Eric Miller
Left End

W. G. Blair
Defensive Lineman

On his first outing for the Maroon & White, Miller caught a touchdown pass against the UCLA Bruins. Miller, a 6-2 sophomore end, also shows promise as defensive ace. He threw the flashy Billy Vessels for a long loss in the fourth period of the OU game.

This 201 pound, junior guard has been a stalwart on the line all season. Blair, stand-out on last year's B team, hit his stride against UCLA and shows promise of being the No. 1 defensive lineman before the season ends.

Augie Saxe
Right Halfback

An aggressive pass defense man, Augie also is a sterling offensive back. In the clash with the Red Raiders he helped set up the third touchdown with a 16 yard scamper. Augie and his younger brother and teammate Charlie, hail from Beaumont, Texas.

Houston's A&M Quarterback Club has voted the Cadets to get their scare of the year from the Trinity Tigers. They may be right.

Nothing would please Coach Bill James more than to spring an up-set on the high flying Aggies. The crafty James has just the football team to do it with.

It is easy to visualize. The Cadets are due for a let-down after their victory over the Sooners. After rising to great heights to defeat SMU 25-20 last year, the Aggies suffered a let down against Rice the following week-end and dropped out of the contention for the Southwest Conference crown.

Here we have a similar situation. It is reasonable to assume that the Cadets are looking for a "breather" against Trinity. Trinity will be "primed" to play an inspired game against A&M and if the breaks go the right way, it will be a gloomy night for the Cadets in San Antonio, Oct. 13.

In Dalton Klaus, a 195 pound tailback, the Tigers have a back who can go all the way once he is sprung into the secondary. Klaus runs very similar to Oklahoma's Billy Vessels. He has specialized in long touchdown sprints all season. Against West Texas State, Klaus made runs of 54 and 58 yards to paydirt.

Andy Kalmanir is a lineman who can play in any league. Fast, aggressive and alert describe Kalmanir. He intercepted a pass against West Texas State and rambled 37 yards for a score.

Trinity has won two games this year, while losing the same amount. Last week they lost to Southwest Texas State, of the Lone Star Conference, 27-14. They have scored 73 points to 61 for the opposition.

In all, Trinity fields 19 lettermen. Aiding Klaus in the backfield are Claude Schott and J. R. Nail. Among the outstanding linemen for the year, have been Francis Meyer, Campbell Hardin, Sam Sanchez, and Don Hood.

Trinity has a long record of intersectional clashes with Southwestern eleveners. Looking back into the record book to 1925, we find that A&M defeated Trinity 20 - 10. Our athletic director, "Bones" Irvin, will remember that one for he played in it as a lineman.

Trinity probably reached her football heights under the direction of Barry Holton. Holton learned football from the fabulous Knute Rockne. He was a "mule" on the line at the time the four horsemen were romping to national prominence. In 1926, Holton coached the Tigers to a 10-3 win over the Baylor Bears.

Holton later became a professor at SMU and during the war served as a recruiter for the Navy V-5 program at Dallas. He remained with the Navy and is now a commander and public relations director at NAS, Dallas, Texas.

The Oklahoma game was strictly a team win. No one individual can be singled out as more outstanding than his teammates. Oklahoma seemed to follow the Tech tactics of concentration on Smith. Bruising Bob, playing with numerous injuries, gave a good performance. Lippman was the outstanding back of the night, picking up a net of 87 yards.

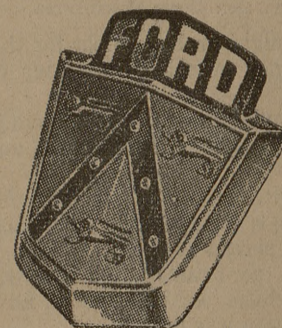

It is not yet known if Tidwell will be able to play in the Trinity clash. He left the Sooner game favoring a cut foot late in the third period. Charlie Hodge was also shaken up a bit but will be ready for Trinity. Charlie will give the Baylor ends, Stanley Williams and Harold Riley a fight for all-conference honors this fall. Hodge's performances in the last three games have been sensational.

Hugh Meyer enhanced his chances for all-conference center in the Oklahoma fracas. Hugh is a throw back to the old days of football, for he has given an "iron-man" performance in all games this season, going the 60 minute route in each.
