

A&M Social Club Hears Interest Group Chairmen

By PAT MORLEY
BATTALION WOMAN'S EDITOR

Approximately 250 College Station women were guests at the A&M Social Club tea Friday from 3 until 5 p. m. in the MSC Ballroom.

Club treasurer, Mrs. Walter H. Delaplane was the chairman of the registry committee, which received guests in the second-floor lounge of the MSC. Assisting Mrs. Delaplane were mesdames Fred Ferrar, I. W. Ruppel, Cecil Womble, Robert Darrow, L. G. Adams, Joe Woolket, and Carl Lyman.

Mrs. P. W. Burns, club president, welcomed new members to the organization, which was begun years ago by a few faculty members. The purpose of the club today is the same as when it was organized: to make faculty wives and staff members and wives love A&M, and to furnish outlets for special interests shared by club members.

Officers Introduced

After her welcoming address, Mrs. Burns introduced the rest of the officers: vice-president, Mrs. Fred Weick; secretary, Mrs. Edward F. Sauer; treasurer, Mrs. Walter H. Delaplane; parliamentarian, Mrs. C. W. Simmons; reporter, Mrs. Billy Hensel; and general chairman, Mrs. M. P. Holleman.

Honorary presidents of the Social Club are the wife of the Chancellor of the A&M System, Mrs.

V. W. Bridge Club Has Weekly Meet

The Veterans Wives Bridge Club met in rooms 2C and 2D of the MSC last Thursday. Winners of high score were Laverne Biearri and Norma Cavanaugh.

Five tables of regular players progressed, and twenty beginners were given playing instructions by Mrs. D. W. Williams and Mrs. E. E. McQuillan.

Membership of the club is open to all veterans wives who are interested in meeting each Thursday at 7:30 p. m. to play bridge, or who want to learn the game, according to Jewell Marshall, president. Hereafter, she continued, the club will meet in rooms 2A and 2B, and playing will begin promptly at 7:30.

Coffee and cakes will be served at intermission each week, and Mrs. Marshall cordially invites prospective members to attend next Thursday evening.

Gibb Gilchrist; and the wife of the A&M College president, Mrs. M. T. Harrington.

The feature of the afternoon entertainment was invitations to all club members to participate in one or more of the eight special interest groups sponsored by the club. Mrs. Fred Weick, vice-president, introduced the chairman of each interest group, who in turn reported the activities of the group she represented.

Ballet Group To Meet

Thursday, Oct. 4, at the Country Club was the time and place set by Mrs. Hal Moseley for the first meeting of the Ballet group, to study the theory and practice of ballet. Mrs. Clara Howard will teach this dance group.

Mrs. Margaret LeRoy, chairman of the Foods group, set regular meetings for the third Friday of each month at 3:15 p. m. at the A&M Christian Church on Old Highway 6. This branch of the club will have one entertainment each month, featuring the excellent preparation and serving of a particular type of meal.

The Golf group, which will meet at the A&M Golf Course, is headed by Mrs. A. D. Folweiler. Club members were invited to join the Golf group, and also the Handicraft committee, under the direction of Mrs. Ralford Chalk.

The largest interest group sponsored by the Social Club is the Newcomers' Club, whose president is Mrs. Melvin Rotsch. This organization has the same purpose as the Social Club, but emphasizes the welcoming of all new members of the faculty and staff to A&M.

Activities Reported

Mrs. William McCullie, chairman of the Swimming group, invited those attending the tea to join the rest of the swimmers at the Natatorium. Mrs. E. L. Angel reported the activities of the Neighborhood Bookclub, and introduced the neighborhood chairman of her special interest group.

Mrs. J. D. Lindsey, chairman of the Letters committee, was given a special ovation for directing the committee which sent out over 900 letters to enlarge club membership this fall.

After hearing a report from each committee chairman, guests were served refreshments from two tables, each laid with a white cover and featuring an artistic arrangement of cockscomb and elephant ears. The table decorations were planned and the floral arrangements prepared by Mrs. H. W. Barlow, Mrs. Armstrong Price, and Mrs. Al B. Nelson.

Serves Refreshments

Mesdames D. W. Williams, C. C. French, J. P. Abbott, and I. E. Boughton presided over the refreshment tables the first half of the social hour. During the final half, refreshments were served by mesdames R. D. Lewis, Ide P. Trotter, G. G. Gibson, and A. D. Folweiler.

