

Freshmen Take Cubs In Second Win, 40-20

By JIM ASHLOCK
Batt. Staff Writer

A&M's fish football team defeated the Baylor Cubs 40-20 Thursday night in a football classic that would match the varsity's win over Oklahoma for excitement.

Running behind a strong ground attack sparked by excellent line work the Fish pounded the Cub's defense in an attempt to find a weak spot, with the Cubs resorting to similar strategy.

Early in the second quarter little James Self, 150 pound all-stater from Wichita Falls, drew first blood as he raced eleven yards for the first tally. A penalty against A&M, put the ball on the Cubs seven, but Joel Smith kicked the conversion, shooting the Fish into a 7-0 lead.

Aggies Block Kick

Late in the second quarter L. G. Dupree, 170-pound Cub back from Texas City, was attempting to kick from his own 30. The kick was blocked and Henry Clark, Fish left end, recovered on the Cub 23.

Five plays later Gerald Sandusky, powerful fish fullback, drove into the end zone for the second Aggie TD of the night.

The ball exchanged hands three more times before the gun announced the end of the first half with the scoreboard reading A&M 14, Baylor 0.

Apparently overconfident as a result of their lead, the Fish were somewhat careless as they began play in the second half. Baylor, taking advantage of this let up, opened up with a powerful and determined ground attack which netted them seven points before the half was three minutes old.

Sinclair Goes 65 Yards

Midway through the third quarter the Fish found themselves on their own 9 yard line and unable to penetrate the powerful Cub defense. Quarterback Howard called a pass and connected to Bennie Sinclair who raced 65 yards to spell the score Fish 19, Cubs 7.

Cub quarterback Frank Peschel chose to take to the air and filled the sky with passes, but to no avail. Dupree kicked from his own 33 and Warren Anderson, 170-pound Fish halfback, received on the Fish 65, picked up his blockers, and went all the way for the fourth Aggie score.

Baylor again failed to get their offense functioning correctly and had to kick out on their own 37. Anderson took the ball and raced 37 yards to put the ball on the Cub 37.

Seven plays later Bernie Cook, right halfback from Clyde, plunged into the end zone for another fish score. Smith's kick was good and the fish led 33-7.

Late in the fourth quarter Anderson intercepted a Peschel aerial on the Cub 35 to set up the last Aggie score of the night.

Edward Kachttik took the leather on an end sweep and fought his way over to set the score at 40-7.

Baylor took to the air in the final moments and unreeling a rousing finish, capable of thrilling even the most sullen spectator. Before the Fish could move into pass defense position a combination of Peschel to Jones had netted the Cubs two touchdowns and one conversion to complete scoring for the evening.

Jones Did All Baylor Scoring

Allen Jones was the sparkplug of the Baylor offense, making ample yardage on rushing and catching two touchdown passes, and running for the other.

The fine line play and backfield running displayed by the Fish are something that has been absent from A&M freshmen teams since the days when Lippman and Smith were Fish.

This is without a doubt a welcome sight to head coach Ray George who will be seeking replacements for his graduation riddled varsity next season.

Squadron 13 edged past Company 15, 15-14 in Freshman Intramural cage play yesterday afternoon. Mathis of Squadron 13 was the high point man of the contest with six counters. The winners led 10-4 at halftime.

With J. L. Briggs looping eight points through the mesh Company 2 defeated Company 4, 19-8. All the winners points were scored in the first half of play. Bear of Company 2 scored the remaining two points for the winners.

James Wise tallied 13 counters for Company 12 as the "12" eagles scored an 18-16 win over Company 14. Church paced the losers with eight points.

In the wildest scoring game of the afternoon Company 9 pasted a 26-19 loss on Company 7. Hays paced the winners with 10 points. Prince of Company 9 was the high point man of the contest with 11 points.

In freshman games played on Tuesday Squadron 13 mauled Squadron 5 in a free-scoring game, 31-14. Company 10 coasted over Company 6, 13-8; Company 11 topped the Fish Band, 17-4.

