Only War We Seek

To meet the threat of Soviet aggression we must, of course, build our own armaments, establish strong defense lines with our allies in Western Europe, and continue to strengthen the United Nations.

But, more than that, if we are to accept fully our position of moral leadership, we must join in an all-out attack on poverty, ignorance, disease, and oppression wherever they exist.

Specifically we must support those leaders who have the courage to introduce land reforms which will assure peasants the right to own the land they till.

We must lend the technical assistance in food production, industrial development, public health, and education which will multiply the natural wealth of the underdeveloped countries and bring greater opportunities to their people.

We must resist the temptation, in the name of law and order, to support those reactionary governments which welcome economic development only as a means of increasing the riches of the few.

We must encourage the administrative and political reforms which are essential to the growth of effective democratic governments.

In other words, through consistent, practical, concrete action in Asia, the Near East, Africa and South America, we must demonstrate in unmistakable terms our concern for the rank and file of humanity, and our willingness to help them build a better life. Through the specialized agencies of the United Nations and through our own direct efforts it would be our moral responsibility to do this even though the Soviet Union and world communism did not exist. What the present crisis has done is simply to lend greater urgency and more obvious self-interest to an expanded program of economic, social and political assistance which is already long overdue . . .

—Chester Bowles

Some prophets are without honor unless they toot their own horns.

Inner Security

"In spite of the great benefits which the physical sciences have bestowed on mankind—a longer and more comfortable life, a life more free from physical pains and filled with an infinite variety of interesting objects and educational experiences—there is no evidence that individuals are happier . . . that families are more united . . . that governments or political bodies are wiser or that nations are less likely to go to war.

"Religion does not promise us a perfect life on earth or freedom from suffering. Rather it gives us the strength to bear suffering. Nor does religion guarantee that we or anyone can arrange the lives of others as we please. Rather it expects us to continue making the best efforts we can on behalf of others.

"Religion means a trust in God. Such trust gives the inner security and confidence we need to carry us through. No human being can give us anything comparable to what our faith—our religion—can give us."

Henry C. Link

Most people who think they have something important to say, say nothing.

Religion does not require that a man be blind to common experience.

LIGHT AND SHADOW

Parilli Jars Frogs Kentucky Wins Tilt

It was Sweet Kentucky Babe all the way! The magnificent Parilli passed, run and faked the TCU Horned Frogs into a state of confusion Tuesday to lead his Wildcats to a rich 20-7 Cotton Bowl victory.

With magic-like perfection, Parilli threw two touchdown passes, both to little Emery Clark, a double duty back who also turned in a fine performance for the invading Kentuckians.

The third Wildcat tally came just 25 seconds before the game ended with Ed Hamilton scoring on a four-yard plunge. TCU was stopped four times inside the 10-yard line by the savage defense of the Wildcats. The Froggies only score came on a 43-yard scamper by Bobby Jack Floyd, TCU's versatile fullback.

A full house of 75,000 braved chilly weather and the two clubs became between $123,000 and $124,000 richer. TCU had to give 25 per cent of its share to the Southwest Conference.

"It was a team job," said Kentucky Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant, adding the Wildcats defense was the difference along with good protection for Parilli's valuable passing.

Other Bowl Games

Tennessee may be the nation's No. 1 collegiate team but you would have a mighty tough job today convincing either Maryland or Illinois.

The boys who operate the split-T formation for Coach Jim Tatum at Maryland soundly whipped Gen. Bob Neylands Tennessee Volunteers 28-13 yesterday in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans.

Illinois walloped Stanford's Indians, kingpin of the Pacific Coast Conference, 40-7 in the Rose Bowl. Maryland ranked third in the Associated Press poll, Illinois was fourth, three notches above Stanford.

"Papa" Bowl Game

The Rose Bowl, granddaddy of all post-season gridiron classics, and the Sugar Bowl headed a nationwide card of 13 games which drew more than 400,000 fans. Millions more looked in on the Illinois-Stanford affairs at Pasadena, Calif., via a nation-wide television hookup.

The bowl at Pasadena was packed with the largest turnout, 96,825 while another 82,000 jammed into the Sugar Bowl.

The 1951 rankings ran true to form in the Orange Bowl at Miami, Fla., where Georgia Tech (No. 5) edged Baylor (No. 9), 17-14 on Pepper Rodgers' 10-yard field goal in the closing minutes.

But Kentucky's Wildcats, riding on the arm of Vito (Babe) Parilli, dumped No. 11 ranked Texas Christian 20-7 before 75,000 in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas. Kentucky was ranked 15th.

Other results included: Miami (Fla.) 14 Clemson 0, in the Gator; Texas Tech 25 College of Pacific 14, in the Sun; Houston 26 Dayton 21, in the Salad; Stetson 35 Arkansas State 20, in the Tangerine; Camp Drake Army 26 Yokosuka Naval Base 12 in the Cherry at Yokohama, Japan; Hinds J. C. 27 San Angelo J. C. 22, in the Oleander; Bethune-Cookman 27 Texas College 13, in the Steel; Prairie View 27 Arkansas A. M. 26, in the Prairie and San Diego State 34 Hawaii 13 in the Pineapple Bowl at Honolulu.

Sugar Bowl

Ed (Big Mo) Modzelewski and Ed Fullerton, a pair of hard hitting backs from Pennsylvania's coal regions, were largely responsible for ending Tennessee's winning streak at 20 games and stretching Maryland's string of victories to 12.

Modzelewski, ripping the Tennessee line to shreds, outgained the entire Volunteer team as he picked up 153 yards in 28 tries. Fullerton scored two touchdowns, one on a 46-yard sprint after intercepting a pass tossed by All-America Hank Lauricella.

The Maryland defense was so tight that the Vols gained only 81 yards on the ground and Lauricella was held to a net gain of one yard in seven times he toted the ball.

Illinois Runs Wild

In contrast to the Sugar Bowl game in which Maryland took a 21-0 lead on three touchdowns within seven minutes early in the game, Illinois and Stanford staged a ding dong affair for two periods with the Indians holding a 7-6 half-time advantage.

Midway in the third period Stan Wallace, Illini halfback, intercepted a pass from Stanford's Gary Kerkorian and sped 54 yards to the Stanford 12. On the third play Fullback Bill Tate ripped around right end for five yards and a touchdown.

From there on the Illini poured it on to continue the Big Ten's dominance over the PCC in the classic. They posted 27 points in the final period to break a Rose Bowl record for points in one quarter. The previous high was 22 made by Alabama in 1935.
