

Club Football Winners

The Business Society knocked over Port Arthur in the finals to win the intramural Club Championship in football. Members of the team are as follows: front, P. S. Leming, C. F. Clinger, T. L. Dashed, A. G. Kingston, A. H. Lock, Back row, S. R. Houser, M. L. Minturn, R. N. Dobbins, A. W. Donaldson, and E. E. Curry.

Aggies Face Baylor Saturday in Waco

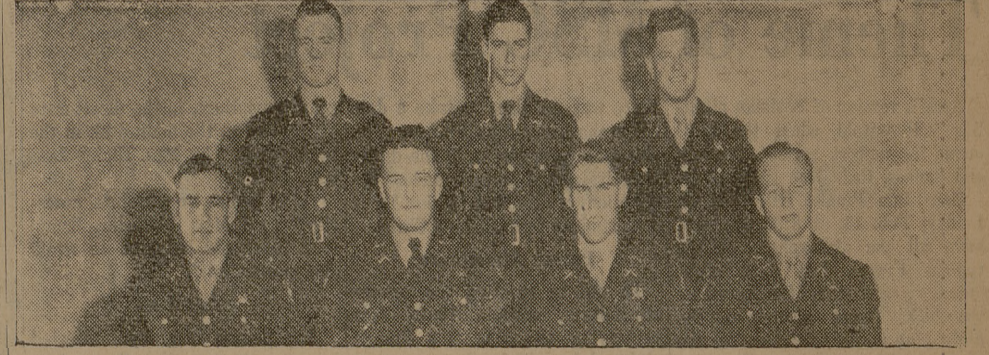

The Aggies, minus Jewell McDowell, the lad who dealt Baylor so much misery earlier in the season, invade Waco Saturday night for the second game of the year against the Bears.

McDowell, who was graduated last month, racked up 23 points in his final college game against the Bruins, as A&M won the tilt 47-36.

The 8 p. m. meeting of these two clubs will furnish fans the opportunity to see a battle for second place scoring leadership between the Cadets' big center, 6-8 Walter Davis, and Baylor's hook shot artist, forward-center Ralph Johnson.

When Baylor was trimmed by the Aggies in College Station last month, Johnson fouled out of the

Intramural Tennis Champs

For the second year in a row, A Infantry has won the intramural upperclassmen tennis crown. Included on the team are: front row, Dick Jennings, Ellsworth Clinger, Ted Coughran, Harold Hudspeth. On the back row are: Ed Moses, Aron Cohen, and Tuffy Chandler.

TCU Grid Practice Starts February 11

Fort Worth, Jan. 29.—If all goes well in the current midterm exams, 29 of the 39 lettermen for TCU's championship team of 1951 will report for spring football training on Feb. 11.

With the 33 men who earned freshman numerals plus several "ineligibles," Coach L. R. (Dutch) Meyer is expecting a squad of around 70 for the 18-day grind.

A&M Briefs

A&M suffered more this year from graduation than any Southwest Conference football team. Nine of the offensive starters completed their eligibility, and six of the defensive stalwarts are gone. Nineteen lettermen in all finished their football.

Texas A&M defeated the arch rivals, University of Texas cagers, four out of six basketball games in 1951. One of the victories was in conference play, two in the conference playoffs and one in the SW Basketball Tournament, Dallas.

Aggie Nine Schedules Games; Meet 14 Non-Conference Foes

A&M will play 14 non-conference baseball games this spring including two-and-three-game series with the University of Minnesota and Ohio State University, respectively.

Ohio State, led by the Aggies' former coach Marty Karow, will be in College Station March 20-22 while Minnesota's Gophers follow the Buckeyes the following week-end for a pair of games.

Last spring the Cadets split a double-header with the Gophers at Pat Hubert hurled a 7-inning no-hitter to win 1-0. Minnesota won the nightcap 2-0.

In the NCAA playoffs at Omaha, Neb., last June, A&M, on the strength of outfielder Yale Lary's home run, knocked the Buckeyes out of contention 3-2.

The Buckeyes will see this same Lary plus seven other returning lettermen when these two clubs tangle. Other than Lary, the Cadets will have returning Hank Candolari, team captain at third base; Joe Everett, second base; Bill Munnerlyn, first base; Al Ogletree and Martin Hamilton, catchers; and Sid Goodloe and Bob Tankersley, pitchers.