Terry Garland, Fred Schnieder, Robert Zumwalt, and Johnnie Ezell teamed up to pace Company 10 to a two set win over Company 6.

Company 5 edged past Company 1, 2-1. Bennett and Pagett took the first set from Munns and Armintor, 6-1.

Jones and Blackburn took the only win for Company 1 by stopping Coppage and Peaney, 5-1. Peitevent and Beiselien clinched the match for Company 5 by defeating Hightower and Fish, 5-1.

Freshman Stars

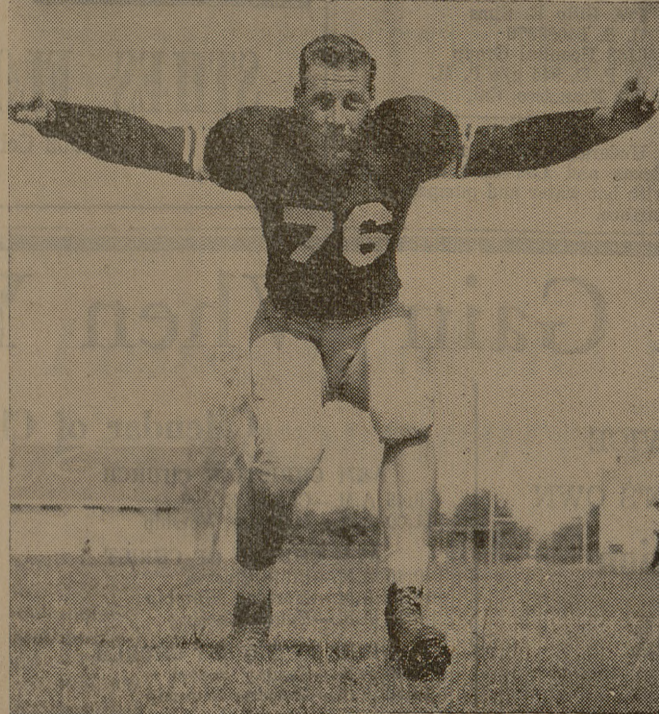

James Self

Marvin Tate

Self carried the ball over for first blood last night against the Baylor Cubs early in the second quarter. The shifty little halfback hails from Wichita Falls where he rated all-state honors. Tate, another all stater, plays right guard for the fish. He is from Abilene where he sparked the Abilene High School with his brilliant blocking and defensive prowess.

AP Lineman of the Week

Jack Little

Little Honored As Top Lineman Of Week

Based On AP Reports

Jack Little, Aggie right tackle, and Pat Cannemela, Southern California guard, were picked Wednesday as the linemen of the week in the first Associated Press linemen poll for the 1951 football season.

Little, who played 50 minutes on both offense and defense in the Aggies' 14-7 triumph over Oklahoma, was very effective in opening holes in the Sooner line.

Ray George, head mentor of the Aggies, said following the game, "I was very impressed and pleased with the way Jack played. He looked awfully sharp to me."

Jack is a junior from Corpus Christi where he played high school football for four years. Three of these however, were spent on the second string, since Jack's bigger brother held down the first team chores.

Weighing in at 220, 19-year-old Jack carries his weight on a 6 ft. 3 inch frame, and is said by many to be of splendid proportions.

A pro scout once saw Jack's gigantic build in action and labeled him as the best prospect in the Southwest. He has also been called "potential All-American."

Cannemela on Defense
Cannemela gained defensive honors for his work in helping to stop the University of Washington in an important Pacific Coast Conference game at Seattle. Little took the offensive laurels for his sterling play against Oklahoma at College Station.

Gene Moeller, Tennessee center, and Tom Hamon, Pennsylvania end, received high praise in the voting. Other linemen nominated were Centers Dick Hightower, Southern Methodist; Hugh Meyer, Texas A&M; Tom Hugo, Denver.

SWC Predictions

A&M Over Tigers, Texas To Top OU

By BOB SELLECK
Battalion Sports News Editor

This past week has proved to be the week of "firsts" for the Aggie grid machine.

