

Local Girl Attends FHA National Meet

Miss Janice Hildebrand, senior student at A&M Consolidated High School has recently returned from the National Training Camp of the Future Homemakers of America at Estes Park, Colo. Miss Hildebrand was one of 420 girls present for a four day meeting. All states west of the Mississippi River were represented.

Theme for the program was "Leadership Training - Today Brings Happier Homes Tomorrow." Janice led a discussion group on "Vice President Help with Program Planning" for three different sessions. She is first vice-president of the Texas Association and chairman of the program of work committee. She was also placed on a national committee during her stay at Estes Park.

Texas sent 37 delegates to the convention. The twelve state officers, the 12 area presidents and a number of other girls made the trip. Texas' delegation was the largest from any state.

The group left Austin by chartered bus on June 15. They picked up another group of delegates in Waco and another group in Ft. Worth. They spent the first night in Amarillo where they picked up the rest of the Texas delegation. They drove on to Denver Saturday night and went to Estes Park on Sunday afternoon.

Army Orders PIOs to Ban Use of 'GI'

Washington, June 29 — (AP)—The Army has ordered its public information officers to stop using "the slang expression, GI."

A soldier, said the Army, is a soldier. It so ruled in liaison bulletin 242 of the Army Public Information Division, issued June 15 and sent to Army information officers around the world.

The bulletin backs up its definition of a soldier with Webster's dictionary and a few choice quotes from Lt. Gen. Leslie J. McNair, Army ground force commander killed in France in 1944.

"The term soldier," said the bulletin, "is ancient and honorable. Webster's dictionary defines a soldier as a skilled warrior."

"And, it went on, 'never before in history has a soldier so richly deserved this definition . . .'"

The bulletin quoted a wartime statement by Gen. McNair listing the many specialized requirements of a soldier and added:

"World War Two developed the trick name 'GI'—standing the army term 'government issue' and used as a slang reference to men of the Army. "The nickname caught on—'GI' became a household word and the younger generation has forgotten (if it ever knew) the word, soldier. "In speeches and in writings, all references to a man of the Army should identify him principally as a soldier."

Could THIS happen in our community?

TWO LITTLE GUINEA-PIGS

PARENTS OF TWINS PLAN RELIGIOUS EXPERIMENT

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. announced yesterday their intention of conducting a novel experiment with their recently-born twins.

They plan to give one child every possible advantage of religious training in one of the local churches. They will deprive the other child of all religious training, keeping him away from Christian example and influence as far as possible.

The parents said they are interested in observing the differences in character, behaviour, and outlook which the experiment should reveal as the twins reach maturity.

Actually it didn't happen!
But if it were to happen in our community, we'd lose no time in doing something about it!
Children are SOULS, not guinea pigs. To deprive a little child of the right to religious training is a crime unthinkable.
And yet, right here in our own community there are many parents who BY SHEER NEGLIGENCE are depriving their children of the opportunities our churches offer.
Can't we, in a Christian and neighborly way, DO SOMETHING ABOUT THAT?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to Church regularly and read your Bible daily.
