men victory was their ability to control the rebounds, everytime a ball glanced off the backboard, a Fish had it.

A nip and tuck battle through the first period with the lead changing hands several times, saw the Fish out in front by one point when the buzzer sounded, 8 to 7.

The second period saw the Fish lead all the way until the last one minute of play when the Ramblers scored a quick three points to tie the score as the half ended, 18-18.

Bob McCullough, Fish forward from Fort Worth, was one of the leading scorers for the Fish during the game, scoring eight points with Cecil Neely, Fish center from Madisonville, was tops with 15.

As the second half started, the Fish sparked by the ball handling of Rodney Pirtle, forward hailing from Coleman, Texas and Don Moon, a five foot ten inch guard from Minden, Texas, started to take the lead and kept out in front the rest of the contest.

FOUR ANGELS . . . and their Shepherds

They certainly don't behave like angels most of the time!
But when you hear them singing the beloved carols, you can't help thinking that it couldn't have been sweeter music the night the angels sang in Bethlehem.
And if one of them is your child, you sort of feel like one of the shepherds "keeping watch over their flocks by night."
And the next thing you know—you're wishing you could go to the Manger and "see this thing which has come to pass, which the Lord has made known unto us."
Then, Sunday morning, you take the whole family to Church. And in a quiet moment of meditation or prayer you realize suddenly that all the years and all the miles haven't separated the angels and shepherds of Today from the Child of Bethlehem.

HOLY BIBLE
THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
