

Baker, Barber Dropped Early At McKinney

"The fastest field in the history of the tournament," Miller Barber called it yesterday afternoon when contacted to find out how he fared in the McKinney Invitational tournament over the weekend.

Barber and Billy Baker, members of the varsity golf team, were entered in the tournament and both men were eliminated in early rounds.

Baker was dropped in the opening round by Leonard White of Dallas, one up on 18 holes. He was shooting even par golf he said.

Barber, who qualified with a 70, two under par for the short McKinney Country Club course, eked out a one-up victory on the 21st hole in a first round match against Don Anderson of North Texas. Anderson was already up for a shoe-in birdie four on the par five hole when Barber sank a 30-35 foot chip shot from the edge of the green for an eagle three to take the hole and the extended match.

Barber then took on White, Baker's conqueror, and shot two-under par golf only to lose out four and three. The match was called because of darkness Saturday evening and continued Sunday morning with White holding a three hole lead for the thirteen holes played.

In an all-North Texas final, Don January and L. M. Crannell, Jr. closed yesterday with Crannell winning, one-up.

Roberto de Vicenzo, 28-year-old golf pro from Argentina, began playing the game when he was 14.

Joe Bennett, left, gets ready to stroke a putt that meant a par on the long number nine hole at the A&M Golf Course. Holding the flag for him is Billy Baker, a member of the varsity golf team and holder of the student course record of 68. Miller Barber, a regular entrant in the top tournaments of the state and John Storie, right, watch Bennett line it up. All except Baker were playing qualifying rounds for the intramural golf matches which got underway last week. Bennett fired a 75, Barber a 77 and Storie 79.

Dorm 16 Snows Walton 18-5

Dorm 16 snowed the Walton Wildcats yesterday afternoon in a civilian softball game 18-5.

Lead-off man for 16, Bill Groff, got the show underway by blasting out a homer. Dick Lenzen and W. A. McReynolds both scored in the first for Dorm 16 to give them a three run lead.

The Wildcats couldn't get going in the first as they placed only one man on base in the inning. Blackwell was given a free, all expense paid ticket to the first marker with a walk.

Four more runs were chalked up by the 16 men in the second as Groff, Lenzen, Armstrong and Pruett crossed the plate. Walton managed to push two of their runs across in the second. Willbanks and Sam Scamardo were forced across the plate when Pruett, Dorm 16 pitcher, walked two in a row with the bases loaded.

Groff, Lenzen, McReynolds and Pruett scored four more runs in the third to stretch Dorm 16's lead. Walton made their last three runs in their portion of the third with just one man earning his base. Tony Scamardo, Quoyser and Sam Scamardo all crossed the plate for the Wildcats.

Dorm 16 went wild in the fourth as they garnered seven runs after blasting out a homer and six singles.

Winning pitcher was Pruett while the loss was credited to Franks.

Bizzell Bears retained their share of first place by dumping Dorm 15 11-6.

The Bears started like a house afire as they rapped out a triple and four singles in the first to pick up their first seven runs. Every man on the team got on base with the exception of two.

Dorm 15 managed to drag three runs through the dust around home in their portion of the first. Moten, Miller and Milligan all made the glory trip.

Neil Baxter and George Gerretson made the circuit in the third for the Bears to pick up two more runs. Baxter made it to first after getting a free ride while Gerretson earned his trip by blasting out a double.

Cody Milligan was Dorm 15 hero in the fourth as he hit a triple with two men on base. Milligan came on in to score when the ball was bobbled on first.

Dave Sheffield and Dick Edgar made the final runs for Bizzell. Sheffield got a triple and Edgar got on with a single.

D Co. out gunned C Co. yesterday in a freshman volleyball game. First game went to C Co. 15-9 but the last two games went D Co.'s way 15-7 and 15-13.

'Glamour Boy' Smith Hits Covers Again

"Glamour Boy" Bob Smith has done it again. By again is meant, made the cover of another national football magazine.

This time it's Stanley Woodward's Football-1951—a magazine devoted to pre-season predictions, advance All-America teams, winners of major games for the coming football season and action pictures of games.

Guess who gets the biggest splash in the magazine? Why, Smith of course.

Devotes Six Pages

The first six pages of the magazine are devoted to Smith and action scenes on the A&M campus as well as shots of the bonfire, yell practice, a shot in the MSC, skull practice, still and running shots and a full-page picture of the man who is destined to become one of the Southwest's greatest running backs of all times.

All the pictures and statistics of "Lone Ranger" Smith were furnished by the College Information Office.

Woodward, regarded by sports writers and laymen as well, as one of the top men in his field, spares no superlatives on Smith.

The running commentary that goes with the pictures lists Smith's accomplishments over the past two seasons, delves into his private life, his sleeping habits, his thoughts before a crucial game, what he thinks of when he gets the ball from the quarterback and many other interesting facts the football fan will be interested in.

Makes Others

Nor is this the only magazine in which long words of praise are to be printed. Sport magazine, Sport Life magazine, Southern Coach and Athlete, Colliers and undoubtedly, many others will use picture and words to tell the populace of the United States what a great football star "Bruisin' Bob" really is.

The San Antonio Express plans to use Smith on the cover of their Sunday supplement section, possibly the week before the game with Trinity, October 13.

Francis Wallace, who writes all the sports for Colliers, has intimated he will announce Smith as his pre-season All-America fullback, probably in an early edition of that weekly national magazine.