Shortstop Shortage

Charles Leissner, up from the 1951 freshman team, is one of the best prospects to replace Guy Wal-

Strong Nucleus

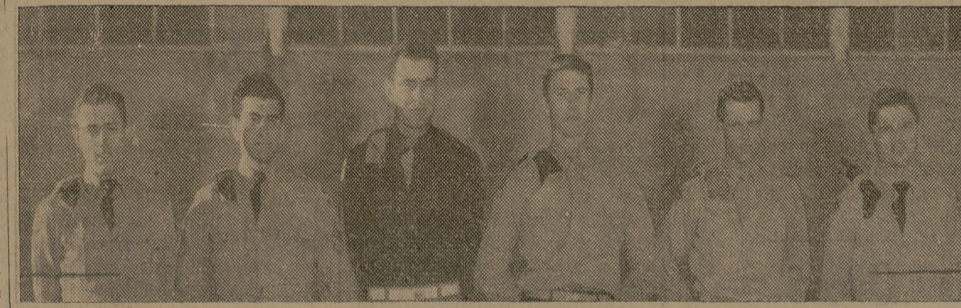

The Christians will have a strong nucleus for 1952. Returning for the offensive team are three top quarterbacks: Gilbert Bartosh, Danny Ray McKown and Malvin Fowler. The Frogs' top fullbacks, Bobby Jack Floyd and Bill Doty, are also due to return.

At the halfbacks, the Christians will have such veterans as John Harville, Glen Jones, Jack Ray and Danny Hallmark.

Along the offensive line, Ends Teddy Vaught and Bobby Blair return as seniors, Marshall Harris is back at right tackle, 240-pound Carlton McCormack at center and Jack Ramsay at right guard. In addition, such reserve lettermen as Mickey Teems and Hubert Parrett at guards, Bobby McEachern at center, and Tom Evans at tackle are back.

For the defensive unit, Ends Wayne Martin and Charles Rogers return for senior years; Morgan Williams, Hal Lambert, Bill Buck, R. C. Harris, Bill Mattern are back in the center of the line. And the three secondary defensesmen who played most of the Cotton Bowl are fit for duty again. They are Sammy Morrow and Ronald Fraley at halfbacks, Marshall (Boogie) Robinson at safety.

Short On Linebackers

Meyer's big job is to find a top-flight linebacker and offensive linemen to replace Hughes and Taylor. He plans to give Freshman Center Dale Brakebill a long trial at the backer-up position. He has several promising linemen up from the Wog team, notably huge Billy Poe Stephenson and Claude Roach of Fort Worth.

In a way, the veteran Frog skipper has an "unusual" situation at tailback—the key position on his spread formation. He has "too many" good players at the spot.

Besides Bartosh, who will be a senior, he has Fowler and McKown as juniors. Ray was recently presented an award as the Conference's "most valuable" back—the first time it was ever won by a sophomore.

Cage Results Nine Fish Athletes Enroll in Basic Div

Nine freshmen athletes—six football players, two baseball prospects and one hurdler—have enrolled in the Basic Division, A&M College.

Four of the gridsters who completed high school at mid-term are backfield men as Coach Ray George makes strong bid to replace 10 senior backs who completed their eligibility last fall. These six will be out for the freshman football team next year.

Coming from Houston are Jerry Johnson and Gerald Redmon, fullbacks; Kenneth Mann, an all-city center; and Harley Hartung, Class AA high hurdler champion last year. Hartung, who won the state meet in 14.4, will be eligible for competition with the Fish team this spring.

- Dallas Helps
- Dallas has one baseball player and two football players among the newcomers to A&M. Fred Abdon, an all state performer at Highland Park, will bolster the Aggie Fish's outfield, and tackle Clifford Watson and halfback Gilbert Petty should give George some help on the gridiron.
- Petty, a 170-pounder, from Woodrow Wilson, was all city and all district, and placed first and fourth in the hurdles and 100-yard dash, respectively last year in city competition. Watson is from Sunset High.
- Jimmy Miner, an all North Louisiana AA halfback last season, comes to A&M from Byrd High School, Shreveport. A heavy-set athlete of the "Glenn Lippman" type, Miner made both touchdowns last fall to defeat Fair Park of Shreveport, who went to the finals of state competition.
- Another Outfielder
- Coach Beau Bell is getting another outfielder, Bobby Sanders of El Paso. Sanders and Ablon should make the current Fish baseball team one of the strongest in recent years.

Cross-Country Champs for the 1951-52 intramural season are A Infantry. Members of the winning team are Bill Tarbet, George Skladal, Spencer Buchanan, Jr., Harvey Dusenberg, and Milton McFeron.

Farmers Third Loss

the Aggies.

Although the Farmers committed 24 fouls compared to only 10 by TCU, no one fouled out; however, Davis and LeRoy Miksch, both with four fouls finished the game on the bench.

This third loss for the Aggies dropped the Cadets into fourth place in the conference directly below S.M.U. A mathematical chance of the Farmers winning the title still exists.

Saturday night the Aggies travel to Baylor to encounter the Baylor Bears for the second time this year. The Cadets won the first game.
