

'Madness' Reigns At Architects ASABAB Ball

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn C. Lareau go formal to the architects annual Ball—ASABAB. The couple attended the dance dressed as a monster while his wife came as a headless ghoul. Mrs. LaReau carried her head on a dagger. This costume won the second place honors. (Battalion Photo by Cashion).

Appearing as an apparition out of a bad dream Ted Howard and Miss Pat Rushing enjoy the madness of the architects annual beaux arts ball which was held Saturday night in Sbisla Hall. The architects decorated the hall with netting, and abstractions designed to carryout the general theme of madness.—(Staff Photo by Cashion).

MSC Performers

Miss Helene Marshall

The easy to look at North Texas State College lass smiles in appreciation of the applause from the 550 in the audience at the MSC sponsored Talent show Friday night. The Show was arranged by the music committee of the MSC, which got talent from colleges all over the state.—(Photo by Cashion).

Gilbert Kissling

Debate Squad Places Fourth

The A&M Debate Squad won two and lost four debates to place fourth in the Southwest Conference Debate Meet, held last Saturday in Waco, Texas and Arkansas were the two Aggie wins.

SMU won the meet with Baylor taking second place. Making the trip for A&M were James Farmer, Dan Davis, Berthold Weller, and Joe Riddle.

Next Friday and Saturday, members of the squad will journey to Nacadoches to take part in the Piney Woods Debate Tournament. Debate subject for all intercollegiate debates this year is "Resolved: That the Federal Government Should Adopt a Permanent Program of Wage and Price Control."

Guest List for Military Day

tickets will be ready for distribution to unit supply sergeants immediately. King said the tickets are to be distributed through the supply sergeants on regimental staffs and from there to the company supply sergeants. He pointed out that company supply officers will supervise sales of tickets in their units.

In the freshman area a similar set up will be provided sergeant majors and company first sergeants, King added.

It was decided by members of the Military Ball Committee to allow any student in uniform to attend the dance, whether or not he is in the corps now. Reserve personnel who are former students, students, or members of the college staff may attend the dance. Tickets will be on sale in the Office of Student Activities, Goodwin Hall, for these people who do not live in the military units.

double edge shavers!

If shaving is making and keeping your face tender, maybe it's the blade you're using. You owe it to your face to try

PAL HOLLOW GROUND DOUBLE EDGE BLADES

Does your face sting and burn when you apply shave lotion—or even cold water? Chances are you're using a blade sharpened like a penknife. You have to "bear down" to shave clean. PAL's patented Hollow Ground process makes "bearing down" unnecessary. You shave with a light, light stroke. Just the weight of the razor does the job. After a PAL shave your face is cool, relaxed, as smooth as a teen-ager's. Try PAL—you owe it to your face.
