Rev. Miller Tells Rotarians Answer to Hate
It is sometimes good business to place oneself in the other person's position, the Reverend Patrick D. Miller, pastor of Druid Hills Presbyterian Church in Atlanta, Ga., told College Station and Bryan Rotarians Wednesday.

Applying the principle as possible anecdote to the hate which exists in the world, he said: "It is good religion, good business to place yourself in the other fellow's place and get his viewpoint."

Dr. Miller is holding a series of revival services at the First Presbyterian Church in Bryan this week.

Guy Deaton gave the invocation. Guests were introduced by Joe Cox.

GLORY TO GOD!

Every Sunday Jimmy stands here in the choir loft along with twenty other boys singing some of the most glorious music ever written. For three years he has been singing for his church, and now after these many months he wouldn't miss practices for the world. But it wasn't always like that! During those first months tears were shed and Dad had to force Jimmy to attend rehearsals, because you see Jimmy didn't know what was best. There is a job for everybody at church. Maybe it isn't as obvious as singing in the choir. Maybe it's something that's never been done before. But the thing is, you'll never know until you go and find out. All of us aren't as lucky as Jimmy. Most of us, and especially we grown-ups, don't have anyone to insist that we go to church. But the need is there. We need the church and its teaching, and the church needs us to extend its work and services. Go to church next Sunday and find out how you can best serve God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
