

Singing Cadets Plan Monterrey Concert

The Singing Cadets will give a concert in Monterrey, Mexico, Saturday, Dec. 8. The concert will be given on the campus of the Instituto Tecnológico de Monterrey, a private institution, one of the great schools of Mexico.

Bill Turner, director of the Singing Cadets, said today that they will be guests of Victor Bravo Aruja, director general of the institute. They will be taken on a tour of the city and attend a horse show in the afternoon, prior to the concert.

The Singing Cadets will be guests of the International Knife and Fork Club at a dinner Dec. 8 and will give a concert for this group.

Concerts will also be given at Woodsboro on Dec. 6, Laredo on Dec. 9 and at Harlingen on Dec. 10, under the sponsorship of A&M Mothers' Clubs of those Texas cities.

Featured soloists of the Singing Cadets are Harold Hughes, tenor; Abilene; Ben Blankenship, baritone; Abilene; Tommy Butler, tenor; Waco and Tommy Savage, bass, from Port Arthur.

Baylor, TCU Win Over SMU, Rice

TCU 22, Rice 6
Rugged tackles, unwelcome fumbles, personal fouls, and "gettin' the breaks" played a big part in TCU's 22-6 victory over hapless Rice.

A scoreless first quarter was followed by three periods packed with touchdown thrills with TCU drawing first blood, ten seconds deep in the second quarter. Recovering a blocked punt on Rice's 46, the Frogs' machine with Ray McKown at the helm scored in two plays. On the first down, "the Dumas' Dandy" slid off middle for three. From Rice's 43, he passed to Bob Blair on the 15, who then went all the way to score. Kieth Flower's attempted conversion point was wide.

A pitchout-fumble by Rice, recovered by TCU's Herb Zimmerman on the Owls 15, set-up the Frogs second counter. On the first play, McKown went through right tackle and down the middle to score. This time Flowers' try for extra point was good.

turned it 20 yards to the Owls 20, setting up the score. Floyd scored on the third play from 15 yards out and again Flowers converted successfully. The scoring ended, 22-6, with the Frogs gaining their fourth SWC win.

Arkansas 24, Tulsa 7

The upsetters of the SWC, Arkansas, stopped the "Nation's No. 1 offensive team" and started one of their own in slushing over the Tulsa Hurricanes on a muddy field, 24-7. Arkansas held a 24-0 lead before the Tulansans scored.

Quarterback Lamar McHan passed the Porkers to their three touchdowns, and Pat Summerall booted the field goal. Each of the Razorback scores were set up by a strong rushing attack which netted 267 yards. Lewis Carpenter, the Hogs' fullback, accounted for 129 yards on 20 rushes.

The first TD was scored when Arkansas recovered a Tulsa fumble on the Hurricane's 12 yard line. From the six, Summerall kicked the field goal which started the Hogs scoring attack.

In nine plays, Rice scored, moving from their own 35 across the double stripe. Dan Drake's passing was the main factor in setting up the TD, and it also scored for the Blue and Grey with McCurry on the receiving end.

Late in the same period, Zimmerman tackled Drake within his end zone to give the Frogs a safety and 15-6 lead. TCU's final TD came in the fourth quarter. Flower's intercepted a Drake tossed pass which had been partially blocked by Zimmerman and re-
