

General Talks to Empty Seats--Aide Blames TV

Houston, Tex., June 15—(AP)—General Douglas MacArthur decried anew the feeling of fear in this land and his slow, deliberate speech echoed over a vast and mostly vacant stage.

The five-star general stared at 50,000 empty seats as last night he carried his anti-administration stand to Texas' largest city.

"I find prevalent throughout the land a feeling of fear generated by false propaganda that we are weak, and that we must appease and compromise to encourage others to resist from attacking."

This was the core of his second major speech in Texas. He delivered it from a flag draped platform on the field of Rice Institute's football stadium, to an estimated 20,000 persons.

First Baptist Bible School Program Set

Commencement exercises for the Vacation Bible School of the First Baptist Church will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

Enrollment of this year's school, which has been in progress for the past eight days, has exceeded that of any previous year, students totaling 172, with an average daily attendance of 140, announced the Rev. O. Byron Richardson, pastor.

Each day at the end of regular sessions a talent show was held and as part of the show, the person who brought the most new members was named "Flower of the Day."

P. D. Gandy and Dorothy Berry, who brought more new members than any other boy or girl student, were crowned King and Queen of Bible School last Wednesday night. Runner-ups were given titles of Dukes and Duchesses and were presented scrolls for a job well done.

Four major departments of this year's Bible school and their superintendents are as follows: beginners, Mrs. Marion Pugh; primary, Mrs. L. P. Dulaney; junior, Mrs. I. R. Adams; and intermediate, Mrs. O. B. Richardson.

phone count indicated almost 380,000 persons saw and heard the general in their homes. The 14-minute speech of little more than 800 words also was broadcast by American Broadcasting Company.

There were whistles, and someone yelled "Pour it on, Mac," as MacArthur declared a deliberate campaign is afoot to "pervert the truth," create fear and confuse the American people.

But the applause echoed against the many empty seats in the stadium.

MacArthur goes to San Antonio and Dallas today for the third and fourth speeches in a tour which some think is a grass-roots campaign to get public reaction to the general's Korea arguments.

Much of what MacArthur had to say repeated the arguments of his first Texas speech, on the steps of the state capitol at Austin Wednesday.

Again he said appeasement could lead to war on us by the Soviets.

"There could be no greater illusion—no surer indication to attack us—than the lack of confidence we thus show in ourselves," he said.

Why should we lose the courage and self-assurance with which we have met and overcome the threat of every past crisis in our history? Our nation is strong and virile and our future is still before us. Let no man tell you that we are old and decadent and tottering on the verge of national collapse."

"Insidious forces working from within are more cause for fear than attack from the outside, these forces, he asserted, are not only Communists. He said they include: "Those who, believing themselves Liberals, chart a course which can but lead to destruction. Those who are constantly trying to alter our basic concepts of freedom and prevent men from fearlessly speaking their minds according to the dictates of their conscience." (This brought the greatest applause.)

Continues Tour

The 71-year-old general continues his whirlwind tour of Texas at San Antonio and Dallas today and winds it up with a speech at Fort Worth tomorrow and flies back to New York City in the plane Texans chartered for his trip.

MacArthur's spokesman, Maj. Gen. Courtney Whitney, was asked by a reporter whether the Houston crowd wasn't smaller than expected.

"It was a very nice crowd," Whitney replied. Pressed on the point, he said:

"Well, you have the TV and other factors."

Carroll Martin, who helps count the football gates in the stadium, first told newsmen there were about 20,000 in the stadium. After the speech he called and asked that this be changed to 25,000.

The Houston Post put it at 20,000 and added: "Many Houstonians were surprised, if not embarrassed, that the 70,000-seat stadium was nowhere near half full."

Marine Corps Now Recruiting Pre-Inductees

The Marine Corps recruiting service has received the go ahead signal to enlist volunteer applicants even though they have received pre-induction examinations, stated Major J. L. Tobin, in charge of Marine recruiting in southeast Texas.

Previously the Marines were restrained from accepting volunteers who had received their pre-induction notices. The new ruling, which became effective on June 15, enables young men of draft age to volunteer for the Marines up until the time their notice to report for final induction.

Requirements for enlistment in the Marine Corps have been lowered in conjunction with the other branches of the armed forces.

Single men 17 to 29 years old may enlist in the regular Marine Corps while single and married men 17 to 32 are eligible for enlistment in the Marine Corps Reserve.

Golden Bells

Bells have always played an important role in the course of human events. They have heralded emperors and kings, and have sounded the victories of great leaders. They have tolled a mourning note for the passing of lives, and have pealed joyously to announce weddings and births.

Our own great Liberty Bell is preserved as a memorial of the day when our country became an independent nation. On this celebrated occasion, notes of freedom, equality, and justice were sounded, notes which echo today in the free life of our citizens.

So that we may continue such blessed living and may preserve the country which guards its existence, we must listen to the ringing of other bells.

Throughout this great land of ours church bells are sounding. These are the GOLDEN BELLS of love, mercy, and kindness. Toward them we must hasten to worship and pray. With them we must sing praises to the Lord, our Maker.
