

Fish Battle Shorthorns In Shrine Tilt Saturday

By GUS BECKER
Battalion Sports Writer

A&M's Freshman football team will be out to take the "big one" Saturday afternoon in Memorial Stadium in Austin where they meet the Texas University Shorthorns.

This will give the Freshman teams the spotlight as the Varsity's have a ten day rest to prepare for their Turkey Day battle on Kyle Field.

The game is sponsored by the Ben Hur Shrine Temple of Austin and Brazos Valley Shrine Club of Bryan. This is the fifth game sponsored by the Shrines, and they expect a record crowd—around 20,000 spectators.

If the game attracts this many

Joel Smith
QB

It will set a new attendance record for the Freshman game, the previous record was in the '49 clash when 16,000 watched the game.

TU Fish Favored

The Aggie Fish will be the underdogs in the contest because of the loss of key persons and the Shorthorns impressive victory over the TCU Wogs last week 34-14.

The TU Frosh gained 408 yards rushing against the Wogs which the Maroon and White Fish barely edged out earlier in the season 27 to 26.

A&M's Fish will enter the Saturday battle with a better season record than the Shorthorns who have been able to break even this year while the Aggie Freshmen have only one defeat on the record.

Among the Aggie fish victories is a 40 to 20 trouncing of the Baylor Cubs, a team which ran over the Texas first year men 25 to 7.

The game Saturday will be the "rubber" game of the Shrine series in which each has won two, the Shorthorns taking the '47 and '50 contests while the A&M Fish took the '48 and '49 battles.

Proceeds from the game will be used to operate the Shrine's Crippled Children's Clinic at Brackenberg hospital in Austin, where any needy crippled child is given free medical attention.

Tate Out Of Action

Marvin Tate, a sterling guard for the Aggie Freshmen, has been advised by doctors not to play because of his recent attack of the mumps and will not see any action.

Last year the Shorthorns rolled over the A&M Fish 46 to 6 in the largest score ever rolled up in a Fish-Yearling game.

Other than Tate, the rest of the Fish squad seems to be in good shape for the tilt, barring any further practice injuries.

A high-powered offense which racked up over 300 yards per game in their first three games for the Maroon and White Fish was stopped cold by the Owlets which held the Aggie Fish to 151 yards on the ground and in the air.

Edward Kachtik, Rio Hondo flash, was injured in scrimmage before the Owlet tilt and played only one down, Kachtik is the leading scorer on the A&M Fish team.

Self Shows Speed

Little James Self, all-state halfback from Wichita Falls, displayed his amazing speed to be the offensive star for the Aggie Fish in the 20 to 7 loss to the Owlets. Self turned in several nice gains for 12 and 15 yards.

A good prospect to replace Yale Lary, Aggie punting specialist, was discovered in the defeat, as Gerald Sandusky, right halfback from Bronte, booted the ball eight times for a 40.0 average.

Sandusky also shone on defense as he made seven clean tackles with four assists while playing only a part of the defensive time.

An excellent job was turned in at the linebacker spot by Billy McGowan, a Silsbee product, who was in on 19 tackles, seven of them clean.

Hopes For Light Injuries

Fish coach "Klepto" Holmes said this morning that he wouldn't know his starting lineup until a day or so before the contest, but he hoped injuries would be light and everyone would be in shape for the game.

The probable starting lineup will include Henry Clark at left end, who hails from Mesquite and who caught the pass that led to the lone Aggie Fish score in the Owlet game.

At right end will be Bennie Sinclair, from Mineola, who is the leading pass receiver for the A&M Fish catching six passes for 172 yards and six points.

Sam Howard

Lionie Martin the big 220 pound tackle from Cotulla will be at one tackle post while Lyman Preston, 215 pound tackle will be at the other tackle slot.

Guard posts are yet undetermined as this spot has had more injuries than any other position. Possibilities are Sidney Theriot, a fine guard from Terrebonne, Louisiana and Lawrence Winkler a 200 pounder from Temple.

