers are going to make it a runaway. They hold a lead of $5\frac{1}{2}$ Cincinnati Reds and a lead that varies up to 8½ games over New York, Boston, Chicago and Philadelphia. The St. Louis Brown's have done something, that to most people would not be very interesting. They've moved out of the American League cellar, thanks to the double-trouncing the Detroit Tigers handed the Philadelphia Athletics in Sun-day's games. Splitting two with the Washington Senators didn't hurt the Browns average any either. Here's the way the teams stacked through yesterday. There is no games scheduled in either league yesterday.

Every day many Humble dealers thank a number of their customers for recommending Esso Extra gasoline to their friends. These bona fide recommendations have spread the good name of Esso Extra from one end of Texas to the other: this fine gasoline is noted for extra quick starting, extra anti-knock performance, extra power, and for the exclusive, patented solvent oil that keeps engines extra clean. Users say, there's extra value in every gallon of Esso Extra.

See for yourself. Stop at the Humble sign in your neighborhood and fill up with Esso Extra, the gasoline that gives you something extra for your money . . . Humble service is something extra, too.
