Tidwell In Two Bowls

Billy Tidwell, star halfback for the Aggies, will participate in two bowl games. The first will be the North-South Game at Miami, Florida, which features graduating seniors. Billy has been invited largely on his running score. He is one of the fastest in the business, and one of the shiftest. An expected 40,000 will see Billy represent the South and A&M. He will then drop over to Montgomery, Ala., on Dec. 29, where he will play for the South again in the Blue-Gray Game. This tilt is scheduled for 1:45 p. m., and there is an expected crowd of 22,500. Billy might be remembered for his consistency. Rain or shine, he was carrying the ball for yardage and never once let up. He was one of the hardest hustling boys in the lineup, and could always worry the other team with that famous off-tackle which pulled the Aggies out of many a tight spot. Once through the line, Billy was a hard man to stop, and his continually rolling up long gains proved him as one of the best in the game.

Wildlife Club Has Christmas Party

The American Legion Hall was the scene of the Fish and Game Club Christmas Party Saturday from 6 p. m. until midnight. Members of the club, their families and guests received a visit from Santa Claus, who found presents for everyone in his well-filled pack, or under the 7-foot-high tree. After a period of Christmas carolling and Santa's departure, approximately 25 children of students and professors in the Wildlife Management Department, were taken to their homes.

Wild Dinner

Barbecued venison and trimmings was served at a long table decorated with green and white crepe paper, and a Christmas ornament "tree" centerpiece.

The hall was decorated by the Wildlife Wives Club, and Fish and Game Club members. Ruffled streamers were caught at each light fixture with ribbons, mistletoe, and balloons. Greenery was banked over windows, and colored Christmas bulbs lit the hall.

Reds Argue Over P.O.W. Exchange

Frank T. Knapp, club sponsor, who had been appointed master of ceremonies, opened the dance and kept it lively with variations of "Paul Jones" routines.

Robert H. "Bob" Holman was chairman of party arrangements. Richard H. Bitter was in charge of arranging Santa's visit. Members of both the Fish and Game and Wildlife Wives Clubs assisted in preparations for the party.

College Cow Picked Best in Entire State

A&M owns the registered Holstein-Friesian cow which has been judged the new champion milk producer in Texas, according to the the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Agnetz Karmore Ormsby Echo Maid was milked two times daily, leading the Ten-Months' Division. She produced 577 pounds of butterfat from 16,010 pounds of milk.

Miss Smith Joins Extension Offices

Mae Belle Smith, Extension district agent with headquarters at Uvalde, has been transferred to the Extension Editorial Office on the A&M campus. According to G. G. Gibson, director, Miss Smith will serve as assistant editor in charge of home economics news and radio information.

Miss Smith is a graduate of Texas State College for Women where she received a bachelor's degree with a major in home economics-food, and a minor in home economics-clothing. She has done graduate study at Chicago and Columbia Universities.

Her first appointment with the Extension Service was that of McCulloch County home demonstration agent. From there she was transferred to Johnson County and later served as assistant county home demonstration agent in Tarrant County. In 1935 she was transferred to the headquarters staff as district agent which position she has held until the present time.

Miss Smith is a member of the Texas Agricultural Workers Association and Epsilon Sigma Phi, honorary organization for Extension workers.

Two per cent of the vehicles involved in fatal traffic accidents last year had unsafe brakes.

Mild and Warmer Today, Tomorrow

The winter's coldest weather to date ended under murky skies Monday as winds shifted from north to south and temperatures started rising.

The gradual warmup began Sunday as bright sunshine hit most sections of the state after a sub-freezing early morning as far south as Alice and Laredo.

The weather bureau forecast mostly cloudy skies and warmer temperatures and east and south-central Texas Monday with the cloudiness increasing and still warmer temperatures Tuesday.

Partly cloudy skies and rising temperatures were on the weather agenda for west Texas and the north central portion of the state Monday and Tuesday.

Hospital

When asked about the food service in the hospital, Mrs. Claghorn said the hospital is not trying to starve anyone.

Soup, milk, and lots of fruit juice have been prescribed for patients with influenza, she said. "You can't expect us to feed these boys steaks if they are ill. It is very dangerous to feed the patients anything heavy, because these foods can help the disease to develop into something much worse."

Haven't Secured Medicine Many unit commanders have not been by to pick up the medicine and other hospital supplies issued for students to have in their dormitories, she pointed out. "After a student once becomes ill enough to take cough medicine or to gargle his throat, it doesn't do him any good to come to the hospital in the cold air just to get some medicine."

Mrs. Claghorn also asked that any student who wasn't satisfied with the service he got at the hospital, she would like to hear his story personally. She said it was a shame that so many false rumors had been circulating around the campus.

980th Air Reserve Will Meet in MSC

The 9807th Volunteer Air Reserve Training Squadron will hold its last meeting of the year tonight in the MSC at 7:30.

Maj. Louis M. Newman will lecture on Strategic Air Operations. Late information will be released regarding the revised Air Force Reserve Training program.

Reservists attending the meeting will earn points toward retirement and promotion. All Air Force Reserve personnel are invited to attend the meeting, even though they are not members of the 9807th Squadron.

Contest

The contest, sponsored by The Battalion, was launched as a means to revive the old-fashioned spirit of Christmas in College Station. The fact that many residents are traveling during the actual holidays need not mean that they cannot enjoy decorating their own homes during the month of December.

Entries will be accepted until 6 p. m. today, but none may be listed at The Battalion Office after that time.

Bowl 'Em Over Day Set in MSC Alley

Tuesday, Dec. 18, has been designated "Bowl 'Em Over Aggie Day" in the MSC Bowling Alley, Mrs. Elaine Lester, Bowling Alley Manager, announced this morning.

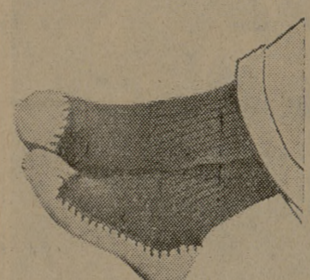

Two contests will be held and prizes will be awarded. All undergraduate and graduate students except the top twelve players on the MSC sponsored Aggie bowling team are eligible to compete.

Bowling will begin at 9 a. m. and continue until 11 in the evening, Mrs. Lester said.
