Capitalism Doesn't Cause Depressions Businessmen Say

State ownership and operation individual of incentive.

This statement made by C. E. Lyon, general manager of the Dia- United States. nond Alkali Co. of Houston, summed up the opinion expressed by a panel of three Texas Business-

· Ag Councilmen . To Award 'Best Prof' in School

cil made this decision at a depressions. meeting last night held at the home of Dean C. N. Shepardson, school of agriculture.

given to all freshmen agriculture | Boddie recognized a question

The Agricultural Council is in- diversification of industry?"

State ownership and operation of a country's basic resources leads sponsored by the Texas Manufacto more and more governmental turers Association, was to bring control which finally deprives the before A&M students to answer questions on business trends in the

Capacity Crowd

A capacity crowd of students, faculty members, and local residents was present at the meeting when William W. Boddie, director of public relations for the Texas estions from the floor.

Lyon received the first nod from The Agricultural Council Boddie, and proceeded to stress will sponsor the Award to the that a wider variety of industrial Best Prof in the School of Ag- strength throughout the country riculture this year. The coun- was a preventive measure against

K. R. Dailey, assistant manager of the Employee Relations Depart-James Lehmann, Phil Huey and ment for Humble Oil and Refining Austin Haney will head the selec- Company, continued by saying tion committee. The award will there was greater recognition or the part of management of the Malcolm Dyer, Gerald McEntire, needs of the workers. Attempts and George Townsend are in are made to keep the worker con-charge of securing a booklet to be tinuously employed, he continued. najors telling the activities of each asking, "How can Mr. Lyon acof the technical clubs within the count for the fact depressions vestigating the possibility of join- Lyon countered that depression ing with other land grant colleges were not caused by the capitalistic in forming a National Agricultural system, that all countries have Council. Bob Langford, Lynn Pit- them, and that depression could tard, and Ed Daniel are in charge not be entirely eliminated.

(See RESPONSIBLE, Page 4)

'Heave-Ho'-- Center Pole Goes Up

"Heave-ho ye hearties, 'tis a might bit heavy." Brute strength was replaced by numbers yesterday as hundreds of students began work on the traditional Texas University game bonfire. These men are preparing the center pole for erection. The 65 foot pole (two stacking. The structure will be completed next Wednesday and will

Usual Classes Here Today As

US Observes Thanksgiving

From the battle lines in Korea to our occupation troops in Germany, today was Thanksgiving for most Americans,

In the continental U. S., families gathered around overloaded Rural Electric Co-op tables to celebrate and ask thanks. Department of Defense reports. In fact today was Thanksgiving everywhere except at Aggieland and at Texas University. Both schools have postponed their holi-days until next Thursday because Meeting Slated Here of the all-important football game Representatives of the 81 rural over the Texas Quality Network in College Station that tradition electric cooperatives in Texas will at 9 p. m.

attend the fifth annual Job Training and Safety Conference to be be given by Dr. C. J. Potthoff, beld in the Memorial Student Cenheld in the Memorial Student Cenand Conference to be be given by Dr. C. J. Potthoff, beld in the Memorial Student Cenheld in the Memorial Student Cenand Conference to be be given by Dr. C. J. Potthoff, beld in the Memorial Student Cenheld in the Memorial Student Cenand Conference to be be given by Dr. C. J. Potthoff, beld in the Memorial Student Cenheld in the Memorial Student Cenand Conference to be be given by Dr. C. J. Potthoff, beld in the Memorial Student Cenheld in the Memorial Student Cenand Conference to be be given by Dr. C. J. Potthoff, beld in the Memorial Student Cenheld in the Memorial Student Cenheld in the Memorial Student Cenand Conference to be be given by Dr. C. J. Potthoff, beld in the Memorial Student Cenheld in the Memor

Turkey-Good Weather

proximately 1500 fans are expect ed to follow the team, according to

Following the game, the loca

Sit In West Stands

The playoff game will be played n the 4,000 seat Wood Stadium.

Consolidated fans will be seated in the west side stands, while the announced that some parking will are John Naylor, referee and Charie Smith, head linesman. An umpire and a field judge will be be allowed in the end zones. Officials for the bi-district clash lege Station after the meal.

The rest of the world will find Committee for Rural Electric Cooperatives, and the Texas Education Agency.

tion Administration, and Harry C. Hutchinson, factory representative turkey plentiful but expensive today. The weatherman has been W. W. Mills, chief of rural elec- kind, however, promising fair skies time a man who didn't believe in tric training for the Service and for most of the nation. Football Thanksgiving went to have a drink er? E. W. Kerlick, G. E. Baker, W. O. will occupy many peoples' minds as where the bartender believed in The bartender looked along the instructors, will report on the past in traditional Turkey Day battles. Christmas.

