Jewell's Last Night

when Texas was out to win the tilt and a championship. Jewell and Womack only took two free throws in the entire game, and neither scored.

Around the campus, Jewell is just one of the boys. He is one of the few athletes who are willing to smile and speak to everyone. He is one of the greatest Aggie basketball players of all times, but to hear Jewell tell it, he just likes to play the game.

Jewell won the Intramural hand ball championship, and spends much of his spare time when the season isn't under way down at the little gym working out to keep his timing and footwork in tip-top shape. He has as many friends here at Aggie as anyone, and it's his friendliness that does it. He loves A&M; and if you cynical ones need any proof, take a look back over his four year record as top guard for the Aggies.

Part of this DEBT is YOURS

No, not the national debt. That is merely a financial obligation, and you already know that part of it is yours. What is meant is the service debt that you owe to your family and to society.

The Church shown here is one of thousands which are carrying the load of responsibility for a better kind of citizenship, for international peace, and for the greater acceptance of those higher values which alone can lead people into the better life and save the world from destroying itself.

No matter what your estimate of this or that church may be, the fact is that in the Church, and in the Bible which is its written word, lies the world's one hope.

Every responsible person owes a part of civilization's debt to the Church. For the sake of your children—for the sake of humanity—for your own sake—why not take an interest in the Church? Let's give religion a chance to do what it will do when today's unchurched millions are added to the forces for good already at work.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
