Kid's Corral to Aid Harrassed Mothers

Mothers will be able to corral their children in a "Corral" made just for that purpose at the remodeled Miller's IGA Super Market.

Miller's has also added new departments for Hotpoint appliances, gifts, and chinaware, according to Manager Harry Turner.

An expansion sale Thursday afternoon, Friday and Saturday will mark the formal reopening of Miller's IGA following the remodeling.

Floor space has been doubled, from 3500 to 7000 to square feet. Aisles have been enlarged to six feet in width as a part of the increased emphasis on extra convenience for the shopper.

Manager Turner has been in the grocery business for 20 years. He joined Miller's IGA as manager in June, 1951. He lived at 703 North Avenue with his wife and three children.

Miller's IGA is located at 3800 Highway 6 South, Bryan.

IN BITING WIND AND COLD AND SNOW... his numb fingers bent around an M-1 rifle... this soldier is living with the same hardships suffered by General Washington's troops at Valley Forge 174 years ago.

His equipment is immeasurably better than any those first Yankees could have dreamed of. His chances of survival are equally improved. But, like them, he is doing a grim, hard job for the defense of his country.

Defense is your job, too. It is your job to maintain and support America's economic strength as this soldier is supporting her military strength.

It's an easy job... and one of the best ways to do it is by buying United States Defense Bonds regularly. For with bonds and other forms of savings you are making yourself and your country stable and strong. And America must be kept strong—economically as well as militarily. For we must always remember . . . in this cold-warring world, peace is only for the strong!

The U. S. Defense Bonds you buy give you personal financial independence
