

Bombers Think Late-Comer Will Save Pennant Hopes

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Yankees won the 1949-50 pennant with late season acquisitions from the National League. Today the Bombers are banking on another Johnny-come-lately from the senior circuit to insure success in their current drive for the American League flag.

Johnny Sain, veteran righthander, is the latest Yankee importation from the National League. The Yanks acquired Sain from the Boston Braves Wednesday and celebrated the purchase by trouncing the Browns, 15-2 under the lights in St. Louis. The win gave them a first place tie with Cleveland, which dropped a 3-0 decision to Philadelphia in the afternoon.

Yanks Add Two

Sain, picked up for $50,000 and minor league pitcher Lew Burdette, will join the Yanks in Washington Saturday. The 32-year-old vet is tabbed for relief duty. He won only five and lost 13 for the Braves this season. Sain, a 20-game winner three times, was waived out of the National League. To make room for Sain the Yankees released Jack Kramer, another veteran righthander.

The Yanks dipped into the National League in August of 1949 and bought Johnny Mize from the New York Giants. Mize's big bat helped win the pennant and also the World Series. Last year the Yanks procured Johnny Hopp from Pittsburgh in September and Hopp's pinch-hitting and pinch-running figured prominently in the Yanks' successful defense of their laurels.

Browns Stopped

Allie Reynolds stopped the Browns on two hits as the Yanks closed out their final tour of the West with a 7-4 record. The Yanks, idle for the next two days, clubbed Brownie ace Ned Garver and two relief pitchers for 17 hits.

Turkey Day Game Foiled

A&M and Texas University won't play their traditional Turkey Day football game on Thanksgiving Day this season. The game, scheduled for November 29, misses Thanksgiving Day by a week. Governor Shivers has designated only one day for Thanksgiving this year, and that day precedes the Aggie-TU game by a week.

But the game gets another chance next year. A new law passed by the Legislature sets Thanksgiving for the last Thursday in November for all future years. It becomes effective in 1952.

teamed up to beat the Indians. Bernal sent two runs home with his 29th homer and doubled and scored the third Philadelphia run.

Sox Beat Tigers

In other American League games the Detroit Red Sox turned back the Detroit Tigers, 7-5, and the Washington Senators nosed out the Chicago White Sox, 2-1 in 13 innings.

The Red Sox beat the Tigers with two runs in the ninth on a single by Johnny Pesky, walk and singles by Walt Dropo and Clyde Vollmer. Ted Williams poled his 27th homer for the Sox in the fourth and starred afield.

Singles by Mickey Vernon and Sam Mele followed by Nelson Fox' error allowed Vernon to score Washington's winning run against Chicago. Reliever Mickey Harris was the winner and Randy Gumpert the loser.

In the National League, the pace-setting Brooklyn Dodgers humbled the Cincinnati Reds, 13-1; the runner-up New York Giants downed Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-1; the St. Louis Cardinals nipped the Philadelphia Phils, 3-2, and the Boston Braves defeated the Chicago Cubs, 4-1.

Jim Hearn stopped the last place Pirates on three hits in winning a duel from Murry Dickson, seeking his 18th victory.

The Cards scored a run in the ninth without a hit to edge the Phils.

Pointers Enthusiastic As Fall Practice Starts

West Point, N. Y., Aug. 30—(AP)—Army's small and inexperienced football squad started practice Wednesday full of enthusiasm and coach Earl (Red) Blaik conceded that "the entire season will be one of surprises and we could even surprise ourselves."

Fifty men turned out in contrast to last year's 90. The wholesale cribbing dismissals, academic failures and graduation have wiped out the Army powerhouse of yesterday.

As the cadets started their workout word came that a New York Bar Association hearing was informed by Robert Daru, general counsel of the bar's committee on justice, that six cadets accused of cheating had been restored to duty.

No officials here would comment and there was no indication whether er football stars were included in the six.

Experienced men were few and far between in the squad that worked out on the plains of West Point. From last year's varsity blank has John Krobok of Hazelton, Pa., and Ed Weaver of Kingston, N. Y., both ends. From the 1950 junior varsity he has Donald Fuqua, Little Rock, Ark., and Carl Guess of Temple, Tex., both backs.

Despite the thinness of his squad, Blaik went right ahead with plans to use the two platoon system. He admitted, however, that he may substitute as low as seven men at a time instead of the full 11.

"Even with reduced personnel, the opportunities to do well will be based on the platoon system," Blaik declared.

In the squad of 50 reported to Coach Blaik were seven plebes, but Blaik is not counting on them. To a great extent, Army's backfield will be made up of last year's plebes—admittedly only a so-so team.

