second place teammate Bobby Johnson who fell six points shy with 197.8. Tech remained on bottom with Tucker's 164.4 points.

Don Crawford's 1:07.5 was good for second place in the event which Adamson won, the 100 yard individual medley.

Three of the Aggies top swimmers, Bill Sargent, Ralph Ellis, and Tommy Comstock saw their first action of the afternoon in the 200 yard medley relay, the number eight event.

Tech's Witcher, Norris, and Kain were left far behind with their 2:23.8 as Sargent, Ellis, and Comstock kept the water lanes hot with their winning time of 1:56.9.

Tech came closer to victory in the 266 2/3 yard freestyle relay, but still fell 10 seconds short of a winning time. Seth, Koelg, Wottring, and Burns were the winning combination for the Farmers as they beat out a winning time of 2:32.6. Tech's quartet of Morris, Tucker, Davis, and Street was sec-

Jerry Stull, DeWitt and Baker easily took the mile relay in 3:22.2. With the Cadet hurdle specialist, Paul Leming, out with a pulled muscle. Longhorn Bill Valls won the high hurdles but A&M sopho-mores Tom Dolahite and Bill Blake were close behind.

Ralph Person of TU edged out A&M's Bob Ragsdale and Bill Bless in the low hurdles in very good 23.6 time against the wind. One of the pleasant surprises of the meet was Aggie Dan Pratt who was second behind Hooper in both weight events with very good distances in both.

Although Steer Don Klein won the javelin, Pete Mayeaux of A&M looked like a very promising javelin thrower, taking second with 174' 3".

Comet Catcher Ken Staples, lead off man, placed BAMC in the lead with a home run, but the Cadets countered in the initial inning with five runs. Bill Munneryn, Hank Candelari, Joe Ecrette Yale Lary, and Al Ogletree scored with the aid of three walks and doubles by both Ecrette and Candelari, plus a single by Charley

The second inning brought the Comets 10 scores, but the Cadets countered with four more. Lary and Charley Russell walked with Ogletree's single scoring Lary. Candelari received first base on balls, after which Carl Menger singled, scoring both Russell and Ogletree. Candelari scored the fourth run on a flyout by Pitcher
