Weekend Games Show SWC In Four Wins, Two Losses

BASED ON AP REPORTS

The fabulous razzle of the Southwest Conference took up where it left off last year, as four of the six conference teams came through with their expected victories.

A&M flew over UCLA, 21-14; Texas edged Kentucky, 7-6; Arkansas smothered the Oklahoma Aggies, 42-7; and Baylor shut out the University of Houston, 19-0. Both Texas Christian and Southern Methodist were upset.

Kansas rocked the Horned Frogs, 27-13, and Georgia Tech stopped SMU, 21-7. Rice, the other conference team, did not play.

Arkansas Gives Notice

Arkansas gave notice that it was definitely one of the top teams in the conference in racking up 422 yards through the air and on the ground while limiting their offense. Every player of the Arkansas team entered the game.

The massive line of the Porkers stilled the Oklahomans attack. Larry Isbell of Baylor was outshone in the passing department as was SMU's Fred Benners, when Aggie's Ray Graves and Dick Gardemal gave the Southwest fans something to wonder about when the Cadets scored their three touchdowns through the air.

Texas proved that the Kentucky Babe, Vito Parrilli, is human and when rushed can, like any other passer, fail to complete. A new star was born at TCU in the form of Mal Fowler, who outshone the mighty Gil Bartosh.

Bruisin' Bob Smith was just that in California, reverting back to the form of play which made him famous during his sophomore year. He broke off for only one long gain, 19-yards, as the Aggies big weakness—the offensive guard spot—showed up.

Tech 21, SMU 7

Stubby Glenn Turner of Georgia Tech forgot to read the papers and let his Rambler Wrecks to an upset win over the Ponies of SMU, 21-7, in a humid, hot, and wet September afternoon in Atlanta.

Except for the first 10 minutes when SMU looked two touchdowns better than Tech, the Yellow Jackets were faster and far better runners than their opponents from the cow country.

During the first quarter and a half, SMU twice paid dearly for unsure ball handling on kicks and poor protection for kickers.

Quarterback Darrell Crawford made up for his weak throwing arm to the 33,000 drenched fans, by calling a near perfect game—by finding where SMU was porous and punching right there.

Turner blasted six yards to score in the first quarter and kicked three conversions. A fellow Talladega, Johnny Hicks, fastened himself to one of Crawford's meter passes in the second quarter, and covered 43 yards for another touchdown.

Rain In 2nd Quarter

Pain was falling lightly in the second quarter when the Methodists' string bean pitcher, Fred Benners, looped a beautiful pass to End Ben White for the Texan's touchdown.

The final score came on a 29-yard run by Leon Hardeman, one of about 10 first rate Tech sophomores.

Tech's first big break came when Jerry Norton, Methodist punter, fumbled a high snap from center. Lamar Wheat, Tech captain, batted down Norton on SMU's six, and the ball went to Tech on downs and Turner butted through for a touchdown on the next play.

Russell's Punt Hurts

A 10-yard kick by SMU's H. N. Russel, Jr., in the second quarter helped Tech again. Soon after the punt, Crawford passed to Hicks for Tech's second touchdown on a 43-yard play which caught SMU napping.

Kansas 27, TCU 13

A fourth string quarterback on the University of Texas freshman team two years ago, Jerry Robertson of the Kansas Jayhawks proved a passing demon in Fort Worth against the Texas Christian Frogs.

He completed a 36 yard scoring heave to End Jerry Taylor in the second period, hit John Konek for an 11 yard counter in the third, faked a pass and ran the final seven yards for another TD in the same quarter to lead the Kansans to a 27-13 upset win.

Charlie Hoak, who was expected to be Kansas' main threat, added insult to injury by hitting halfback Bob Brandenburg for a 39-yard scoring pass in the final quarter. Konek converted three in a row.

Pass Perfectionists

Dick Gardemal uses the form which enabled him to complete six out of nine passes for 101 yards, one TD and a 67 per cent average, above. To the right is Ray Graves who pitched nine completions out of 17 attempts for 146 yards, two touchdowns, and a 53 per cent average. Both boys efforts were against the UCLA Bruins last Friday night in Los Angeles.

Baylor 19, U of H 0

Larry Isbell and company went to work toward their SWC crown in Houston, defeating the University of Houston, 19-0, before 60,000.

The Bears finally started rolling late in the first half. In six plays, they moved 66 yards, 54 of them on passes by Isbell with Don Carpenter going over from the two after taking in a pass.

