

Ag Fish, Owlets Battle Friday

A&M's freshman eleven will be out to continue its winning ways Friday in Houston when it meets the Rice Owlets in the fourth contest of the year.

The Fish have already set one of the best records ever attained by a first year Aggie grid team. They opened the season with a convincing 28-13 win over Blinn Junior College, then trounced over the Baylor Cubs, 40-20, and edged the Texas Christian Wogs, 27-26.

Offensively, the Fish have rolled up an average of 318 yards in their three games while holding the opposition to 249 yards.

Of the Cadets 954 yards total, 738 were gained on the ground. In first downs, the Cadets lead with 37 to 28, and have completed 11 of 34 attempted passes, two for touchdowns, with only two being intercepted.

On Pass Defense

On pass defense, the Fish intercepted four of their foes aeriels and allowed only 17 completions of 46 attempts.

Leading the Fish against the Owlets will be the Aggies top scorers, Fullbacks Ed Kachtik and Virgil Patton and Halfback James Self.

Kachtik has scored 24 markers for the Fish while both Patton and Self have two touchdowns each.

Kachtik and Patton also lead in yardage gained. The Fish's leading scorer has carried the pigskin 15 times to roll up a total of 184 yards; Patton has carried 25 times for 152.

Another fullback, Gerald Sandusky is third for the Aggies in rushing with 113 yards in 23 carries; Self has carried 11 times for 11 yards; Fullback Bill McGowan, 12 for 54 yards; Quarterback Ed

Henning, 14 for 46; Left Half Joe Boring, 6 for 21.

In the passing department, Quarterbacks Ed Hennig and Joel Smith have attempted the most aeriels, but Sam Howard completed two of three passes for 99 yards to lead the Cadets' aerial offense.

Hennig has completed 4 to 12 for 61 yards and a score; Smith connected with 3 of 16 attempts for 30 yards.

A&M's top pass receiver is Benny Sinclair, end, who caught 6 passes for 172 yards and six points. Other pass receivers include Fullback Bill McGowan, one for 12; and End Rod Anderlitch, also one for 12 yards.

Aggie Punters

Six freshmen have worked with the Aggies punting department, although only Gerald Sandusky and Virgil Patton have seen heavy duty. Sandusky has punted four times for 147 yards, and average of 36.8; and Patton has booted the pigskin five times for 166 yards and an average of 33.2.

Other punters and their averages for number of punts include, Ed Hennig, two for 38; Bernie Cook, one for 36; Joel Smith, one for 36; Joe Boring, two for 24.

Ken Langford leads the Aggie punt returners with a 35 yard average for one return, while Warren Anderson trails close behind with a 34.2 average for six returns. James Self has also returned a punt, good for 14 yards.

In kickoff returns, Anderson is again among the leaders, having taken back two of the foes kick-offs for 44 yards; Patton has returned two for 46; Richard Vick, one for 27; Bernie Cook one for 22.

Lippman Leads Ags To Top Recognition

Little Glenn Lippman, powerful and speedy Aggie halfback, has replaced Bob Smith of the 1950 eleven and brought the Cadets to rest on the top rung of the SWC rushing ladder, and brought to the Aggies the honor of rating as top offensive team in the conference.

He has netted 521 yards on 77 carries not only to help the Aggies in their surge but to place him as top ground gainer in the SWC.

Lamar McHan of Arkansas and Ray McKown of Texas Christian are the men of the moment.

McHan, the big blond quarterback, is closely pursuing two veterans while McKown has taken over the lead in one division and threatens another.

McKown, the rugged Horned Frog tailback, is the punting leader with an average of 39.8 yards on 17 kicks. A sophomore, Jerry Norton of Southern Methodist, is second with 39.7 on 18 boots. Larry Isbell, Baylor senior, is third with 38.6 on 39 kicks.

Isbell In Offense

Isbell tops in total offense but his margin isn't large over McHan. Isbell has gained 955 yards on 167 plays, McHan 881 on 171. Fred Benners of Southern Methodist is third with 790 yards on 160 plays although he has a minus 17 yards rushing.

Defensively, Texas leads with 213.7 yards per game. Arkansas is second with 217.7 and Baylor is third with 239.7.

A&M leads in team rushing with 241.4 and Baylor in passing with 162.7.

Arkansas has been most effective against rushing, allowing only 130 yards per game. A&M and Texas have the best defensive record against passing, each holding the opposition to 81.3 yards per contest.

TCU Fumbles

Texas Christian back Bobby Jack Floyd (32) fumbles the ball when tackled by Baylor players in first quarter of game played at Waco, Tex. The ball was recovered by Baylor back J. Reid, not shown. Baylor players are center C. O. Brocato (54) and end Red Donaldson (83). No. 87 is TCU end George Wilson. TCU won 20-7 to take the top spot in the Southwest Conference.

B Coast Enters Cage Finals With 10-5 Win Over C Inf

B CAC became the winner of League A yesterday and entered the basketball finals by defeating C Infantry, 10-5.

Craig Weisenger and B. A. Kalmans led the artillerymen at the hoop with four counters each.

The losers were paced by Sam Jeffers and Tom Delaney with a field goal each. The artillerymen led at halftime, 9-2.

Jim Dishman played an outstanding game for B Athletics as the athletes chalked up a 13-3 victory over A Armor. Dishman paced the scoring column with three markers.

