

St. Louis Cards Slate Houston Tryout Camp

"Are there any potential major league ball players here?" is the question that veteran Red Bird scouts George Silvey, Fred Hawn and Runt Marr, working with manager Al Hollingsworth, will be asking themselves when the St. Louis Cardinals conduct their tryout camp at Buff Stadium in Houston on July 18, 19 and 20.

which is one of many such camps conducted throughout the country by the Cardinals, the scouts will be looking for the natural ability which can be developed into the smooth perfection which is required in the majors.

They will watch each aspirant go through his paces, noting particularly his fielding, throwing hitting and base-running. Those who are adjudged by the scouts to be future big league material will be signed to one of the 15 teams of the famous Cardinal farm system, of which Houston is an important part.

There they will develop, through the top-notch coaching and invaluable experience of the minors, into seasoned ball players. The best of these will become the major league stars off tomorrow, when they will be more than amply rewarded for their previously expended effort.

The tryouts will begin at 11 a. m. each day for all interested between the ages of 17 and 23. All those who plan to attend are asked to bring their own shoes and gloves and uniforms if possible, as the Cardinals do not furnish this equipment. Any expenses incident to attending the camp will be refunded to all players who are signed to contracts by the Red Bird scouts.

Aggies Vie With College View at 8

Football Tickets Going Fast

By Associated Press
This is the time of the year the postman may bring to your house a letter from the dear old Alma Mater.

The letter wants to know how many tickets you want to the old team's football games this fall.

If your alma mater doesn't happen to be one of the big schools here in Texas, your chances of getting tickets to the annual football classics are pretty bad.

The Texas-Oklahoma, Texas-Southern Methodist, Texas-Texas A&M games are going to be sell-outs and we'll make you a bet that most of the ducats will be gobbled up by old students, old football players and old athletes at these institutions.

You might add the Rice-Texas, Baylor-A&M and Baylor-Texas games as ones that may draw full houses. But you'll probably be able to get tickets to these until game time.

Most of the early sell-outs are based on past performances, sort of like a baseball player's salary. He really gets paid this year for what he did last year.

Southwest Conference football is going to be a dilly this fall, with Baylor, A&M, Texas and Southern Methodist due to have top teams and Rice, Arkansas and Texas Christian capable dark horse entries.

Baylor, for the first time in more than a decade, is going to be on the spot, although Coach George Sauer and Publicity man Dub King are wailing mightily that this shouldn't be.

A&M has its best personnel since the hey-day of Jarrin' John Kimbrough and, oddly enough, it has a fullback that is almost a carbon copy of Big John in Bob Smith.

The Aggies have a new coach this season, to make it more interesting.

Texas has a new mentor, too, but Ed Price is a familiar figure to Longhorn followers, though his split T formation will be different. Southern Methodist doesn't have Kyle Rote, but it still has Fred Benner to pass and a host of other fine backs.

Baylor, of course, has Larry Isbell, probably the finest T quarterback in the country. He'll have plenty of help, too.

Rice, Texas Christian and Arkansas could be double trouble for any team on any Saturday.

Over 100 Expected At Week-end Meet

Amateur athletes from Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth, Robstown and College Station have entered the Open Swimming Championships to be held on the A&M campus Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Forty Junior, intermediate and senior swimmers are entered in the meet and Aggie swimming coach Art Adamson expects 100 more to return entry blank by the deadline today. This is the third annual championship sponsored by the College Station Recreational Council.

Preliminaries will be held daily at 1:30 p. m. and finals will start at 7:30. Junior events will be held Friday, intermediate events Saturday and senior events Sunday.

July 4 Tradition Says White Sox, Dodgers Will Win Flags

By Associated Press
If Brooklyn and the Chicago White Sox fail to win the pennant, chalk one up against tradition.

Baseball history discloses the team in first place after games of Fourth of July walks off with the flag about two thirds of the time.

Both leagues show the same figures. Since the turn of the century, the Independence Day leaders in the National and American Leagues won in 33 of the 50 campaigns.