Carpenter Repeats

Early in the second half, Carpenter repeated from the two after an intercepted pass by Bob Reid set it up.

The lanky Bouldin, playing his first actual game went 60 yards in four plays for the final Baylor tally midway of the fourth period. C. O. Brocato failed to convert twice, but Jimmy Davenport hit on the third try.

Isbell, touted as an All-American, showing his aerial wizardry, hit eight passes out of 23 for a total of 178 yards.

Arkansas 42, Okie A&M 7

Arkansas gave notice in Stillwater, Okla., that they were definitely in the race for the SWC title, downing the Cowboys, 42-7.

Arkansas substituted freely in the latter stages after taking a 23-7 lead at halftime. The Razorbacks scored in every period with seven players piling up points.

Twenty-five thousand saw the local Missouri Valley conference entry gain considerable yardage in midfield. But Arkansas, of the Southwest Conference, halted all but one A&M drive.

The single A&M touchdown came (See TOUCHDOWN, Page 4)

Bruins Surprised, A&M Takes To Air

UCLA's Joe Sabol, before he was forced to retire because of a leg injury, put together a 14.75 average with 73 yards in five tries. Dailey carried the ball seven times for 90 yards.

The Cadets gained only 124 yards on the ground as to compare with 243 yards gained through the air.

This week the Aggies will be preparing for their battle with West Texas State in a one-sided affair, 46 to 7.

Cypress Beats Tigers, 13-7

By CHUCK NEIGHBORS

BATTALION SPORTS WRITER

A&M Consolidated's Tigers bowled 13-7 to the Cypress-Fairbanks Bobcats in a hotly contested game Friday night on Tiger Field.

The Tigers, holding a 7-6 lead as the teams left the field in the first half, were hard-pressed to hold the Bobcats to their one touchdown in that period.

Big Ed Schroeder of the Bobcats, tore the Tiger line to shreds in the final period, and made the winning TD for Cypress-Fairbanks.

Coach Othel Chafin's boys are, for the most part sophomores, which means that with two years of experience, the Tigers should be hard to beat in '52.

Leighton Scores

Jerry Leighton's 35-yard run in the first quarter gave the Tigers an early lead. George Johnston, Consolidated's kicker, booted the extra point.

In the second quarter, the Tigers forced the Bobcats to punt three times. On a 53-yard Tiger punt, the Bobcats fumbled and the Tigers recovered on the C-F 17.

After a penalty and a fumble the Tigers lost the ball and Adams of Cypress-Fairbanks recovered.

Three plays after the Tiger fumble, Charley Bertani of C-F sprinted 56 yards before being brought down by Consolidated back Willie Arnold.

Ran Over Tigers

Cypress-Fairbanks literally ran roughshod over the Tigers in the second half, and big Ed Schroeder of the Bobcats went through the small Tiger line time and again.

George Johnston did a good job of holding the Tiger secondary defense together, and Tom Wade and Pete Hickman were also effective in holding the Bobcats back.

This Friday, the Tigers have an open date, but a week from Friday they open district play against Milano on Tiger Field.

DO YOU INHALE?

Then you certainly should be smoking PHILIP MORRIS!

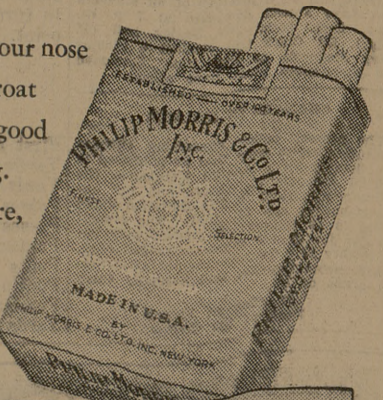

THIS TEST TELLS YOU WHY:

1 Take a PHILIP MORRIS and any other cigarette. Light up either one first. Take a puff—get a good mouthful of smoke—and s-l-o-w-l-y let the smoke come directly through your nose.

2 Now, do exactly the same thing with the other cigarette. Notice that with PHILIP MORRIS you don't get the bite, sting and irritation that you do with your own brand.

PROVE TO YOURSELF PHILIP MORRIS IS DEFINITELY LESS IRRITATING, DEFINITELY MILDER!

REMEMBER: The irritation you feel in your nose is the same irritation that occurs in your throat every time you inhale! Don't let irritation spoil the good taste, the fine flavor, the rich pleasure of smoking.

NO CIGARETTE HANGOVER means MORE SMOKING PLEASURE!
