Rice Owls Challenge Farmers; Clash To Draw Record Crowd

for their seventh straight win over the Cadets. Last year they won an upset victory over the Farmers, 21-13.

The Owls did themselves proud in trimming a very good—extreme-ly big-Arkansas team Saturday night, 6-0, to win the first of their battles for survival.

Owl Defense Good

The gallant Rice defensive unit deserved a lot of credit for the win. They shut out the giant Porkers for the first time this year, a club that outweighed 'em by about 20 pounds to the man and had averaged over 20 points a game.

club that outweighed 'em by about 20 pounds to the man and had averaged over 20 points a game. The Razorbacks got inside the Rice 20 yard-line only once—in the opening minute of play when Jack Troxell broke loose for 53 yards to the Owl 19 on the second play from scrimmage.

Has seen plenty of action this year, especially wants an Owl victory Saturday since his dad, Dr. I. B. Boughton, is chairman of the A&M athletic council.

Rice was sixth in the nation last year on total attendance for all their football games and it is predicted that the total for this year will be even greater.

Weightlifters Get Set For Next Meet

By HUGH PHILIPPUS
Battalion Sports Writer

The A&M Weightlifting Club, one of the recreational clubs of A&M, is trying to get organized and get started for the meets coming. Bob Fletcher, one of the three returning members and president of the club, expressed the fact that many positions on the entry team for meets are open, and that anyone, regardless of experience is welcomed at the weekly meetings held on Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

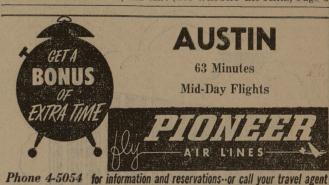

He brought out the fact that many boys never come down to the club meetings, because they have never taken part in this sport
