Steer-Aggie Color Movies
To be Shown at QB Meeting

Glenn Lippman, All-Southwestern performer of the fighting Aggies, will be the principal speaker at the Dec. 6 meeting of the Battalion Quarterback Club. This is the final meeting of the year of the Quarterbacks.

Films of the Aggie-Longhorn thriller will be shown at the meet. The film is in color and Lippman will comment on the film as it is unreel. Coach Ray George was originally scheduled to speak at the meet, but is out of town attending the SWC Coaches and Officials' meet in Dallas.

This will be the last chance for A&M students to see the 20 graduating seniors of the team in action. Every senior on the team starred in the A&M-Texas clash. Gary Anderson made a game saving tackle late in the fourth period. Russ Hudeck was vicious with his blocking and tackling; Raley of the Longhorns made a pass at Russ, who stands six foot five, and Russ was promptly knocked flat for his poor show of sportsmanship and, in our opinion, poor show of judgment.

Others who starred were Yale Lary, who made two touchdowns, punted exceptionally well and was a superb defender; Glenn Lippman, who rolled up 174 yards rushing; Billy Tidwell, who scored a touchdown and put Dillon out of the game with a flying head-hold that saw Dillon lifted clear of the ground and slung out of bounds head first; Johnny Salyer, who tackled like a tank and intercepted a crucial Longhorn pass; Darrow Hooper, who kicked the game winning field goal and extra point; Dick Gardemal, who quarterbacked flawlessly in the greatest game of his career and showed he had real guts by calling a fourth down quarterback sneak on the Aggie 24-yard line and earned a new series of ball control downs for the Cadets; Charlie Hodge and Eric Miller, a pair of wingmen, who made impossible catches of Cadet aeriels to keep the Aggie drives going; and Elo Nohavitzka, Hugh Meyer, and Alvin Langford, who opened up that hole for Gardemal in that fourth down try in the fourth period; Buddy Shaeffer who played his usual great defensive game; and all the other Aggies, who showed that never-say-die spirit for which AggieLand is known world-wide.

Aggie

Russ Hudeck
Tackle

Many of those 375 yards rushing against the Steers came through gaping holes opened by the bull-like drives of Hudeck.

W. T. Rush
Guard

Playing his last game for the Maroon and White, Rush gave a stellar performance in the stirring win over the Longhorns.

Aggie Victory
Filmed in Color

Color films of the Aggie victory over the invaders from the "Forty Acres" will be shown Thursday at the final meeting of The Battalion Quarterback Club. The meeting will begin at 7:45 p.m. Thursday, in the Assembly Hall.

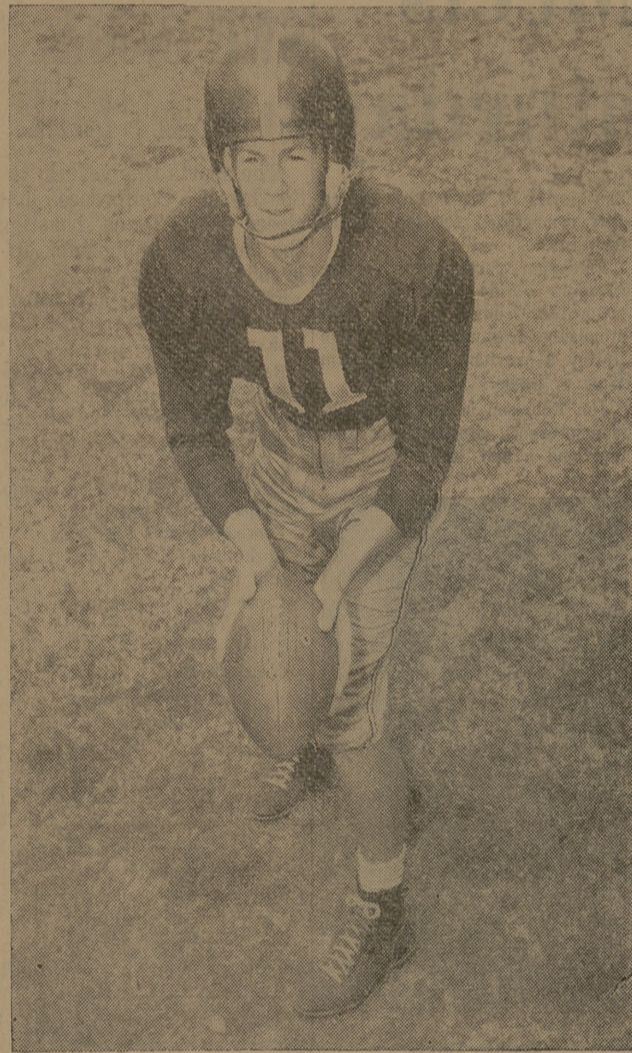

Halfback Glenn Lippman, who turned in an outstanding performance in this final game of his college career, will narrate the movie.

With this film the Quarterback Club ends the 1951 season. The next meeting will be held following the first Aggie game of the season in 1952.

Sam Moses
Tackle

One of the most underrated players in the conference, Moses will be long remembered by the Steer players who were so unfortunate as to get in Big Sam's way last Thursday.

Dick Gardemal
Quarterback

Showed real poise, calm and alertness