Henry Arnett, who was injured before the Owlet game and Ray Barrett who injured his hand in that contest have been pronounced ready to play by Aggie trainer, Bill Dayton, and will probably see quite a bit of action.

Big Center

In the pivot spot for the Aggie Fish will be Leo Marquette, from New Orleans, who has shined up well in the games played so far.

In the man under position for the Maroon and White Freshmen, will possibly be Edgar Hennig, a Tyler lad, who has thrown a lot of the Aggie Fish aials this season.

Sam Howard, a New Braunfels product, and Joel Smith will probably see a lot of action in the game, also.

The backfield will see either Self or Kachtik at one halfback, with Sandusky at the other.

Powerhouse Virgil Patton, from Oklaunion should be the starter at the fullback spot.

Billy Tidwell (32) streaks through the Owls for yardage around end. Billy Burkhalter, Rice ace, closes in to stop the hard charging cadet. Bob Smith (36) is shown blocking Rice tackle John Hudson (70) out of the play.

E Infantry Tops K Airmen 18-14; A Infantry Wins

By JOE BLANCHETTE
Battalion Intramural Writer

Paul Schaffer handed off to Charley Keese late in the second half and behind beautiful blocking the fleet E Infantry back scooted down the field to tally the winning touchdown against K AF as the Infantrymen scored an 18-14 win over the airmen.

It was a battle of passes versus a strong ground attack as the airmen filled the sky with aials in an attempt to halt the battling infantrymen. The game was very evenly matched with both squads garnering six penetrations.

A Signal Wins, 20-6

A Signal powered to a 20-6 win over the forces of A Transportation yesterday afternoon on the Intramural Football Field. Warren Smith was the only bright light for the losers as he gained their only TD. The signalmen completely dominated the play with six penetrations to the TC's two.

A Infantry, battling to defend the Intramural Flag, romped to a 25-7 win over C Vets yesterday. The Infantry got inside the Vets' 20 yard line four times and crossed the pay stripe each time they managed to do so. Once again, it was Don Morris and Tuffy Chandler carrying the offensive burden for the winners.

B Infantry completed the Infantry units domination of play by stopping A Vets 13-0. Dick Semlinger, Jon Parkey, Gooch Thompson and Bill Groff carried the offensive load for the infantrymen.

B Engineers Victorious

B Engineers put together a TD and a safety for the eight points that were needed to stop the battlers for C Armor, 8-0.

The Armored never got inside the Engineer 40 yard line the entire afternoon.

Horseshoes

On the horseshoe courts B Engineers turned back A AF, H AF stopped B CAC, G AF trampled A Chemical, M AF upset A CAC, and D AF stopped their fellow air-

Leighton Stars As CHS Wins District

Jerry Lightnin' Leighton scored 24 points against Lexington Friday night on Tiger Field as the Consolidated Tigers won the District 24-B Championship with a 51-13 victory over the cellar dwelling Eagles.

Hampered last week by a charley horse in the game against Navasota, Leighton flashed his old form against the Eagles as he scampered 80 yards in the opening quarter for a score.

In the second period Leighton scored from the Lexington 23 and ran an Eagle kickoff back for another tally.

A forty yard run in the last quarter brought his season total to 144 points scored this year.

The Tigers will meet Bremond, champions of District 23-B by virtue of a 13 to 6 win over Calvert, for the Bi-District championship.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

WHENEVER SHEEDY gave a gal the glad ham she turned up her snoot. Poot Paul took pen and oink and wrote a litter home: "I'm sty-mied. All the gals think I'm a boat. To get a date is a pig's feat!" His mother wrote back: "Even a dullard like you should know enough to borrow his roommate's Wildroot Cream-Oil! It's non-alcoholic. Contains soothing Lanolin. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test. Makes your hair look neat and well-groomed." That was the pig-me-up Sheedy needed. Now he's important ... hogs and kisses all the girls. Better try Wildroot Cream-Oil yourself. Get it at your favorite drug or toilet goods counter—and ask for professional applications at your barber chop!