Tennis Stars Play Poor Ball In Match

Forest Hills, N. Y., Aug. 30—(AP)—Billy Talbert couldn't hit a tennis ball through a hangar door and Earl Cochell couldn't keep his temper, and between the two they made a mess of the fifth day of the national tennis championships.

Talbert, the 32-year-old New York City star, went down by one-sided scores of 6-1, 6-1, 7-5 to the vast disappointment of 6,000 fans in the west side stadium.

Cochell became so occupied with a Vendetta against the crowd that he forgot about playing tennis and went down to Gardner Mulloy of Miami, 4-6, 6-2, 6-1, 6-2.

UCLA Grid Story Says

Graduation Hits Hard At Defensive Eleven

(This is the third of a series of six stories evaluating 1951 UCLA football prospects, position-by-position.)

Offensively the 1951 UCLA football team wasn't hurt too much at graduation but Coach Red Sanders' eleven was mighty hard hit defensively. The Bruins have one standout center but lack experienced reserve strength.

That's how Jim Myers, UCLA line boss, sums up the middle-of-the-line situation at Bruinville for 1951.

The loss of Bruce MacLachlan, one of the PCC's top all-around guards last year, is a big blow. Two other strong defensive guards now departed are Francis Mandula and Jim (Buck) Buchanan. Only defensive guard remaining with any experience is Chuck Fraychinead, 206, of North Hollywood, Calif.

Fraychinead Biggest

Fraychinead is the biggest guard on the squad but lacks speed. A little more fire and aggressiveness and he could be the best on the team. He's also been assigned offensive tackle duties this season.

Two comparatively small defensive guards who showed to advantage in spring drills were Dan Laidman, 160, of Burbank, Calif., and Bill Smith, 176, of Madera, Calif. Laidman, up from junior varsity ranks, is the toughest, most aggressive player on the squad but the question is how long can he stand up against 220-lb. giants who will be opposing him.

Smith is also handicapped by size but appears to have lots of natural instincts that go to make up a good lineman. Other defensive guards who will see action include George Krober, 196, of Los Angeles; Bob Fischer, 195, of North Hollywood, Calif.; Alan Raffee, 193, of Beverly Hills, Calif.; and Jim Salisbury, 190, of Los Angeles.

Krober Strong

Krober, up from JV ranks, is strong but lacks experience. Fischer, another junior varsity graduate, reacts good and if speed improves could help. Raffee, hampered by injuries last year, played 24 minutes in 1950. Salisbury, powerful frosh candidate, is probably a year away.

Offensively, the Bruins have three fast, hard-blocking veterans returning, in Ed Flynn, 186, of San Francisco; Ray Lewand, 181, of Gardena, Calif.; and Bob Zelinka, 182, of Los Angeles. The danger of losing both Lewand and Zelinka to the military draft has the Bruins worried.

Flynn was a standout performer on offense last year but was slightly disappointing this spring. Coach Myers is toying with the idea of using Flynn on defense, too, this season. Both Lewand and Zelinka have lots of punch and speed and the Bruins will be critically hit if they are drafted.

Most improved guard to come out of spring practice—Rudy Feldman, 188, of Palo Alto, Calif.—figures to help with offensive chores. Although not too fast, Feldman, 1949 frosh star who gained JV experience last year, is an explosive player who could put in a strong bid for starting honors.

Smith; Tony Dickinson, 183, of Seattle, Wash.; and Terry Debay, 178, of Canoga Park, Calif., are other eager but inexperienced offensive guards.

Pace At Center

Holding down the offensive center job is veteran Gayle Pace, 189, of Santa Anna, Calif., a vastly underrated player. Coach Myers rates Pace as the hardest working lineman on the team and looks for him to have a banner senior year.

The Bruins lost their only experienced reserve at center when George Morgan, 190, of Alhambra, Calif., announced he would be unable to play this year because of a mysterious knee ailment. Spelling Pace will be Ira Pauly, 188, of Los Angeles and John Peterson, 186, of Los Angeles. Both are green.

Also capable of stepping in for offensive center duties is All-American Don Moomaw, 220, of Santa Anna, Calif. Moomaw gained experience at this post last year and although he'll primarily handle linebacking chores again he also is set for offensive work at both tackle and center. The presence of Moomaw adds needed depth to the center situation.

Our Daily Bread THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily. Book Chapter Verses Sunday... Matthew 6 5-11 Monday... Proverbs 18 21-24 Tuesday... Romans 8 31-39 Wednesday... Luke 4 1-8 Thursday...
