Ag Football Team Looks Impressive

By FRANK N. MANITZAS
Battalion Associate Editor

Reaching its halfway mark, the A&M spring training program showed definite improvement for Cadet football winning possibilities concerning next fall.

Although the Maroon and White graduated 19 lettermen which included the starting backfield quartet of Bob Smith, Glenn Lippman, Dick Gardemal and Billy Tidwell, Saturday night's intrasquad game showed talents as yet unfolded to the conference fields.

Perhaps the biggest step forward of an Aggie eleven over years past is the quarterback situation which will be the best in many a season.

Graves Experienced

Reasons: Ray Graves, an experienced man-under; Roy Dollar, capable college transfer who also saw service last year; Joel Smith and Edgar Hennig, a rising star from the ineligible team of last fall (because of transferring from another school.)

Most impressive in the past scrimmage was undoubtedly Ellis. Already dubbed by many who have seen him as another "Doaker", the Aggie quarterback holds a distinct advantage over the other candidates in the running for the man under slot in the Aggies new split-T offensive attack.

Having played last year on the B squad, Ellis carried the ball as the key man in a split-T against the main Aggie team for four weeks and as a wing man during the other weeks of practice.

Passing Improved

His passing is improving with every workout but his most admirable qualities are his ability to think quickly and breakaway running.

Playing from both the quarterback and halfback slots this past weekend, the DeQuincey, La. back kept the Maroons in the game with his ball handling and running.

Ellis Keeps, Maroons Gain

Even when the coldest was won for his team, he brought the game to new heights with an end around run that was good for 64 yards. On kickoff returns, he averaged 25 yards for two runbacks.

He passed for one touchdown and scored another from the nine yard line in bringing his team from a 0-14 deficit to a final 23-20 victory.

UH Netters Drop Ags, 4-2

The University of Houston tennis team trounced A&M 4-2 during A&M annual All-Sports Day program.

The Cadets started off fast winning two singles matches with Royce Tate beating Earl Caldwell 9-7, 6-0, and Gene Letsos trimming Bob Lovelace, Houston's top hand, 4-6, 6-4, 10-8.

Houston's D. Ligon beat R. G. DeBerry 6-3, 9-7, and Ken Wagstaff whipped A&M's Tommy West, 7-5, 6-3.

Caldwell and Ligon teamed to defeat Tate and Letsos 5-7, 6-4, 6-1. In the other doubles match Wagstaff and Lovelace bested West and DeBerry 6-4, 4-6, 6-0.

Sinks Winning Put

Pete Hessemer of the University of Houston drops in a putt on the 5th hole and goes ahead to win over Aggie J. C. Fletcher (right) one-up. Th Aggies tied with the University of Houston 3-3 as part of A&M's All Sports Day.

Mural Fight Night Set Thursday in DeWare

By JERRY WIZIG
Battalion Sports Writer

Intramural fight night rapidly approached reality yesterday afternoon as eight bouts in the freshman and five in the upperclassmen divisions were placed in the books. Fight night is set for Thursday in the DeWare Field House.

A&M Keglers Bowl Over Cougars, 3-0

A&M defeated the University of Houston bowling teams in all three divisions here Sunday on the MSC Alleys.

Ted Gullette led the Cadet A Team to a 2626-2519 victory over the Cougars top keggers with a 673 series. This was also the highest series bowled during the meet.

Houston's Tom Lockhart was the top scorer for the losers with a 601 series count.

In the other two matches, the Cadets were again victorious. John Geiger lead the B Team with a 528 series and Robert Alexander topped C Team with 496.

Downing the Cougars, 2358-2344, A&M's B keggers included Bob Brown, 478; David Krueger, 475; Don Austin, 474; M. Butler, 274 (two lines); and James Middleton, 129 (one line).

The Cadets' third team scored a total of 2315 pins to the visitors 2150, making a clean sweep of the three matches played. Other scores along with Alexander's 496 include B. Pearson, 459; Sam Stine, 447; James Middleton, 356; James Davis, 283; Robert Baker, 274.

The 157 and 167 pound classes carried the major burden of the program with three matches in each.