Friday's tea, considered by officers and attending guests a successful and entertaining event, was arranged by Mrs. J. E. Adams. Mrs. Adams was assisted by mesdames J. B. Page, M. E. Thomas, A. V. Moore, Reed McDonald, J. R. Watson, H. E. Hampton, L. C. Kapp, W. D. Scates, and J. D. Simpson.

The next meeting of the Social Club will be a luncheon honoring new members, at the MSC on Oct. 25.

Rotarians Slate Variety Show For February

The third annual Rotary Variety Show will be presented by the Bryan-College Station Rotary Club at the Stephen F. Austin High School in Bryan on Feb. 7 and 8, Dean H. V. Barlow announced yesterday.

Because of the success of the show in past years, the Board of Directors of the Bryan-College Station Rotary Club, at a recent meeting, unanimously voted to present the show again this year. Barlow, Dean of the School of Engineering at A&M was named general chairman in charge of the show.

Dean Barlow stated the show will be of the same type as last year and, that, by popular demand, some of the best liked features of last year's show will be repeated this year.

The novel program of this year's show will be of the same type as that which caused so much fun, comment and entertainment last year. The authors of this year's program have guaranteed it will be read from "kiver to kiver", ads and all.

Dean Barlow named the following Rotarians to assist him in preparing for and presenting the show: Joe Woolket, director of the show; Ralph (Bob) Braley, master of ceremonies.

Dr. Joe Cox, director of finance and sale of tickets; the Rev. A. T. Dyal and Joe Vincent, preparation of advertising copy; Tyus (Ty) Timm, preparation of script; Allister Waldrop, director of advertising posters.

Green Buchanan, stage manager; C. B. (Buddy) McGown, Jr., director of music and Sam Hoyle, director of publicity. Other Rotarians will be named later and all members of the local Rotary Club will be expected to help with the show in some capacity.

Louise Street and Sergio Trevino were elected senior favorites at A&M Consolidated High School last week. Their pictures will appear in the "Tigerland '52", Consolidated yearbook.

Five & Two Club Sets Next Meeting

The "Five and Two" Club will have its next meeting the first Monday of November at 7:30 p. m. in the Cabinet Room of the YMCA.

About 30 members attended the club's first meeting at the "Y" Sept. 24. Composed of wives of Veterinary Medicine students of the Class of '52, the organization's purpose is to allow student wives of the department to become acquainted with each other.

Jeanne Harper is the president, Eileen Kendrick vice-president, and Jean Henderson is secretary. Treasurer is Nelda Holcomb, and Louise Swope is reporter for the club.

Mrs. Harper urges all wives of senior Vet Med students to attend the Nov. 5 meeting, and enjoy the social. Refreshments will be served.

Fellowship Awards Given Geologists

William L. Alexander of Snyder and Eugene W. Tynes, Jr., of Dallas, have been named recipients of the Michel T. Halbouty Graduate Fellowships in Geology at A&M.

Alexander received his undergraduate degree from A&M in June of 1951. The fellowships are provided by Michel T. Halbouty, Houston geologist and petroleum engineer.

Poultry Department Sets Short Course Oct. 2-4

A turkey and chicken short course, sponsored by the Poultry Husbandry Department, began here today and will last through Thursday. Professor E. D. Parnell of the department is in charge of arrangements for the occasion.

Movie Stars Will Visit Here

College Station and Bryan have been named two of the cities for the motion picture star tour of Oct. 11. Prior to their arrival at A&M, the group will make a public appearance in Bryan at 5:40 p. m.

The list of Hollywood personalities making the tour includes John Wayne, Dan Dailey, Jeff Chandler, Keenan Wynn, and Chill Wills, Producer Jesse Lasky, Sr.; and Director King Vidor.

Chandler was added to the list of stars to replace Wendell Corey, who had to be dropped from the list because of a new film commitment. Glamour will be provided for the tour by Paramount's Golden Circle Players, which includes a group of young film actresses.

The film stars will arrive in Dallas Sunday from Hollywood. They will then motor to Austin in a bannered bus to begin the six-day tour of 22 cities in Texas.

Texas theatermen will accompany the Hollywood personalities on the whirlwind tour.
