

And Aggie hopes and dreams flared as the 1951 bonfire blazed Wednesday night before the annual Thanksgiving day football game with Texas University. It was the largest in A&M's history with a center pole of 65 feet. A few logs were still glowing Monday morning, more than four days after the fire had been started. —Staff Photo by Dick Zeek.

Nancy Little Shares Jack's Interest in Sports, Outdoors

By PAT MORLEY
Battalion Women's Editor

Nancy Rose Little, whose flashing smile is well-known to everyone who patronizes the MSC Gift Shop, is described by her friends and neighbors as "The best-natured girl we know."

Wife of the great Aggie lineman, Jack Little, Nancy does not have to borrow any of her husband's fame to be well-known on the A&M campus. Friends say, though, that the Little's are such a well-known team that their names usually sound like "Jack-and Nancy."

Shares Husband's Outdoor Life
Sharing her husband's love of outdoor life, this Aggie wife's greatest pleasure is a camping trip with Jack. After the TU football game, the sports-happy couple were off to Junction for a little "hunting spree," reports Nancy. This sharing of interests is no new thing for a couple who shared a school yard swing, their first date, and their first kiss.

"We've known each other since we were in grade school, and just practically grew up together in Corpus Christi," smiles Nancy.

Mrs. Little, who was Nancy Rose

Bronson before marriage, has spent all her married life at A&M, and loves it! Jack brought Nancy to A&M following their wedding at the Second Baptist Church in Corpus Christi on August 4, 1950.

Live "Off College Main"
Now living in an apartment Nancy describes as "just off College Main Street, with no house number," the Little's are still hoping for a college apartment.

"We'd love to live in College View, close to everybody else," Nancy remarks wistfully. "But they say veterans must come first."

Sociable by nature, one of Mrs. Little's fondest dreams at Aggie-land is a club for athletes' wives.

"Many departments have wives' clubs, but we just never have gotten one organized," she reports.

An employee of the MSC since its opening in September, 1950, Nancy enjoys her work, and enjoys "meeting all the people." Last year her job was in the Cashier's Office, but all of this semester she has worked in the Gift Shop.

Colder Weather Hits Panhandle

By Associated Press

Freezing weather returned to sections of the Panhandle and South Plains last night. Brisk dry winds accelerated temperature drops in the Northern and Western sections of the state while moisture in the air kept East and South Texas temperatures warmer.

Fog banks stretched along the coast early today. A cool front swept across the state yesterday bringing scattered rains in some sections during the day time.