In freshman bouts of yesterday Sage, Battery 7, was the victim of a two round TKO by Bonzale, Squadron 3, suffering a cut above the eye. Reed, Company 9, constantly forced the action and gained the nod over Johnson, Squadron 15. Turner, Squadron 3, was credited with a decision over Mitchell, Company 11.

Clark Aggressive

In upperclassmen bouts Clark, D AF, though bleeding from the nose, was the constant aggressor, gaining a victory over McMillan, B CA, in a 177 pound bout.

In a 167 pound clash, Skrabanek, A AF, hit Griggs, B Armor, hard in the second and third rounds, drawing blood from his opponent's nose in coping the decision.

Other upperclassmen results were as follows: Scott, H AF, over Vasman, E FA, in a close bout; Huffstetter, A QM, over Ziegler,

A QM; Stoddard, B FA, over Dalton, B Infantry.

Freshmen results of last week are as follows:

137 pound class—Ramirgez, Squadron 13, over Zarnow, Squadron 5;

147 pound class—Porter, Squadron 15, over Kitchens, Squadron 2;

157 pound Class—James, Squadron 2, over Loustaunau, Company 8; Johnson, Company 10, over Newton, Fish Band; Brewer, Company 10, over French, Company 8;

167 pound class—Powell, Squadron 4, over Coppage, Squadron 5; Mitchell, Company 10, over Haddad, Company 12; Morris, Company 10, over Padgett, Company 12.

Cadet Wrestling Team Pins Longhorns, 26-12

The A&M Wrestling team stomped TU's matmen 26-12 Friday night in DeWare Field House.

In the first match of the night the Aggies took the early lead on a forfeit win by Curly Penn over Bill Reese in the 123-pound class.

The Cadets first loss came in the 130-pound class when George Laing of A&M was pinned by TU's Wayne Estes.

A&M's A. Stubbeman and J. Bibb of TU battled to a tie in the 137-pound class. The only tie for the night.

In the 147-pound division Rudy Henson pinned J. Robertson in 42 seconds for the quickest match of the evening. Henson came out of his corner in a hurry and before Robertson knew it his shoulders were glued to the mat.

For their second forfeit victory Allen Ashley of A&M won over TU's Pete Nichols.

Gay Wins

Ralph Gay of A&M decisioned Bob Coughlin of TU in the 167-pound class followed by another Aggie win when Pete Manos won the 117-pound title with a decision over Hank Greenfield, Texas.

The Cadet's only other loss came in the 191-pound division with Leon Scott of A&M losing to Sid Kacir of TU.

Delber Davis won the final match of the night over Hank Gilmore in the heavyweight.

College Men!
CHOOSE A CAREER
in the U. S. Air Force

Aviation Cadet Program Offers Special Opportunities for Collegians Now Preparing for Military Service

Here is a real man-size opportunity! You can choose—immediately—between being a Pilot or Aircraft Observer in America's swiftly-expanding Air Force. The Air Force encourages candidates to stay in school and graduate. However, seniors and students with two years or more of college who anticipate early entrance into military service can insure their future and serve their country best by applying for Aviation Cadet Training today. You receive the finest training and experience when you fly with the U. S. Air Force—experience that pays off in later years.

WHO MAY APPLY
AGE—Between 19 and 26½ years.
EDUCATION—At least two years of college.
MARITAL STATUS—Single.
PHYSICAL CONDITION—Good, especially eyes, ears, heart, and teeth.

HOW TO QUALIFY

1. Take transcript of college credits and copy of birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station.
2. Appear for physical examination at your nearest Air Base at Government expense.
3. Accomplish Flying Aptitude Tests and enlist for two years only!
4. The Selective Service Act awards you a four-month deferment while awaiting class assignment.
5. Immediate assignment to Aviation Cadet Training Classes starting May 27, July 13, August 19 and October 2, 1952.
6. Attend Aviation Cadet Training School for one year—either as Pilot or Aircraft Observer. Get $105 monthly plus food, housing, uniforms, and other benefits.
7. Graduate and win your wings! Commissioned as a second lieutenant, you begin earning $5,000 a year. In addition, you receive $250 uniform allowance and a 30-day leave with pay.

WHERE To Get More Details
Visit your nearest U. S. Air Force Base or U. S. Army—U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station or write direct to Aviation Cadet Headquarters, U. S. Air Force, Washington 25, D. C.