Coach Ray George was voted the "Top Coach of the Week" by a United Press sportswriter's poll. The Aggie mentor was picked because of his team's strong win over the Oklahoma Sooners.

Glenn Lippman, SWC leading ball carrier, was picked as the "Top Back of the Week" by the same UP press poll.

Lippman scored both touchdowns for the Cadets and carried the ball 19 times for 87 yards to bring his conference leading total to 254 yards.

"Top Defensive Lineman of the Week" honors went to the Aggie's little giant, Jack Little. Little was recognized by the Associated Press for his great line play that helped bring the Oklahoma offense to a standstill.

SWC battles will step into their fourth round of play with every team scheduled to see action.

A&M 35—Trinity 7

Trinity should hold up good in the first half but will break under the Cadet's power in the final quarters.

A&M will travel to San Antonio with a perfect record thus far this season. The Cadets have accepted the seriousness of the game and have worked out this past week like they mean business.

Trinity's Dalton Klaus will supply the offensive punch for the Tigers team and the big Trinity line have the will but definitely lack reserve strength.

Texas 20—Oklahoma 14

The Sooners took it on the chin from the Aggies last week and now collide head on with another Lone Star representative.

Many close observers believe Oklahoma is improved over last year. However, this is debatable. The Longhorn defense should prove almost as tough as the Aggies. The past three years have found Oklahoma's split T offense victorious. This is the principal reason for Texas' switch to the formation in '51.

We believe the Longhorns will spill Oklahoma.

Notre Dame 27—SMU 14

This will be fourth clash between these two colorful grid powers. Each of the previous were decided in Notre Dame's favor by the margin of one touchdown or less.

Their last meeting in 1949, the most memorable of all, saw Kyle Rote put on a one man show for SMU in battling the highly-rated Notre Dame to a 20-7 decision.

Rote, of course has left and the Mustangs now have Fred Benners.

Benners has put on an aerial show that has almost been superhuman. The Mustangs' ground game lacks consistency; therefore the better all around balance favors Notre Dame to the Aggie.

Baylor 20—Arkansas 14

Baylor's high ratings seems to be confirmed as a result of convincing wins over Houston and Tulane.

A batch of veterans headed by Larry Isbell engage the burly Porkers in their first conference test. The Waco squad will give away much weight to the 220 pound plus average of the Arkansas for-jars.

Sophomore sensation Lamar McHan and Jim Rinehart supply the Porkers with an offense to bother Baylor, but we will string along with the sharpshooting of Isbell to whip Arkansas.

TCU 21—Tech 7

The Horned Frog's Gilbert Bar-tosh will give Tech more trouble than they will be able to handle. TCU is also pointing to its coming conference clash with the Aggies.

Texas Tech Red Raiders are still looking for their first win against a Southwest Conference member since early in 1949.

Navy 14—Rice 13

The young Rice Owls have improved but it is still too gradual. Rice looked good in losing a close battle to LSU last week. The Tigers were favored by two or three touchdowns. However, the Middies are seasoned, better balanced and should sink Rice in a close one.

Trinity Allowed 27 Yards Last Game

Things have changed a lot since A&M last played Trinity University.

September 23, 1933 was the last meeting between these two teams. Head Coach Matty Bell of SMU was mentor at Aggie land and Trinity was located at Waxahachie.

The Aggies were picked to win the Southwest Conference and started off the season running roughshod over the Trinity Tigers 38-0 on Kyle Field.

Three teams were used by Coach Bell and allowed the Tigers only 27 yards the whole game.

Stengel Sits Atop World With Wink

New York, Oct. 12—(AP)—Old Casey Stengel sits atop the baseball world today with a knowing wink and three straight world championships to show for his first three years as manager of the New York Yankees.

You can bet your bottom dollar the grizzled skipper will be back in 1952 to complete his $65,000 plus contract. And probably 1953 and so on.

Unless poor health dampens the fire of this old warhorse, he'll be back as long as they want him. Right now, that's probably forever.
