Consolidated Opens Season Friday Nite with Home Game

By FRANK DAVIS

The whistle which opens the 1951 football season for A&M Consolidated High School will be blown Friday night at 8 when the Con-

Yankees Pass Lead to Indians; Giants Fighting

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Al Rosen and Luke Easter, Cleveland's classy one-two punch, are using their big bats to deflate the theory that the Indians are a "not hit, good pitch" club.

The Indians wrested the lead from the New York Yankees, who dropped a 4-2 decision to the visiting Boston Red Sox. The triumph moved the third place Sox to within three games of the defending champions and left them four behind Cleveland. Boston trails the Tribe by only one in the important "lost" column.

Giants Hustle

New York's Giants refuse to give up their fight to overhaul the National League leading Brooklyn Dodgers. A sweep of a doubleheader from Boston, 3-2 and 9-1, enabled them to cut Brooklyn's lead to five and a half games. The Dodgers whipped the Philadelphia Phils, 5-2.

Philadelphia's Athletics took two from Washington, 4-1 and 9-7; Cincinnati defeated Pittsburgh, 6-3, and the St. Louis Cardinals and Chicago Cubs split. The Cubs won the opener, 3-2, in 11 innings and the Cards grabbed the nightcap, 6-5.

Rosen, Easter Homer

The homers by Rosen and Easter were all Cleveland's Early Wynn needed to register his 17th triumph against 12 losses. The right-hander surrendered only four hits. Dick Kryhoski batted in both Detroit runs with a homer and single.

Brilliant pitching by Leo Kiely and Maurice McDermott, a pair of young southpaws, helped Boston to its 10th victory in 15 meetings with the Yankees.

Kiely Does Well

Kiely, called up from Louisville last July, hurled seven runless innings before weakening. A brilliant rescue job by McDermott helped the 21-year-old from Hoboken, N.J., to his fifth victory in eight decisions.

Billy Goodman's two-run double in the first inning, Ted Williams' 28th homer in the third and Bobby Doerr's single in the fifth, accounted for the Red Sox runs. All came with two out. Vic Raschi lost his ninth decision against 17 victories. Williams now has homered in every park, joining Eddie Robinson of Chicago as the only American Leaguers to accomplish the feat this season.

A grand slam homer by Gil Hodges, the sixth of his career, gave the Dodgers and Ralph Branca their victory. It was Hodges' 37th circuit clout and Branca's 13th triumph.

solidated eleven meet Kosse in a non-conference game at Tiger Field. This game should forecast things to come for the "Tigers" who last year were third in district play with two wins and two losses.

Beginning his third year as head coach at Consolidated, O. V. Chafin was optimistic about this year's light, fast team. He predicted that the team would win more games this year than last year, unless something unforeseen happened.

The Tigers will be using the T formation Friday night with Fred Anderson, 120 pound sophomore in the man-under slot. No injuries will hinder the Consolidated aggregation. They worked out under the lights during the first part of the week, but will relax with a light workout today in anticipation of the coming tilt.

Starting Lineup

In the starting lineup for Friday night, the end positions will be filled by two sophomores—Jimmy Richards, 130 pounds, and David Bonnen, 135 pounds. Don Williams, 155 pound sophomore will hold down left tackle in Friday night's game and will act as team captain for the game. Playing at the right tackle position will be Thomas Wade, senior with weight set at 130.

The two guard posts will be filled by Don Royder, 125 pounds, senior student, and Jimmy Bond, 140 pound sophomore. Pinky Cooner, weighing 150 pounds will start at center. Rounding out the backfield will be three seniors—Jerry Leighton, 149 pounds at right half, Gayle Klipple, 135 pounds at fullback, and George Johnston, 135 pounds at left half.

Arnold to Play

Heading the group of players expected to see action Friday night are William Arnold, back; Bobby Jackson, Pete Hickman, and George Sosaress, ends; Melvin Free, tackle; Tommy Terrell, guard; and Robert Cleland, back. All are sophomores.

Other players on the Consolidated team include Bob Barlow, Don Burchard, David Carroll, and Homer Franks, tackles; John Manthei, guard; and Bobby Smith, center.

