

Aggies Bothered with 4th Period Fade; TU, Frogs Set For Possible Title Bout

By BOB SELLECK
Battalion Sports Editor

A bothersome fourth quarter fade plus a 15-point second half scoring spree by Arkansas' Walter Kerns cost the Aggies their fifth straight setback in DeWare Field House last night, 49-40.

The Cadets started fast jumping to a 11-6 lead at the end of the first period. They held on in the second quarter despite the fact they were outscored 10 to 7.

Six Quick-Ones

It was little Tyron Lewis that broke lose to add six quick points to the Arkansas' 44-38 lead with less than five minutes to go.

In the first half the Cadets had complete control from the free throw circle. Don Binford flipped in four straight, while Davis added four more before the string was broken.

Binford finished the night's efforts by completing six out of seven charity tosses plus four field goals for 14 points.

Davis Scores 19

Big Buddy Davis tied for high-scoring honors with the Hogs' Kern at 19 each. Davis also tossed in nine gift shots missing six others.

This time the Cadets were ahead in re-bounds, 31-28, and came out on top in the free-throw department, 16-15, but still couldn't score enough to finish on top.

The Razorbacks hit 17 field goals to 12 for the Cadets. The fouling was even except you couldn't tell whether the referee had a travelling mania or if it was the two quintets.

Referee Hesitates

After watching the continuous resitation on part of the referee prior to his decision, it could have been a disease of the referee.

Binford, Woody Walker, and Eddie Houser turned in a fine defensive game for the Aggies in the earlier stages of the game. Walker was one of the steadier men on the court through out the whole battle.

Don Heft, Cadet guard tossed in a 35-foot field goal with about five minutes left to go in the game to throw a brief light on the Aggies chances. It made the score 44-40.

The last hope was stopped cold when the Hogs went into a deep freeze to finish the game.

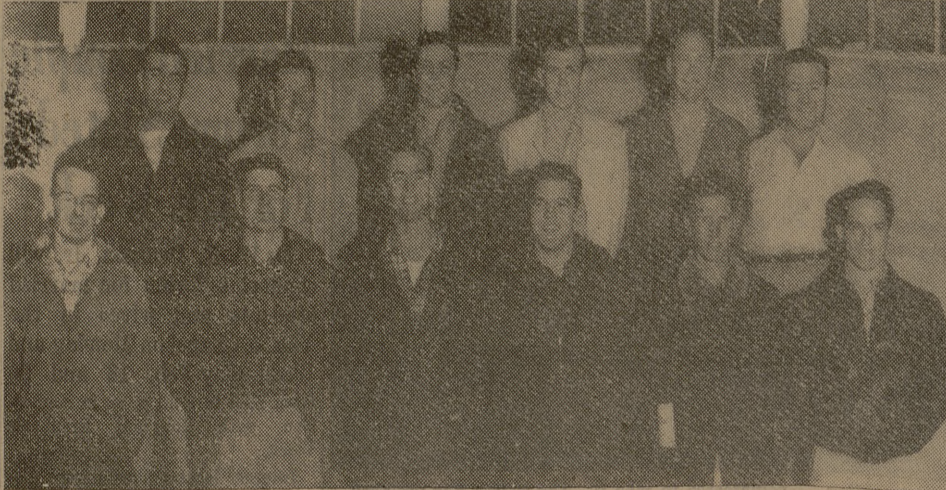

Lewis was second high scorer for the Hogs with nine points, six coming in the fading minutes of the game.

LeRoy Miksch, Heft, Davis, and Binford helped the Cadets control the backboards over the taller Razorbacks until Miksch was forced to the sidelines by way of the foul route. Houser also fouled out for the Cadets.

Only Arkansas' Marvin Adams was forced from the game, but Lambert, Elkins, Kearns, Lewis, and Sagely all ended the game with four each.

Saturday night, the Aggies will play host to the SMU Mustangs in DeWare Field House.

TU, Frogs Set For Possible Title Bout

BASED ON AP REPORT

The Southwest Conference basketball chase reaches an excitement peak next Saturday night in Fort Worth when the leading University of Texas Longhorns take on second-place TCU in the battle that may decide the conference championship.

The Longhorns edged into first place in the league standings Saturday night with a 57-49 victory over SMU, but had to come from behind a 26-25 deficit to do it.

The same night Baylor was upsetting A&M, 52-45, and Rice was spinning a surprise with a 59-55 victory over Arkansas.

Texas Christian played only one game last week, a 52-41 win over the Aggies, while all other quintets except Rice were playing two.

Hogs Tie For Fourth

Arkansas bounced out of the cellar into a two way tie for fourth place with a win over the Aggies 49-40 in College Station last night.

This leaves Rice and Baylor on the bottom. Baylor plays Texas Tuesday night while Rice is playing TCU.

Wins by Texas and the Frogs will set up a thriller-diller for Fort Worth fans Saturday night.

A Rice-Baylor game in Houston Friday night may decide the last place team for the season.

Although he made only eight points in the lone Frog game of the week, center George McLeod managed to hang onto scoring honors.

He leads the season's scoring for the Southwest with 314 points to 280 for Baylor's Ralph Johnson.

Aggie center Buddy Davis took over temporary lead in the conference with 118 points followed by Walter Kearns with 111 points. Both lads scored 19 counters in the A&M-Hog battle last night.

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER!

The difference between "just smoking" and really enjoying your smoke is the taste of a cigarette. You can taste the difference in the smoother, mellower, more enjoyable taste of a Lucky . . . for two important reasons. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco . . . fine, mild tobacco that tastes better. Second, Luckies are made to taste better . . . proved best-made of all five principal brands.