B Armor Wins

The Engineers missed a golden opportunity at the close of their contest with B Armor to knot the count and the constructionists of A Company fell before the cagers of B Armor, 18-16.

With only two seconds remaining in the game the losers had two free tosses but failed to score on either. Curtis Lucas of the "Jocks" paced the scoring in the contest with nine counters. Alex Dolney paced the losers with six tallies.

A Ordnance Victorious, 11-2

A Signal fell before the onslaught of the ordnancemen of A Company as they never seemed to get their offense rolling and the Ordnance quintet stacked up 11 tallies to win. Andy Anderson paced the scoring column with six points.

Cage League Winners

The finals of the Intramural Basketball race will be unreeled later this year with 10 teams, the winners of their respective leagues, participating.

The teams competing in the finals are B CAC, C AF, A Infantry, B Athletics, K AF, C Composite, F AF, A Chemical, and A Seniors.

All of the teams except A Seniors have not been beaten in league play this year. The seniors have a 2-1 record. Their only loss was a forfeit.

Football

A Infantry continued their bid for a return of the Intramural flag this year as they opened their football play with a crushing 18-2 win over hapless I AF.

The infantrymen minus many of their finalist stars of last year showed a powerful offense and were never in serious trouble.

E Infantry stopped D AF on the windy football fields, 9-0. The airmen never threatened the infantrymen as they never drove inside the 40.

A AF Wins

A AF won on penetrations from G AF. The two clubs battled to a 6-6 deadlock but the airmen won on penetrations 4-2.

B TC won over B AF, 2-0.

D Infantry made it a complete sweep for the infantry on the Intramural football fields yesterday by stopping H AF, 12-6.

The airmen got inside the infantry 40 only once during the afternoon and then tallied.

Tennis

On the net courts M AF scored a complete three set sweep from C Armor. The scores were 8-6, 8-5, and a forfeit.

Company 7 stopped Company 10 in two consecutive sets, 8-3 and 8-3.

C AF stopped L AF, 8-2 and 8-1. F AF swept three games from the airmen of C AF, 8-2, 8-5, 8-2.

Intramural Schedule

Clubs start their basketball schedule on Nov. 20 and football on Dec. 4. Non-military basketball begins play on Nov. 13 along with freshman football.

Upperclass horseshoes begin play on Dec. 12 with freshman horseshoes opening on Dec. 6.

Benners' Passing Threatens Ag Win

Fred Benners, ace aerialist of the Mustangs, has shown some of the finest passing ever seen in the SWC during his years at SMU.

He is among the top passers in the conference and is virtually the only kick the ponies have to offer.

Kick Proves Deadly

But this kick has proven deadly in games they have played this year, such as the fight they put up against Texas, only to bow 20-13.

The game wasn't decided though until the final gun was sounded

During this game he tossed 21 passes in the 16 minutes he played; and completed 15 of these to establish himself as one of the greatest junior passing artists in the nation.

Three of these were intercepted, but overshadowing that fact was a touchdown pass he threw.

He received state-wide recognition for the 211 yards he racked up against the Aggies, and confirmed statements as to his great possibilities during 1951.

Benners has been riding the crest recently in leading all SWC passers in their total yards gained in the air.

However, he underwent one of his worst days Saturday against a powerful Longhorn eleven, whose defensive pattern proved a tough hurdle for him to clear.

When he leads the Ponies against A&M Saturday on Kyle Field, he will be competing against another of the conference's top passers, quarterback Ray Graves of the Cadets.

Benners Threatens

Benners is the chief factor which threatens another defeat for the cellar holding Aggies, and without him, SMU would apparently be helpless before the leading offensive team in the Conference.

Fred Benners

and the score recorded, because the pin-point firing of Benners' right arm is a threat for any team throughout the contest.

Benners made his first appearance against the Aggies in 1949 when he was a sophomore and inexperienced. And during this game he saw only three minutes of playing time.

Despite Big Handicaps

Despite these handicaps, Benners showed his potential by tossing six passes and completing two. The completions netted him 29 yards, but another factor of praise was he didn't have any interceptions.

Last year in 1950, Benners increased his impressive record by aiding the Mustangs in their hard-fought battle to tie the Cadets.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

POOR PAUL was egg-sperated because every chick on campus gave him the bird. They told him: "We're all cooped up!" Then one day his roommate said: "The hens avoid you beak-cause your hair's messy, you dumb cluck! I don't know feather frye'er, but you better frye'er, try it! Contains soothing Lanolin. Relieves dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test." Paul got Wildroot Cream-Oil—and now the gals think he's a good egg! Better lay down a few poultry cents on the nearest drug or toilet goods counter for a bottle or tube of Wildroot Cream-Oil. And ask for it on your hair at your favorite barber shop. Then the girls'll take off their hatch to you!

Baylor comes up at Austin Saturday. Then there's Texas Christian. And TCU is taking this week off just to get ready for Texas.

Price said dryly that he really sympathized with Dutch Meyer, the Texas Christian coach. "He only has three great quarterbacks," said Meyer. "He has the best back in the conference in Gil Bartosh. But Marvin Fowler beats him out. Fowler is hurt and Ray McKown becomes a great quarterback. I can sympathize with Mr. Meyer in his great problem."

The conference race continues its screwy way. Figure this out: Texas Tech of the Border Conference beats Texas Christian 33-19, Baylor beats Texas Tech 40-20, Texas Christian beats Baylor 20-7.