The White Sox joined the Dodgers as July 4 leaders yesterday by splitting a double header in Detroit while Washington's Senators stunned the Yankees with a sweep of their twin bill in New York.

White Sox Split

Chicago won the second game, 5-1, after losing a 6-3 opener to west first place in the American from the Yankees by a half game. New York dropped 9-6 and 6-5 decisions.

Brooklyn increased its first place margin in the National to six and a half games over New York, trouncing the Giants twice, 6-5 in 11 innings and 4-2.

Boston's third place Red Sox climbed to within two and a half games of the American League lead, winning two in Philadelphia, 9-0 and 9-5. Cleveland helped tighten the race even more by sweeping a pair in St. Louis, 6-5 and 4-3 in a 15-inning marathon.

The St. Louis Cardinals whipped the Cubs in Chicago, 10-5. The second game of the scheduled double header was rained out. Philadelphia moved into fourth place past Cincinnati by rapping the Braves in Boston twice, 4-1 and 3-1.

Pittsburgh moved to within three games of seventh place with a pair of wins against Cincinnati, 4-1 and 16-4.

It took some fine bounce back baseball for the Dodgers to win yesterday's opener. They trailed 4-0 going into the eighth. Homers by Roy Campanella and Pee Wee Reese made it 4-3. Gil Hodges' single tied it 4-4 in the ninth and chased starter Sal Maglie.

Thomson Slams One

Bobby Thomson slammed his fourth homer in as many games in the top of the 11th off preacher Roe to give the Giants a 5-4 lead. But a double by Duke Snider and Jackie Robinson's single tied the score in the Dodgers' half. An error and Roe's squeeze bunt enabled

Sharpe, Price Cop Blind Bogey Prizes

J. H. Sharpe was winner of the first flight in yesterday's Fourth of July Blind Bogey tournament with a low gross of $2.

Tied for low net with 67's were O. D. Butler and John Jones, Jr. Butler had an 87-20-67 while Jones had a 91-24-67 to garner the runner-up positions.

Cotton Price walked off with the low gross for the second flight hanging up a score of 92. Jimmie Slaughter took low net honors by posting a 101-36-65 while Marion Fugh's 18 hole total was 93 with a 26 handicap for a 67 to cop runner-up, low net post.

Prizes for each winner were merchandise.

There was quite a large play during the day, Joe Fagan, program manager said yesterday evening. He said there was a new record set for all play on the course when 104 persons signed the register at the pro shop.

Robinson to cross the plate with the winning run. Carl Erskine's two-run single gave the Dodgers a sweep.

Veteran Joe Dobson pitched the White Sox into first place with a nine-hit victory over the Tigers. He needed help, however, from Marv Rotblatt. Al Zarilla's two-run homer featured a four-run first inning blast against Dizzy Trout. Detroit's Hal Newhouser, aided by Enot Evers' three-run homer, out-pitched Randy Gumpert in the opener.

Gil Coan hammered two three-run homers off Vic Raschi and Joe Ostrowski to lead the Senators to their first game win. Superb relief pitching by Mickey Harris enabled the Nats to make the sweep. Harris scored the winning run himself, doubling in the sixth and crossing the plate on Coan's single.

McDermott Shines

Maurice McDermott hurled a four-hitter as the Red Sox collected 14 off three Philadelphia hurlers to shut out the A's in the opener. The Sox made it nine in a row over Philadelphia, kayoing Carl Scheib with a six-run sixth inning in the nightcap.

Bob Avila drove in the winning run in each Cleveland victory over the Browns. His eighth inning single drove in two mates in the first game and his single in the 15th gave relief pitcher Mike Garcia his ninth win.

Ralph Kiner blasted homers No. 18 and 19—one with the bases loaded and the other with two on—to spark the Pirates to their double win.

Six-hit pitching by aces Robin Roberts and Bubba Church gave the Phils their double win over the Braves. Home runs by Hal Rice, Wally Westlake and Billy Johnson accounted for half of the Cardinals' runs in their 10-5 victory over the Cubs.
