Student's Wives Urged To Attend Yell Practice

By PAT MORLEY
Battalion Women's Editor

Girls, girls! Where's your spirit? At the All-College Night yell practice Monday night, the feminine members of this fair campus were conspicuous by their absence!

Office staff, which already included Mrs. Luke (Polly) Patranella and Mrs. Calvin (Lillie Mae) Janak. Polly is the pleasant receptionist, and red-haired Lillie Mae is Activities bookkeeper.

Newly-wed Marilyn Jaccard is the new concessions bookkeeper. Formerly Marilyn Reiney, a University of Houston student, this attractive new "Aggie" married senior architecture major Mermod C. Jaccard in the First Methodist Church of Houston August 18.

The other bride at Student Activities is stenographer Nancy Fox, who married senior education major Gus M. Fox August 3, in Dallas. Nancy is all smiles about Aggie land, and was happy to exchange the Adolphus Hotel for 31-Z Vet Village for an extended honeymoon.

Another new employee, Mrs. Johnny Prihoda, is the new Publications bookkeeper for Student Activities. She is a bride of four years standing, and her husband, a civilian in the Coast Guard service, is now at sea, expected home in about two months.

Doris Blissard will be hostess for the first meeting of the new semester of the Veterans Wives Bridge Club at 7:30 Thursday evening. Mrs. Blissard invites any veteran's wife who is interested in bridge to attend the meeting. Beginners will receive instructions on how to play the game from Mrs. E. L. Angell, who is the new club sponsor. The club will meet in the MSC, second floor.

Sylvia Rankin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harry V. Rankin, will represent the Bryan Chamber of Commerce as queen on East Texas Day October 16 at the State Fair of Texas. Rest assured that this area is beautifully represented!

Cute brunette Dorothy Spriggs, graduate of CHS, is attending TSCW in Denton. Dorothy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Spriggs, of College Station.

The Houston YWCA is the new home of Barbara Belcher, and friends wishing to write Barbara can send letters to that address. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Belcher, Barbara is attending Burrough's School for Business Machine Operators in Houston.

The Dallas A&M Mothers Club, an enthusiastic group of Aggie mothers who hail from Big "D," have elected officers for the new school year. They are Mesdames H. E. Montgomery, president; L. V. Mossengale, H. C. Haynes, Jasper Barry, G. A. Gamble, A. E. Souther, and Paul Taylor, vice-presidents; Clay Scott, treasurer; J. Weatherford, recording secretary; J. C. Behne, historian; and J. Gema, parliamentarian. Other active members are Mrs. J. C. Farrell, Mrs. Harry Shannon, and Mrs. Jean Echols, who presented the entertainment for the first meeting of the club September 7.

This club of women interested in Aggies surely know the school songs, and, likely, the yells. Surely, the wives, as well as the mothers, of students can be enthusiastic boosters. Don't forget—we'll see you at yell practice!

Homemaking Teacher

Mrs. William Byrd

After Extensive Travel Mrs. Byrd Settles In CS

"A&M was all I heard after marrying my husband," Mrs. William Byrd, homemaking teacher for the A&M Consolidated Schools, said. Byrd, an Aggie-ex, is with the Basic Division as dorm counselor for Dormitory 17.

Theater of Operations, and served in England, Belgium, Yugoslavia, Germany, and Switzerland.

While Capt. Byrd was stationed in the states, Mrs. Byrd traveled from post to post with him and their daughter Patsy, who is now eleven. They lived in Maryland, Washington, D. C., and Columbia, S. C. where "Chic", their son, was born 8 years ago.

When Capt. Byrd was discharged from the Army, they moved to Nacogdoches, where Byrd was field manager for Carnation Company.

Later the Byrds bought a dairy at Shady Grove, then Byrd taught Agriculture in the Veteran's program in Nacogdoches.

It was when her husband assumed the same position in Dayton that Mrs. Byrd decided that keeping house and raising two children wasn't enough to keep her busy, and took a degree from North Texas State College.

While attending college, Mrs. Byrd belonged to the Homemaking Society, Phi Upsilon Omicron, professional club; Ellen H. Richards Club, House and Family Club, Alpha Chi, and the Education Honor Society.

Mrs. Byrd, as homemaking teacher, will be in charge of making up the menu for the cafeteria at Consolidated which is scheduled to open Jan. 1. She will be assisted by the elementary teachers, and will receive suggestions from all the teachers.

Another activity of the new teacher is sponsor for the FHA Club.

Uniform Date Still Not Decided

No definite date has yet been set for the Cadet Corps to be officially in uniform, Lt. Col. Marion P. Bowden, assistant commandant, said Tuesday afternoon.

So far, all uniforms have not been issued cadets and others who have received clothing need alterations and exchanges made before the entire corps can be in uniform. Issuing of uniforms and exchanges should be completed sometime next week, Col. Bowden said.

Aggie Team Lacks Depth Ray George Tells Kiwanis

"This is an age of specialization in football," Ray George, head football coach at A&M, told members and guests of the Kiwanis Club at their regular weekly luncheon in the MSC yesterday.

"In my time, a player had to be able to play offensive as well as defensive ball," the coach illustrated. However, the change has made football a better and faster game, he added.

Concerning the Aggies' 1951 chances, the coach remained mum, if not pessimistic. The team is lacking in depth in the line, George said.

Meyer Only Center "Hugh Meyer is the only experienced offensive center we have," he said, "and should he get hurt, the team would be in trouble."

Jim Fowler is the best relief prospect Meyer has, George said. But he played no offense last year. The only other center is Cooper Robins, not an offensive center.

Concerning the game Friday night with UCLA, George said the team and coaching staff were in high spirits and ready to go. Approximately 43 boys will make the trip to Los Angeles, of which about 28 are expected to see action.

The team will not be handicapped with injuries in Friday's game, the coach said. Although Smith received a minor elbow injury earlier in the week, he will play Friday night.

In addition to the address by George, Humble Oil and Refining Company's film "Football Highlights of 1950" was shown. Ralph Rogers was master of ceremonies.

At a board of director's meeting following the lunch, Michael V. Krenintsky, assistant librarian at A&M was invited into the club. Guests at the luncheon included Dr. I. M. Atkins of Denton, R. E.

Jones of Austin, Charles Orr, ham, Frank McFarland, Bob Bar-Krenintsky, H. C. "Dutch" Dillinglow, and George Johnston.

UCLA Wins

Lafayette, Ind. where they sank Purdue 20-6 and Donn Moomaw, the outstanding tackle on the Pacific Coast, won Lineman of the Week laurels for his play against the Boiler-makers.

Battered By California

Returning to the West Coast, the Uclans knocked over Oregon State 20-13 only to be battered 34-0 the following week by the California Golden Bears.

In the final game of the season, UCLA walloped the Trojans of USC, 39-0. This win strengthened their hold on third place in the Pacific Coast Conference and they wound up conference play with five wins and two losses.

The Aggies had a 6-4 record for full season and a 3-3 record for play in the S.W.C.

Friday night's battle should tell the tale as far as Aggie followers are concerned for A&M will be hard to beat if they win this contest or so some of the Aggies players think.
