

County Extension Agent Meeting Set June 28, 29

Texas County Extension Agents will assemble here Thursday, June 28, for an Extension Conference scheduled for June 28 and 29.

Dr. Ethel J. Alpenfels, associate professor of education, New York University, will give an address at 8 a. m., June 28, on "From Adam to Atom."

The remainder of the day will be spent at exhibits in Duncan Hall, a luncheon for TSCW Ex-students at the Memorial Student Center, and an Agents' Joint Banquet and Frolic at the Main Dining Room, Sbsia Hall.

The second day of the conference will consist mainly of addresses given by Agricultural leaders and other dignitaries. The addresses starting at 8:30 a. m. will include "Agriculture Looks Ahead," to be given by Dr. O. B. Jessen, head of the Department of Agricultural Economics, University of Minnesota.

"As County Government Sees Extension Work," will be the address given by Judge Otha Dent, County Judge Lamb County and President, County Judges and Commissioners.

"Keeping The Extension House," will be given by Extension Service Director G. G. Gibson, while "Foundations That Last" will be Chan-

Soldiers Never Die." The most cheerers came when the band played "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You."

The General has three more Texas speeches to make—at San Antonio and Dallas tomorrow, and at Fort Worth Saturday. Then his chartered Constellation will take him back to New York City. On MacArthur's schedule today was a visit to a veterans hospital and a drive to nearby Galveston.

The appeasement charge appeared again and again in MacArthur's speech to a joint session of the Texas Legislature at Austin.

"Munich, and many other historical examples have taught us that diplomatic appeasement but sows the seeds of future conflict," he said. "Yet, oblivious to these bloody lessons, we now practice a new and yet more dangerous form of appeasement—the appeasement on the battlefield where we soften our blows, withhold our power, and surrender military advantages, in apparent hope that in some nebulous way by so doing a potential enemy will be coerced to desist from attacking us."

And then he said:

"The existing policy of appeasement is defended on the ground that if our military reaction be conventional and we carry the war to the enemy in a manner calculated to destroy his capability of killing our sons and those whose protection we have assumed, we would incur the wrath of the Soviet and provoke the start of a world at war. No argument could be more fallacious."

Weekly Morning Story Hour Underway at Consolidated

A Story Hour for children, ages four through nine, is being held each Wednesday at 8:10 a. m. in the A&M Consolidated High School library under the sponsorship of the College Station Summer Recreation Program.

Transamerica Corp May Be Broken Up

Washington, June 14—(AP)—A trial officer recommended yesterday that the Federal Reserve Board find the nation's biggest bank-holding company—the Giannini-Founded Transamerica Corp. guilty of violating the Clayton Anti-Trust Act.

He also recommended a board order requiring Transamerica to get rid of all its stock in banks except the Bank of America, a 530-branch California institution which is the world's biggest bank.

The proposed order would require Transamerica to divest itself over a 2 1/2 year period of all its stock in 47 banks in four states—26 in California, 16 in Oregon, three in Nevada, and one each in Washington and Arizona.

Chauffeur Cries

sergeant-chauffeur and MacArthur a colonel when they were together in France.

Texas showed mainly they just wanted to "see" General Douglas MacArthur.

The General said he came down to see them "because I was raised here as a boy."

The 20,000 folks who came to see the Texas army boy who made good didn't cheer very much for him in Austin. They clapped moderately.

Another adopted Texan, Gen. Jonathan Wainwright, the hero of Bataan was here to greet his old friend.

When they saw each other it was MacArthur who stopped and went over to "Skinny" Wainwright.

The band from Anderson Negro High School in Austin was the first to serenade the General in Texas, although they got only as far as "Oh, Say Can You See"—of the national anthem before MacArthur's car sped by. With other Negroes, they blocked the road coming in from the airport, but melted back as motorcycle patrolmen leading the procession bore down on them with sirens full blast.

The General passed through unsmiling.

MacArthur rode with the Governor with only the Lone Star flag of Texas flying from the car's right bumper. Officials had expected the General to bring along his five-star flag and had fixed a standard for it on the left bumper, but it wasn't there.

to make the children want to read. To do this, Mrs. Owen Lee, story teller and librarian of the Consolidated High School library, acquaints the children with numerous story subjects, by means of her stories and at the end of every Story Hour, suggests other books containing the stories each child likes to hear.

During the summer months the children have more time to read, Mrs. Lee said, and with guidance in the selection of books, they develop tastes for literature of a higher quality.

Thus the student may get an education through reading during the summer months.

The Story Hour has been scheduled as the first activity for children on Wednesdays and allows the children to hear the stories with time to check out books they want before the next activity begins.

Mrs. Lee collects material for her stories from books in her personal library, the Bryan Public Library and from the Consolidated High School library. They include such books as King Arthur and His Knights and Mother Goose.

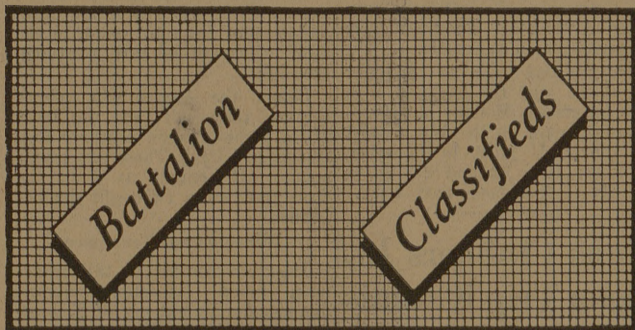

The Story Hour is not yet crowded, Mrs. Lee said, and all children of Story Hour age are invited to be present each Wednesday to hear the stories and each weekday, until noon, to read or browse, or visit if they choose.

"I particularly enjoy working with younger children and hope they will feel free to come in anytime to visit, check out books or read," said Mrs. Lee.

Keeping the library open during the summer months facilitates the children's reading because College Station has no public library and otherwise a trip to Bryan would be necessary for children's literature.

The library has a morning schedule this summer and is open between the hours of 8 a. m. and 12 noon. Books are available to age groups ranging from first-graders to high school seniors.

Mrs. Lee was graduated from TSCW in August of 1949 and came to College Station that same month. She took the librarian position at Consolidated and has held it ever since. Mrs. Lee also held the Story Hour last year.