> tivities.
>
> To coincide with the day that many of the state's electric linemen will be attending the conference, Gov. Allan Shivers desig; that this Thanksgiving Day finds > itself with the small but important problems of turkey, cranberry sauce, and football games, many people will pause to remember that this Thanksgiving Day finds > itself with the small but important "Yes, sir," said the bartender. "Would you like some soda, too?" "Grr-r-rumph-h-h-h-!"
>
>
>
> itself with the small but important problems of turkey, cranberry sauce, and football games, many "Grr-r-rumph-h-h-h-!"
>
> itself with the small but important problems of turkey, cranberry sauce, and football games, many "Would you like some soda, too?" "Yes, sir," said the bartender. "Would you like some soda, too?" nated Nov. 23 as Electric Line-men's Day in Texas. the country only half at peace. Casualty lists, always two or bartender, "have you noticed the more weeks behind developments, troops that "We must say a pray- Nov. 22 is just another day for have passed the 100,000 mark for er of thanks for the men who gal- work at Aggieland. American killed, wounded, and lantly laid down their lives that In College Station, missing in Korea. The Associated we might live to further resist stores report that most households men will receive the usual Thanks- ate his threat."

with the college. James Winn at of them will be the title of a disjunction tried to move the British giving turkey dinner with all the At A&M the noise of another the Southside Food Market reports cussion given by four A&M deans out through arbitration. The Eng-rimmings. Some first line groups battle disturbs the would-be only 10 or 12 turkeys have been at a meeting of The American As- lish countered Egyptian proposa may have to wait for theirs, the Thanksgiving quiet. The usual bat-sold. tle of the books has been supplanted by the roar of trucks, axes, and saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that only one out of the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that the saws as Aggies struggle to build would show that the saws as Aggies str

(See THANKSGIVING, Page 3) main presentation.

Egypt Military Attache Agrees To Speak Here

ceived. The Egyptian Military Attache, Col. Adbel Hamid Bey Ghaleb will be on the campus Dec. 7. ton will be on the campus later in

He will present the Egyptian the month to present the English side of the explosive Anglo-Egypt- view-point. At present his sel ian question at a meeting open to dule is free about a week before the public. Arrangements have ten- the Christmas holidays start. tatively been made to hold the During the first exchange meeting in the Ball room of the correspondence it was hoped by from his headquarters in Washing- Due to previous commitments the ton D. C. in time for the meeting. colonel was unable to accept the in His talk is being sponsored by vitation. The United Nation's Club, The Battalion, the history department, and the controversial subject came the MSC Directorate and plans about when members of the spon-are being coordinated by Tom soring organizations decided the Rountree, chairman of the MSC "second hand" information being ficial Egyptian attitude and will attack the problem from the milimember of the Egyptian Military. An invitation was extended originally to the Egyptian ambassdor, Kamil Abdul Rahim during the first part of November. At the

Egyptian Side

Deans to Discuss Teachers Raitngs

Press reports that most fighting the enemy and ultimately elimin- will observe the holiday along staff, and use that can be made After World War II the Egyptwith the college. James Winn at of them will be the title of a dis- ians tried to move the British lie Opersteny of Charlie's Food J. P. Abbott, arts and sciences; Market says their turkey sales C. N. Shepardson, agriculture; and lave been very low. People will H. W. Barlow, engineering. ot even be able to buy a turkey "This is a much discussed sub-dinner today, with the MSC reserv- ject on the campus, and should be ng its holiday meals for next of considerable interest to all," said Ralph Lee, A. A. U. P. vice-President and Mrs. Truman will observe their Thanksgiving in the observe their Thanksgiving in the tended to the English Government

British Speaker J. T. Henderson counsul in Hous-

MSC. Colonel Ghaleb will fly down Watson to speak for the British

A need for hearing both sides of The colonel will present the of-cial Egyptian attitude and will student body, with a particular interest in informing the future

Started in 1882

The controversy between the two 1882 when the British moved into Egypt. In 1899 the English entered into a treaty with the Egyptians over the joint rule of the Sudan territory.

In 1936 the Egyptian govern-nent recognized the British and socation of University Professors with the defense theory. They said ing and started to rebel against of 1936 and asked the English government to remove the troops troops in another without the permission of the other country.

"Shut up, Joe!" "What did you say, Mr. Belch"What did you say, Mr. Belch"Changes Announced" "Basis for the Egyptian cancellation was the UN Charter, which says one country will not keep In Editorial Staff on Thanksgiving, Mr. Belcher? nounced this morning by Editor writer. John Whitmore.

a three year man on The Battalion. student to work on a daily paper in narians. He ordered a drink and muscled During his freshman year, he the state. it down firmly. Joe thought it over was editor of the freshman page On the sports side of the paper, the students of the need of getting uneasily, then said triumphantly: and during the summer and regu- Bob Selleck was boosted to Sports the services of an accountant in Belcher brooded that over for a editor to take the position left responsible to the editor, associate students were at the meeting held (See NON-BELIEVER, Page 2) open by Austin. He is a senior (See EDITOR CHANGES, Page 3) in the hospital building.

