Influenza Leads Sickness Report

Forty-nine cases of influenza headed the list of diseases reported in College Station and Bryan last week. College Station had 20 cases of "flu" reported according to the report issued by the Bryan-Brazos County Health Unit.

In College Station, the number of cases of other diseases was diarrhea, four cases; pneumonia, four cases; septic sore throat, three cases; gonorrhea, two cases; and chickenpox, one case.

Influenza also led the list of diseases reported in Bryan with 29 cases reported. The rest of the list was broken down as follows: diarrhea, eight cases; pneumonia and gonorrhea, four cases each; septic sore throat, three cases; sphyllis and mumps, two cases each; and measles, one case.

"Just takin' it all in," says Mrs. Howard Berry as she and the husband watch the square dancing at the Lions Club Ladies Night in the MSC Monday.

well and keep the Pony attack on the move.

The Aggies will probably start Walt Davis at center, LeRoy Miksch, and Eddie Houser at forwards, and Raymond Walker and Don Heft at guards.

If SMU can win over the Aggies Saturday night the series which dates back to 1918 will be tied up at 39 victories apiece.

Probable starters for SMU are Galey and Wheeler at guards; Richard Bryan and Kastman at forwards; and Holm at center.

Starting for the Colts are Art Barnes and Tommy Bowers, forwards; Nelson Alexander, center; John Meyer and Proud, guards.

For the Aggie Fish, coach Larry Hayes will probably start, Don Moon and Rodney Pirtle, guards; Cecil Neely, center; Bob Johnson and Dale Fisher at forwards.

Rue Pinalle Needs Talent

More talent is needed for future performances of Cafe Rue Pinalle according to Miss Betty Bolander, program coordinator of the MSC. The new entertainment feature of the MSC plans to stage performances each Friday night for the remainder of the semester.

Although some outside talent will appear on the programs, the Cafe will rely mainly on students for its talent. This week's floor show, to be announced in Friday's Battalion, will include Aggies and wives.

Any Aggies who have talent for dancing, singing, magic, or specialty acts should see Miss Bolander at her office adjacent to the MSC Directorate office as soon as possible.

Because only 150 people can be accommodated at one time, it will be necessary for those going to the

Jun. Prom Ducats Off Sale Thursday

Tickets for the Junior Prom will go off sale in the dormitory areas Feb. 14. Joe Wallace, ticket committee chairman, announced today. Non-regs, as well as military students, may purchase tickets at the Office of Student Activities, Room 201 Goodwin Hall, until noon Saturday, he said.

Tickets will also be available at the Prom, Saturday night in Sbis Mess Hall; however, to avoid standing in line, Wallace urged all men to buy their tickets early. Tickets are $2 stag or drag.

The Aggieband orchestra led by Bill "Pop" Turner will play for the Prom which is scheduled from 9-12 p. m.

Seniors with dates are invited to the dance; however, none without dates will be admitted.