Coaching staff for the football team includes, besides Chafin, Horace Schaeffer and Edsel Jones, line coaches, and Jim Bevans, junior high school coach.

Officials for Friday night's game are Marion Pugh, Luke Harrison, and Emil Mamaliga.

The 1951 football schedule for the A&M Consolidated Tigers is as follows: Sept. 14, Madisonville, there; Sept. 21, Cypress Fairbanks, there; Sept. 28, open date; Oct. 5, Milano, home game; Oct. 11, Magnolia, there; Oct. 19, Waller, home game; Oct. 26, Hempstead, in Hempstead; Nov. 2, Somerville, home game; Nov. 9, Navasota, there; and Nov. 16, Lexington, home game.

Aggie Aerial Attack Shaping Up

Attainment of Coach Ray George's No. 1 objective of developing an acceptable passing attack for the Aggies loomed as a definite possibility near the conclusion of the first week of two-a-day workouts.

Team conditioning has become of secondary importance now that most of the players have rounded into their weights of last season, and George and his staff are putting increased stress on throwing and catching the football, and blocking for the passer. If A&M develops this passing game to equal the running game of last year, most of George's worries will be over.

The coaching staff has placed training on a general theme of team improvement rather than one of competition for the "starting" berths.

The four quarterbacks, for example, are getting identical schooling in ball handling, passing and signal calling in an effort to raise the overall level of efficiency.

Quarterbacks Dick Gardemal, Ray Graves, Delmer Sikes and Roy

Dollar have actually progressed faster than their receivers in the passing-attack plan. The chunkers have been laying the ball in the receivers' arms, but the ends have had some difficulty in holding the aerials. Graves, a junior squadman, has developed rapidly in passing during this past week.

Bob Smith, the Aggies' fullback candidate for All American, returned to college this fall in good condition for the first time in his college career. Wearing a plastic mask this year instead of the leather-covered face piece, Smith has mixed in blocking and tackling practice with the enthusiasm and abandon of a sophomore. The big fullback and his two running mates—Billy Tidwell and Glenn Lippman—already show much of the polish and hustle which caused the Aggies to lead the conference in scoring and rushing last season.

Coach Gil Steinke has been impressed by the smallest player in the Aggies backfield—sophomore fullback Johnny Salyer of Austin. Salyer, who quarterbacked the freshman team last year, has been as hard to stop as a young Brahman. Two other sophomores—halfbacks Pete Mayeaux of New Orleans and Bill Ballard of Wylie—are developing defensively for this fall.

A transfer from Tulane and a member of the Aggie B team last year, W. G. Blair has moved ahead rapidly at the tackle spot. His ability and desire have pleased line coach Paul McMurtry. Letterman tackles Sam Moses and Jack Little and guards W. T. Rush, Marshall Rush and Elio Nohavizza are getting back into seasonal stride.

Coach Hank Foldberg pressed his ends all week in an effort to develop the receiving end of the passing attack. Ends Walter Hill, Clinton Gwin, Darrow Hooper and Eric Miller turned in good defensive performances during scrimmages, but Foldberg has found all the candidates weak on blocking and pass receiving.

Injuries hit Aggies during workouts. Injuries cropped up among the Texas Aggies as the squad went through a long work-out yesterday. Charlie Hodge, starting end, pulled a muscle and guard Robert George suffered a head injury.

Meanwhile, Yale Lary, the team's top punter, watched from the sidelines with a pulled muscle. He hasn't worked out all week and neither has linebacker Van Hetherly, who also is hurt.

The Voice of God

Did you ever pause to listen to the voice of God? We hear it every day, wherever we may be.

In the whispering of tall trees...the music of rushing brooks...the songs of the birds...the gay laughter of happy children...we hear the voice of the Great Creator. Through his infinite grace a bird is enabled to serenade his mate, a tiny cricket chirps its faint refrain. God is the Bringer of all blessings to man and beast alike.

Let us give thanks to Him who has so enriched our lives. Open church doors beckon all over our land. Let us seek the House of the Lord, and enter in to pay Him homage. Here through prayer and humility, let us re-dedicate ourselves to His service and glorification.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