Four changes in the editorial journalism major from Houston. Jr. AVMA Meeting "Don't you have no place to go staff of The Battalion were an- Prior to this year he was a staff

The bi-district playoff game beceiving $50.

The bi-district playoff game between the Tigers of A&M Consolitween the Tigers of A&M Consolitween the Tigers of A&M Consolithe $100 first prize and Alton Ray

The bi-district playoff game between the Tigers of A&M Consolithe services of an accountant in battle brings together two groups of Tigers, each bearing the same of Tigers, each Streich was named managing age for The Battalion. Selleck is Approximately 100 veterinary

Leland Addresses

T. W. Leland, head of the de-During the past summer Streich partment of business administra-"Shut up!" said Mr. Belcher.
"I don't believe in Thanksgiving."

Joel Austin, Bill Streich, Bob was recipient of the journalism tion, addressed members of the Junior Chapter of the American "Gee," said Joe, "don't nobody the world want you today, sir?"

Austin, junior personnel manby the Texas Daily Newspaper
This opportunity, given annually Veterinary Medicine Association by the Texas Daily Newspaper Tuesday night. He told the group "Nobody want me?" replied Mr. agement major, was boosted to Publishers Association, makes it associate editor of the paper. He is possible for a senior journalism confronting the practicing veteri-

The BA department head told

Joel Austin Associate Editor

Bill Streich Managing Editor

Bob Selleck

Frank Davis City Editor

Seven Students Win Heep Awards

Seven A&M dairy husbandry students have been awarded the Herman F. Heep awards. First and lors, juniors and sophomores and one to a freshman.

Consolidated Meets Bremond Howard William Kruse, of Bren-

Howard William Kruse of Brenham was first place winner in the senior group and was awarded In Football Bi-District Play $100. Fred Bruce McDaniel of won first place in the sophomore trict 23-B. class, $100, and James Bertram Hardaway of Leesburg won second the $100 first prize and Alton Ray Hearne tonight at 8 p. m. The bus has been provided by the Conputer of Roby, second prize, Consolidated group is the champ-solidated Independent School District clash. ion of District 24-B while the Bre- trict. The remainder of the buses Wesley Earl Gross of Bonham mond team took the title in Dis-on first place in the sophomore trict 23-B. will be provided by the county superintendent, W. D. Bunting. Ap-

C of C Provided Tickets

In order to secure the bi-district L. E. Boze, principal. Kenneth Reynolds of Pittsburgh game for Hearne, the Chamber of won the freshman scholarship, Commerce provided game tick. Tigers will eat at the City Cafe ets. Hearne police will also be in in Hearne. Fans may see the team there following the game, Boze said. The team will return to Col-

Giles Talk, Ag-Rice Film Featured at QB Meeting

Bascom Giles, General Land Commissioner of the State of Texas, will address tonight's Quarterback Club meeting. Bremond supporters occupy the Giles, who has been prominent in Texas politics for the past | east stands. Parking officials have 13 years, is a humorous and entertaining speaker.

Films of the A&M-Rice battle will be showed at the meeting which gets underway at 7:45 p. m. This is the pre-A&M and Texas U. game meeting.

Frank Thurmond, winner of last week's QB contest, will be awarded two tickets to the A&M-Texas Turkey-Day chosen from the Waco chapter of will not be sold here. They must game at the session. Winner of this week's contest will re- the SFOA. ceive two free dinners, with an allowance of $1.50 per meal. The College Station-Bremond said.

ter, Nov. 23-24. The conference is Red Cross, Frank LaMaster, head sponsored by the Engineering Ex- of the Job Training and Safety tension Service, the State Advisory Division of the Rural Electrifica-

A highlight of the conference will be the banquet address, Nov. , by Congressman W. R. Poage year's job training and safety ac- As most of the nation concerns "Gr-r-r-rumph-h-h-h, and soda," empty of its usual customers

Prayer for Dead

Korean field commander, Lt. the biggest bonfire in college his-Gen. James A. Van Fleet told his tory. the biggest bonfire in college his-as their Thanksgiving. Mrs. Char-College C. C. French, and Deans

Non-Believer Sees Thanksgiving Grey

"Well, Mr. Belcher," said the Gee-

Principal Boze has announced that no classes will be dismissed

Ticket Sales End

Foday for Sophs

Department ticket manager.

be purchased in Austin, Nelson for the game.

empty polished mahogany barand said:

"A Place To Go?"

in the world want you today, sir?" want peace.'

